which, <sup>although</sup> it didn't have <sup>earlier what</sup> ~~is~~ is central to me now -- <sup>the way</sup>

Hegel introduces Organization twice in the last para. of Phenomenology -- ~~nevertheless~~ touched that question. Thus:

What is exciting in the ~~very~~ 1st letter of the breakthrough on Absolute Idea -- 18 page 2 letters -- is that, 1st, I am supposedly talking what was predominant in JFT, the dialectic of the Party, and yet the 3rd brief paragraph by itself:

I am concerned only with the dialectic of the vanguard party of that type of grouping like ours, be it large or small, and its relationship to the mass.

P. 808 is exactly the para. ~~where~~ <sup>where</sup> Hegel used organization twice: "Organization of their spiritual kingdom" as he develops "the free existence appearing in the form of contingency, is History; looked at from the side of their intellectually comprehended Organization,

Rather, it is always the Self-Determination of the Idea and the Self-Bringing Forth of Liberty, plus some historic references, to matters like various developments of Party, be it of Marx's Communist League and First International, the GSD, "the party as different social layers" -- 1920 ; the party as suppressor of ranks and destroyer of revolution -- 1923-53; "ourselves" 1941-56; with the subdivision of '51 to '53.

I don't seem to know the dates of many of the other summaries, outside of the actual Notes in the '60 and '68 period, which were reproduced, but all these, I think, are from the years 85 to 87.

It appears to me that somewhere in the Fall of 1986

I began a series of Random Thoughts on Talking to Myself and that kind of disorganized notes regarding Phen. and dealing also with organization, but it seems that the 1st kind of reference to Hegel on organization is not on "party" but the corruption of the Church, and from his Philosophy of Religion Hegel's attack on Catholics for selling indulgences, saying that such corruption is beyond any reform and must be abolished. But as a good Lutheran, he holds to "revealed religion", and I remember noting that his dialectics had moved from organization to philosophy itself. (cf. ftn. 90 , p. 299, P&R)
