

HUNGARIAN REV.

I. From "Neither War Nor Peace" by Hugh Seton-Watson

pp. 342ff

Student demonstration Oct. 23rd fired on by Gero's police.
Soon joined by armed wkr. from factories in Budapest suburbs & then by indiv. soldiers & units of Hungarian army.

Oct. 28th Sov. command made armistice. - Imre Nagy appointed Prime Minister.

Br. & Fr. launched Suez ultimatum Oct. 30th. On Nov. 4th Soviet attacked
Budapest. (Kadar probably deserted Imre Nagy on Nov. 1)

Last important fortresses of Rev. were metallurgical wkr. of Csepel, a suburb of Budapest & Dunapentele in the So.
AFTER ARMED RESISTANCE HAD BEEN CRUSHED A GENERAL STRIKE
CONTINUED FOR OVER A MONTH IN THE CAPITAL. 200,000 Hungarians escaped.
Throughout winter '56-'57 resistance still continued.

Bulgaria & Albania have claims on Yugoslav territory.
Rivalry bet. Serbs & Bulgars for Macedonia dated from 1880s.
In 1913, 19 & '44 most of Macedonia had gone to Serbia
& her successor, Yugoslavia. In '48 Bulgaria was for ind.
Macedonia that would have been dominated by Bulgaria. In '50 propaganda revived. Ever since '48 Albania conducted anti-Yugoslav propaganda--certain popular support since 700,000 Albanians (about 1/3rd of whole Albanian nation-- live under Yugoslav rule in Kosovo-Metohija region.

far away....

"Don't tell me it is worse in Africa.
I live in Europe, my skin is white.
Who will embrace me to make me feel that that I am human?"

WIL: "In Finland, if Poland, if the Ukraine break away from Russia, there is nothing bad about that. Anyone who says there is, is a chauvinist. It would be madness to continue the policy of Tsar Nicholas... No nation can be free if it oppresses other nations."

A 21 yr. old worker in the huge United Electric factory in Ujpest --an industrial suburb of Budapest --described how his factory joined the revolt: "...On Wed. morning the revolt began in our factory. It was unorg'd. & spontaneous. If it had been org'd., the AVH would have known & stopped before it started. The young workers led the way & everyone followed them."

(From The Observer (London) 11/11 by George Sherman)

News Chronicle (London) 11/7 (10/29) Signor Mario Rossi, conductor of the Italian Symphony Orchestra, who left Budapest on Fri. said "All eye-witnesses agree absolutely that Russian troops as well as Hungarians joined the insurgents." Russian tanks were in action against Russian tanks in the capital's streets, he added.

10/28/The Peoples Councils which are being created all over the country illustrate the birth of the new state power. These new Peoples Councils, which under different names but with quite similar aims, are being created every day in all cities, districts, counties, villages.-- p.219: Franz X. Philipp, 41 yr. old Austrian rep. of Soviet-Zone Ger. News Agency has resigned. His editors in E. Berlin have been suppressing his stories.. He was a veteran Austrian Communist, was deputy foreign editor of Taegliche Rundschau, official Sov. daily in E. Ger. "The chief reason for my break is that I wrote about the Hungarian tragedy in the only way any decent human being can write of it. I told my friends that the Soviet intervention was a Schweineerei that had nothing whatsoever to do with socialism."

1/3/57 Viktor Vorozzyk, France Observateur (Paris)
1/5/Peter Schmid, Commentary(NY) --young poet (one of his poems took the place of a lead article in the paper, Truth, a colleague of Marxist philosopher Georg Lukacs was one of the leading spirits among the insurgent intellectuals...The Communists, he argued, were bad Marxists if they believed that they could suppress a his. dev. like the satellite freedom movements by the violent methods of colonialism. "As a true Marxist I believe in the inevitability of his processes," he told me, "we know perfectly well what a wave of terror & Stalinist repression will be let loose on us. But repression cannot cancel the laws of his, which are working in our favor." "Then you will surrender?" I asked quietly. "Surrender," he laughed, "We don't need to do that. You know how the rev. broke out--spontaneously, without any kind of preparation, when the police fired on our students; leadership & org. sprang up over night. Well, we'll scatter now just as spontaneously as we came together,,,The rev. can't die; it will play dead & await its moment to rise again."The maj. of the young Hungarian rebels were like that--never for an instant suggesting pathos, buoyed up by an intractable idealism, calmly heroic, as if what they were doing was the most natural thing in the world...."

THE REVIEW, #4, April 1960 Appeal of Central Wkrs. Council of Greater Budapest to all factory, district & county councils.
Also ~~App~~ Bulletin of Central Workers Council of Greater Budapest

We are against retaining the institutions of exempted t.u. functionaries. We consider the work of the factory comm. as well as that of the wkrs council social work

We do not wish to become exploiters of rev. & we shall not suffer others to become such.

WE PROTEST AGAINST THE ATTITUDE OF THE NEWLY FORMED "FREE TRADE UNIONS" WHICH ARE READY TO ACCEPT THE WORKERS' COUNCIL MERELY AS ECO. ORGANS. WE DECLARE THAT IN HUNGARY TODAY THE WORKERS' COUNCILS REPRESENT THE REAL INTERESTS OF THE WORKING CLASS, that there is no stronger pol. power in the country today than the power of the workers' councils & that we must concentrate all our forces on strengthening the power of the workers. ... we are supported by the actors, artists, musicians, & the Rev. Council of the Hungarian Intellectuals embracing every org. of the intellectuals. As a result of our struggles we are achieving a hitherto unknown national unity // vigilance for our aims, an ind. dem. socialist Hungary but according to our nat. character. 11/21.56

11.30.56 I. yr. No. 2, The request of Central Workers Council of Greater Budapest for a ~~press~~ organ... Our position is that the workers councils are in absolute need of a press organ so that the workers may receive uniform & true information.

We also raised the ques. of a multi-party system..

Imre Nagy & the Hungarian Rev. by Balazs Nagy, pp 116-54
"Not wanted a rev. least of all Imre Nagy..."
Memorandum written in summer-sept. 1955, added 4 chs. at beginning of '56

"Is it possible that, if the SU takes a realist course, she will have to put Imre Nagy's programme into practice? Can there be any doubt that in that case the Hungarian rev will be seen as a premature harbinger of a definite, new socialist pol. trend/ And can there be any doubt that such a pol. trend would find many followers in the int. communist movement?"
