

“Save Daily!” -- Foster

By WILLIAM Z. FOSTER

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 18.--I am informed the Daily Worker is on the verge of suspension. This would be a smashing blow at the heroic struggle of the Pennsylvania-Ohio-West Virginia miners. Only those who are in the field can realize what the Daily means to these hungry, desperately fighting men and women. “This is our paper,” they say, passing it from hand to hand till thousands have absorbed its militant message. With the strike spreading and new thousands joining the fight against starvation every day, it would be criminal to let the Daily go under. Rally to save the Daily Worker!

Answer Comrade Foster’s appeal sent from the mine strike field! Unless you do, we will not be able to survive till the nation-wide Tag Days that will be held in every city June 26-27-28. Rush funds AT ONCE to the Daily Worker, 50 E. 13th Street, New York City.
