

"CP(M-L)" Toots Their Bugles in Praise of V.P. Mondale, Bob Hope and the U.S.-China Alliance

Once again the volunteer State Department advisers of the "Communist Party (Marxist-Leninist)" have sprung into action to defend the warmongering U.S.-China alliance. The "CP(M-L)" is a notorious social-chauvinist sect. Years ago they openly declared their open allegiance to the U.S. monopoly capitalist dictators by advancing the thesis that the American working class and people should give up the struggle to overthrow their "own" bourgeoisie and instead direct their "main blow" against U.S. imperialism's main rival for world domination, the Soviet social-imperialists. In the September 17, 1979 issue of the "CP(M-L)'s" newspaper The Call, in an article entitled "Mondale — U.S. fully supports strong and secure China", these Pentagon-socialists heap praise upon the warmongering visit to China by Vice President Mondale.

With great glee the article reports, "the Vice President declared, 'we are committed to joining with you (the Chinese revisionists — ed.) to advance our many parallel strategic and bilateral interests.'" Of course, the "parallel and strategic interests" that the "CP(M-L)" is gurgling about are the "parallel and strategic interests" of U.S. imperialism and Chinese social-imperialism to dominate the world. In his speech Mondale made this point crystal clear stating: "Strong bilateral relations serve our strategic interests. Through them both of us can foster the world community we seek..." He also stated that "containing international conflicts, (and) protecting the independence of nations, these goals must be pursued from the perspective of our bilateral relationship." Thus the social-chauvinist bootlickers fully support the "right" of the U.S.-China alliance to carve up the world as it sees fit. They are excited about the prospects of suppressing the revolution, brazenly interfering in the affairs of the peoples and the imposition of brutal exploitation and subjugation under the jackboot of the U.S. and Chinese imperialists.

Moreover, these flunkeys express their delight with the saber-rattling comments of Mondale directed against U.S. imperialism's main rival for world domination, the new tsars of the Soviet Union. The Call reports that "In an obvious jab at Moscow, Mondale told the Chinese, 'Thus any nation which seeks to weaken or isolate you in world affairs assumes a stance counter to American interests.'" As anyone can see, Mondale's statement simply means that the U.S. considers China as its ally in the fight against the world revolution, and U.S. imperialism wishes to strengthen and arm a counter-revolutionary social-imperialist China. The Call however hails Mondale's comments as "pointed statements reflect(ing) another setback for those forces within U.S. ruling circles who have tried to put the brakes on U.S.-China relations." As the "CP(M-L)" has pointed out in the past, "normalization of U.S.-China relations is a 'great victory'." (The Call, Feb. 5, 1979, "U.S. Welcomes Teng"). Thus the "CP(M-L)" is hailing the warmongering U.S.-China alliance. The "CP(M-L)" is now replacing the campaign for "normalization of relations" with an open campaign for the arming of social-imperialist China by U.S. imperialism. The "CP(M-L)" is nothing but a bunch of recruitment officers for inter-imperialist alliances and war.

There are no deeds too vile for the Pentagon-socialists if they serve the warmongering U.S.-China alliance. Thus in an article entitled (don't laugh) "China's flourishing culture seen in Bob Hope special", they express their love for the militarist "entertainer" Hope, who zealously entertained U.S. aggressor troops in Korea and Viet Nam. They are ecstatic about the imperialist "disco culture" he brought to China, but complain that Hope's "chauvinist remarks" marred the show. But then in the next sentence, with the arrogant racism characteristic of the U.S. bourgeoisie, they claim that the Chinese people enjoy this chauvinism, that Hope's "humor was in fact geared to the Chinese"! They go on without blushing to say, "and quite correctly, that Hope's trip was "symbolic of the developing ties of friendship". This filthy, racist garbage of the "CP(M-L)" shows yet again that its "people-to-people friendship" is a hoax, and that the "ties of friendship" that they support are the ties between the imperialist bourgeoisies of the U.S. and China who have united to viciously subjugate and exploit the Chinese people and mobilize them for imperialist war.

The American proletariat will never go along with the Klonskyite mobilization for inter-imperialist slaughter on behalf of the U.S.-China alliance. Today the proletariat is preparing to found the Marxist-Leninist Party without and against these social-chauvinists. Led by the Marxist-Leninists the proletariat is vigorously organizing the struggle against the U.S.-China alliance and for the revolution that will bury the social-chauvinists alongside of their imperialist masters. □
