
Greetings on the Third Anniversary of the Russian Revolution:

Read at the Celebration Meeting of Local Cook Co., SPA, Chicago — Nov. 7, 1920

by Eugene V. Debs

Quoted in the weekly report of August H. Loula for the Week of Nov. 7 to 13, 1920.
Copy in DoJ/BoI Investigative Files, NARA M-1085, reel 922, file 202600-14.

ATLANTA, GA. — Greetings, comrades, in our glorious celebration of the 3rd Anniversary of the Russian Revolution.

The proletarian world and lovers of liberty everywhere are thrilled with joy at the news of the great victory of the Russian people.

The triumph of the workers' cause in Russia is a historic milestone in the progress of the world, and its influence for good has circled the earth, and shall direct the course of the future.

The emancipation of Russia and the establishment of the Workers' Republic is an inspiration to the workers of the world. This people's government is a bright star in the political heavens, and shall light the way of the world.

It is the great hope of the human race, and its example will lead to the emancipation of the workers of the world.

All hail to those noble comrades who carved out a people's government on an impregnable foundation of granite, that shall stand for all time.

Comrades, you have weathered the storm; the faithful cooperation of comrades has been able to defeat the worldwide alliance of Capitalism.

I am sure that the same spirit that conquered capitalism will develop the geniuses that will conquer the devastating diseases you inherited from Capitalism in Russia, and combat the present methods of alien capitalistic governments, who seek to destroy the newly emancipated people of Soviet Russia.

Faith, comrades, your triumph is complete. Other nations will become liberated, and together, shall form a brotherhood of the world.

Eugene V. Debs.

Edited by Tim Davenport.

Published by 1000 Flowers Publishing Corvallis, OR, 2007. • Non-commercial reproduction permitted.