

School Children in Big Memorial to Lenin

AS WE SEE IT

By T. J. O'FLAHERTY.

PRESIDENT William T. Cosgrove, of the Irish Free State, finds joy in contemplating scenes of revolution, particularly those motivated by time and tradition. While returning to Dublin from a brief visit to FRANK Cosgrove was a guest of honor and in replying to a toast, got the following "free" whenever Cosgrove served up to the others a carte.

THERE is a labor paper published in Minneapolis, with the rather ambitious title of "Minnesota," its principal aim is to get the Communist out of the trade union movement, and it looks as if it had a man's job cut out of it. Not alone does it "free" whenever a Communist hoves in sight, but even a pale pink gives it the creeps. A recent issue directed on the A. F. of L. disorganizer, Paul Smith, special attention was given to Washington who put in three years in Minneapolis, in an effort to wreck the local labor movement.

WITH the aid of fake progressives like Roby Kramer, Smith was able to expel C. A. Hathaway as delegate from the Trades and Labor Assembly. Two other Communists were named for the same office. They were defeated. The reactionaries decided to make a show cleanup on the Minneapolis central body. They picked on Stan Stevens, secretary of the committee, and Delegate Mureth, but found what it was too hot for them. They grabbed two hot potatoes. When the votes were counted, Smith and his three were in the majority and were firmly refused to oust the Communists.

THE disk rag called "Minnesota" is clean mad. It doubts the reality of any of its news items, and is making a sneaking suspicion that it is secretly with the radicals. We will not waste any time analyzing the editor's would-be feelings of the editor of "Minnesota." He can believe Kramer a renegade for all we care, but he would be tough on the latter. The fakery are some because the Communists in Minneapolis gave an awful drubbing. There is nothing new about this, do they to lift the charter of the Minneapolis Trades and Labor Assembly, since the fake sheet "Minnesota" is a fake sheet. They cannot beat the Communists in a fair battle on principle. They track and tie. Paul Smith is now gone to Washington to make his recommendations.

ON the back page of the current issue of "Minnesota" there is a rather instructive. It tells how William H. Johnston, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, visited Daniel Willard, president of the P. and O. railroad, some weeks before the "Chicago" change of name. Johnston called on Willard, and Willard revealed that the union men should join up with the railroad owners in making more work out of the railroad industry. Willard was quite shocked at first and thought Johnston might be kidding. However, after he could not see that a labor official should be such a traitor to his class.

HOWEVER, he took a chance and found out what he was up to. He reported the course of his speech which is published verbatim in the fake labor paper. Johnston's attention was attracted by the P. and O. made any material gains out of their cooperation with the bosses, but this was not what he "gives to every employe an

Bulwark of Capitalism Gets Blessing from Cal

(Special to The Daily Worker)
NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 21.—Twelve thousand people were seated snugly in Madison Square Garden Sunday listening to appeals from the fundamentalist Bishop of the diocese of New York for a contribution of $15,000,000 to complete the cathedral of St. John the Divine, while multitudes of cold and hungry workers were being driven from their tenement houses throughout the city and all over the country. While capitalism is undisturbed and undisturbed by the millions of the unemployed and the starving.

A LETTER FROM JACOB DABO

TO THE DAILY WORKER: I am on the job trying to help calculate the Slavic, English, and other languages. They are living in a state of chronic fright under the iron heel of Gary's blood-thirsty steel corporation. The foreign-speaking workers have more sympathy than the English speaking workers have.

THE WORKERS PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES

CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE WORKERS PARTY STATES ELEVEN MEMBERS DISCIPLINED

The statement of the Workers Party on the disciplinary action taken against members who signed a statement injurious to the trade union left wing.

The Workers Party has found it necessary to discipline a group of its members who gave a signed document to the administration officials of the Communist Party, during the elections within that union, which was used to influence the vote against the left wing and in favor of the reactionary candidates and policies.

At a time when union members are deciding by their vote within their labor union, between right wing candidates and policies on the one hand, and left wing candidate and policies on the other, it is the duty of Communists, members of the Workers Party, to support the left wing whether it be composed of Communist entirely, or whether it be a common movement of Communist and non-party workers.

Under no conditions is it permissible for a Communist to give support in any way to the right wing of the Communist left wing group. To do so is treachery to the whole progressive and revolutionary left wing of the American labor movement.

Some eleven members of the Workers Party, by signing and giving out the solicitation of a right wing official while elections were going on, committed such an act. The central executive committee of the party has investigated the matter fully. It finds that while there was no signed document in the minds of many of these comrades which caused them to make such a mistake without the intention to injure the left wing, yet these comrades do not mitigate the consequences of the act by it.

The Workers Party cannot remain unshaken by the wrongs of the progressive and revolutionary elements within the labor movement. It will not make without the right wing mistakes as this one. The central executive committee therefore called upon the comrades to participate with their mistake as an assurance that they are in the present world prevent a repetition of the same thing in the future.

Comrade C. E. Ruthenberg refused to admit that a mistake had been made, and defended their action in signing a document against the left wing; W. Schindl, K. Don, H. Witt, B. Weiss, and M. Sussman.

They were therefore declared expelled from the Workers Party. It is to be noted that a grievous mistake had been committed. It could not be defended and must be corrected. A disciplinary action on each ordered by the C. E. C. are as follows:

1. Sankin, C. E. Ruthenberg, censure and reinstatement in Party; J. Lieber, censure for three months; A. Gavin and M. Herron, suspension for six months.

Comrade C. E. Ruthenberg has not yet appeared before the committee. The central executive committee makes this statement of the party in the hopes that the damage done by the left wing movement generally may be some extent by the loss of the party membership may learn from this incident. In the choosing of policies and objectives for the labor movement, members of the Workers Party may never, under penalty of expulsion, be influenced by the wrongs of the right wing elements against the left wing movement. The Workers Party is always the party of the left wing, of the progressive and revolutionary workers.

Central executive committee, Workers Party of the United States. William Z. Foster, chairman. Earl R. Browder, acting secretary.

PERHAPS THE "RED LIAR" IS PRESS AGENT

"Red Revel" Publicity Makes Its Debut

Peculiar how typographical errors sometimes have more truth than poetry in them! What should have read "red star" read "red liar" in an issue of the DAILY WORKER last week. It caused a good deal of comment. It said, "Watch out for the red liar" and "Red liar" is coming.

When the Red Revel publicity begins to break in real earnest, some of our readers who attend this annual event in the past will begin to doubt the veracity of the Red Revel press agent. His press agent is too good. Perhaps they will say: "Ah! This is the red liar the DAILY WORKER!"

Now, sometimes a good fiction writer is ten times more interesting than a real one. In fact, it is very odd if we advertised the presence of a small army of angels at the Red Revel, that we could get enough attendance to fill a taxicab.

The best of all arrangements committees, that is as much experience setting up entertainments as a lawyer setting up a law firm, is the Red Revel publicity man. He has been planning to make the best ever of the Red Revel publicity man.

It will be a marked hall. This promises a delightful series of surprises for the Red Revel. You can never tell what kind of a face may be behind an innocent mask.

BUILDERS AT WORK

Every day under the hand you will learn not only what BUILDERS do about it. It is not a new job and yet outstandingly few insist on working on his old one.

COMRADE HARVITZ of Toledo is a peculiar fellow—no question about it. He has a new job and yet outstandingly few insist on working on his old one.

"I will probably feel lonesome without my job for a while, as I have always at all times had the DAILY WORKER on my mind. However I will have another party job, as I was elected financial secretary to take office January 1st."

"I will still do what I can to 'Build the DAILY WORKER.' I expect to have my 'Tool Box' always handy, so that I can help to build our paper, which we must keep going at all costs and sacrifices. Without the DAILY WORKER I am a member of other comrades and workers would be very unhappy because we would not have the means of knowing how the class struggle was going from day to day and that Soviet Russia is still safe from the attacks of the greedy imperialism that still holds the workers in bondage in all the rest of the world."

This is the way a comrade speaks when he has fully realized the importance of the DAILY WORKER to the working class when he has become a BUILDER.

SOCIAL EQUALITY FOR THE NEGRO

By JOHN H. OWENS

When the Negro asks for certain rights and privileges that are being denied him, the white bourgeoisie attempt to throw the Negro around the issue by screaming "social equality." Deprecatingly, they say "leaders" and that Negroes themselves do not desire social equality.

"In all things that are purely social we can be as separate, as the church," said the late Booker T. Washington, "yet one as the hand in all things essential to mutual progress." But can we?

The development and contradictions of capitalist society precluded the possibility of any unbridled and exploited group or class enjoying social equality or, for that matter, any equality within the social order. The equality of opportunity is the keystone of any capitalist state. The blacks are the most intensely exploited group in America; hence it is not difficult to understand that they must remain separate and unequal.

TENANTS WORK 66 PER CENT OF U.S. FARM LAND

Lack Any Legal Aid or Proper Schools

NEW YORK.—The 66.8 per cent of the improved agricultural acreage of the country is being farmed by tenants and this percentage is constantly increasing, no lease are being passed in the interest of the tenant farmer, the federal council of churches funds after survey of rural problems by its rural committee.

The survey shows that America neglects her tenant farmers far more than England where the renter is being kept to get payment for soil and property improvements after his lease expires. In this country the tenant forfeits his improvements when his lease ends. Most American farmers lease run for 12 month periods, so the tenant has no incentive to improve the land and thus robbing the soil of its fertility.

Lack of educational facilities is an outstanding ill of rural life. About 5,500,000 children are in the rural schools, with 250,000 teachers. Less per capita is spent on the rural children than on the urban children. Less than city teachers.

McCormick's Squabble Over Rockefeller's Standard Oil Money

The Equitable trust company, which holds the Rockefeller foundation, the Standard Oil company of Indiana, and each of the trust committee members have been made defendants in a suit filed in the federal court of New York. The suit is for $1,254,248 shares of Standard Oil stock from Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick.

Three injunctions filed by McCormick's lawyers would prohibit Mrs. McCormick from ever participating again in the administration of the trust fund which John D. Rockefeller created in 1911. McCormick wishes the trust fund to benefit Mattie Ozer, grand daughter of Rockefeller and wife of a Swiss riding master.

When the fund was established it consisted of 12,000 shares, but these have been increased to 12,824 thru the stock dividends paid by the company.
