

MUNICIPAL EXPLOITATION

AS WE SEE IT

By T. J. O'FLAHERTY

THE callousness of the bourgeoisie to human suffering was demonstrated in the famine crisis which left a trail of destitution behind from the north of Ireland to the south along the western seaboard. Because Ireland is now ruled by a gang of capitalist lackeys, the Irish bourgeoisie and the upper middle classes seek to minimize the need for relief by attributing all the misfortunes of Ireland, in the pre-treaty days to British misrule. But a native parliament rules today, yet there is famine and terrible unemployment.

It was not British rule that was responsible for Irish misery but capitalist rule. In "black '47" an average of four from the United States entered Cork Harbor, several ship loads of grain were leaving, his grain was sold for a high price and Irish landlords the rack rents imposed by them on their tenant laborers. The grain was being exported at a time when 1,500,000 people either died of starvation or were driven into exile.

It could not be said that the people upon whom this terrible disaster was visited had "deserved" and were therefore punished for their wickedness, as the Irish clergy said about the Russian government when the red drought of 1921, combined with an allied blockade, caused the death of hundreds of thousands through hunger and disease. No, the Irish people had no fault to find in the god created them by their clerical leaders, but the god is notoriously deaf to the appeals of those who cannot help themselves. But it should not be forgotten, that the hundreds of thousands of peasants and workers who have passed away because of malnutrition.

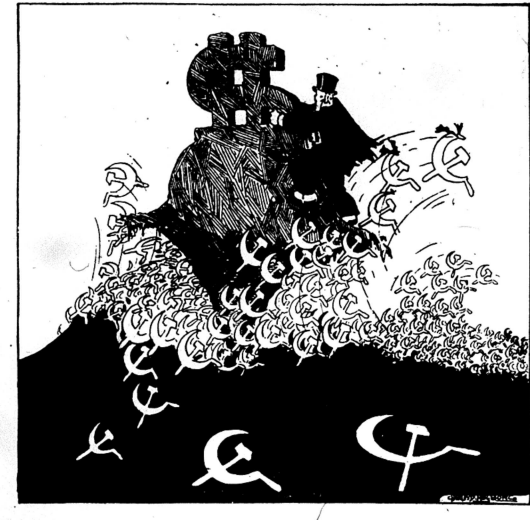

WHAT British rule failed to do for the starving Irish people is being duplicated today by the Free State government. Not alone is this one of the most backward of the new states in the west of Ireland, but at the very moment when the workers of Great Britain, the United States, and Russia are taking steps to aid their stricken brothers in Ireland, this black hand government took the place of Dublin castle, preparing to pass a bill through the legislature, making it a hanging offense to carry on any agitation having for its object the overthrow of the Free State government.

THIS is what the Irish workers have gained by the sacrifice they made in Easter week, 1916, and since then. The Irish workers and peasants led by James Connolly and the rest of the revolution were crushed. The mediocrities that followed them were not able to do anything other than allow themselves to be maneuvered into a surrender by Lloyd George, granting that they were endowed with common honesty. The British government granted them spiritual freedom, and both capital and political gangs are now fighting over the wording of an oath of allegiance to the King of England.

UNEMPLOYMENT in the industrial centers and famine thru crop failure in the rural sections is the lot of the Irish people under this Free State rule. It would be no different under the rule of the Nationalist Republicans. The latter believe the people should live on patriotism and grove such material things as food, clothing and shelter. Such terms have no place in the dictionary of a "striver." Of course, the Irish republic leaders take could care that their own material needs are looked after at the masses' expense. That appears to be their slogan.

THE writer was born in the heart of the famine region. At best the standard of living was very low. Bread, potatoes and the most meager of the standard menu breakfast, such and dinner. The only well-to-do people were the government officials, such as the rate collector, judges, postmasters, police and the priests, doctors and health. The tenant farmers were strikers to meet most of the time. This did not count.

THE RISING STORM

COOLIDGE PICKS STRIKEBREAKERS ON HIS CABINET

Appoints Bitter Foes of Labor

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15.—With the appointment of William M. Jardine as secretary of agriculture, President Coolidge has virtually completed his cabinet of fellow strikebreakers. All of Coolidge's latest appointees are notorious foes of organized labor and the poor farmers. Jardine first came to the attention of Coolidge when as president of the Kansas state agricultural college he opposed the McNary-Haugen bill, designed to give a small measure of relief to the impoverished farmers. Coolidge liked that, and when Jardine later, as a member of the farm commission, continued to oppose farm relief legislation, he further endeared himself to Coolidge.

Favors "Open-Shop" to replace "Lily-white" Slump as Coolidge's secretary, also came into favor with the president by his activities against labor. Sanders during his eight year stay in congress, helped to block the passage of the Howell-Barkley railroad bill which would abolish the present tyrannical railroad labor board. Sanders boasts that he is "against the closed shop," and was against the bill "because it would exclude from representation on adjustment boards employees not nationally organized." Sanders is one of Coolidge's prize strikebreakers.

Why Didn't They Tell Us in 1917, It Was An "European Affair"?

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The British foreign office denied today that great Britain has any intention of inviting the United States to participate in a proposed conference to discuss the security of France. The subject would be "entirely a European affair," it is said.

MACDONALD AND J. H. THOMAS VOTE WITH TORY PARTY

Clyde M. P.'s Lead Fight on Prince's Tour

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The action of James Ramsay MacDonald, J. H. Thomas, Sidney Webb and William Adamson in voting with the Baldwin government against his own party, on the question of an increased grant for the Prince of Wales' tour has caused something of a sensation in British circles. Arthur Henderson, Stephen Walsh and Noel Henderson, also prominent labor officials, refrained from voting.

LEAVE '3 REDS' OFF ALDERMANIC ELECTION LIST

Swaback Denounces the Dever Traction Deal

The election commissioners have denied the Communists the right to appear on the ballots on the charge that the words "street" and "avenue" were left off some of the addresses of those signing the petition, and that some of the signatures were not written by the persons whose names appeared on the petitions, and equally absurd charges.

CLINTON 'LABOR' LEADERS DESTROY WORKERS' FAITH

(Special to The Daily Worker) CLINTON, Ia., Feb. 15.—This little town has a history in working class experience. The workers here have always been progressive. There are three small towns close together, Clinton, Ia., and Clinton and Lyons on the Iowa side, the latter two have long been consolidated. This territory had always been a strong trade union center and an "IOP" stronghold, then as local labor party, they struggled for years for control of the city of Clinton.

ABRAMOVITCH IS BACKED BY COPS AT PHILLY MEET

But the Workers Cheer for Soviet Russia

(Special to The Daily Worker)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 15.—Despite the fact that socialists and police-men at the door barred Communists from entering the Rachel Abramovitch meeting at the Arch street theater, the workers in the crowd loudly denounced Abramovitch as a counter-revolutionary when he appeared.

The crowd quickly generally demonstrated its opposition to the white guard traitor and cheered lustily for Soviet Russia. "They Do in Russia." Just as in Russia, where the yellow traitors of the Second International called in the capitalist governments to try to crush the revolution of the workers, so in Philadelphia, the "socialists" had hundreds of police and detectives scattered thru the hall, and ambushed about the neighborhood in patrol wagons.

Together with these instruments of the capitalist government, the socialists had their own white guard and hooded vicious police and militant workers to the police. The hall was like a factory on strike or a circus held by capitalist armed forces, socialists and police were busy everywhere pointing upon workers who tried to get in of who were not dumb cattle after they were in.

Between the police, the detectives, the white guard socialists and their hired slugs, forty-three workers were beaten and arrested, police using force to get in the hall, and some clubs freely, also the more they tacked the greater the disturbance. Cheers for Lenin and the Soviets drowned out Abramovitch.

Abramovitch, the cause of this, was heavily guarded by police at all times on his way to the hall, while he was on the stage and in departing. The meeting ended with the wild demonstration still going on. Despite police, leaflets exposing Abramovitch were distributed both inside and outside the hall.

The workers arrested were held overnight and rushed to the police for their attorney could appear, and were given from three to ten days in jail, but were released after a fine was furnished.

"Zinoviev Letter" For United States Shown Up As Clumsy Fake

The story printed in the Chicago Tribune on February 16, signed by George Seligson, and dated Berlin, purports to expose another "Zinoviev letter," much the same as that in the British elections except that the forgery is so crude and patent that it evidently did not fool even the hysterical red-branders who live upon such food or the usually glibly Tribune which relegated it to the back page.

The whole document cited in the story bears the marks of clumsy forgery. That the Communist International should donate $500,000 for the purpose of creating a "labor party," at a moment when the whole idea of a "labor party" in the United States has been taken off the calendar of immediate political questions, is an idea so preposterous that only an imbecile police agent and forger could have conceived it.

Just a few more items to clinch this forgery. The letter, says Seligson, "was written on the stationery of the Communist official organ, the Investita, and rubber stamped with Communist Party and government seals." That the Communist International, instead of using its own letter paper should use that of a domestic agency is about as reasonable and probable as J. P. Morgan writing to Ramsey MacDonald on the stationery of the New York Times, and sealing it with the stamp of the republican party and the United States government.

The supposed signature of the forger, who is named "Stewart," does not have any connection with reality in the statement about a "labor party," but this, unfortunately for the forger, would have been impossible for any one connected with the C. I. to write in December, 1924.

THE HAND THAT WIELDS THE HAMMER IS THE HAND TO RULE THE WORLD! (FIND THE HAMMER ON PAGE 6.)

COOLIDGE FOR $350,000,000 PROPERTY GRAB

Thinks It All Right to Take German Belongings

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—For eight tragic years the allied and associated military powers have sought to crush Bolshevism and to overthrow the Soviet government of Russia on the ground that the sanctity of private property was the very foundation of civilization.

Condemnation by the Soviet regime of private foreign investments in Russia was a crime that justified, in the opinion of the governments in Washington, London, Paris, Brussels and Rome, any measures which might be devised to punish the offense.

War, blockade, intrigue, the use of force and bribery, all were tried in turn, in the hope that the world might be made safe for private capital and the rule of national governments.

Against this background of capital law there was flashed, on Feb. 12, the authoritative statement from the White House that President Coolidge does not believe that the $350,000,000 worth of German property of German citizens, seized during the war and now held by the United States government, can be returned to its owners until some distant date when Germany shall have repaid its loan private claims amounting to $300,000,000.

True, these American private claims are covered by the recent Paris agreement; they are to be paid from the reparations on a term of years, to the federal treasury. But the other creditors of Germany have not received their property. But the other creditors of Germany have not received their property which they seized, and they object to the United States holding to its pledge to keep sacred the right of private property. They suggest that American must forget the idea of property rights for the individual, and consider the advantage of holding what has been grabbed.

Secretary Mellon is known to be backing Coolidge, in refusing to agree to return the seized property until Germany has paid. The United States has held that depriving an individual of the use or benefit of his property is confiscation, and that the status of this alien property. The administration confesses it while blantly announcing that it is forcing Germany to maintain the sanctity of private property by repaying these claims.

Independent Barbers In New York Rejoin the A. F. of L. International

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Fifteen hundred new members joined the International Brotherhood of Barbers, International Union of the Independent Journeymen Barbers Union of Brooklyn and Long Island, mere with the A. F. of L. members.

The new members will belong to a newly chartered local, No. 912. The Independent union grew out of the big barbers' strike of 1913 and 1914, which broke the back of the day and night working schedules of former years. Last summer another strike was won and agreement signed, but the Independent union found its treasury spent and applied for admission to the A. F. of L. to gain the support of the United movement.

On the Manhattan side the immediate issue is the right to the beauty parlor workers. It is estimated that there are now about 2,000 of these specialists in feminine haircut, few of them members of any organization, and nearly all working long hours for low wages that barely give them strength for their daily task of dishing up the masses of the beauty class. The Joint Board of New York, following the lifting of the ban on women barbers by the last convention of the union, has authorized an organization campaign that will take the form of a series of mass meetings to show the beauty parlor workers the advantage of union conditions. The situation that created an independent beauty parlor workers' union several months ago, has been changed by the convention's decision, said Melville, and he declared that the international union could offer a backing of other campaign in this field, if the previous movement did not have.

At Albany the barbers' union is taking a bill sponsored by the national hair dressers' association, a house-atomizer, that would prevent regular barbers from doing beauty parlor work.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LIKES JOB OUTLOOK FOR CLEVELAND LABOR

CLEVELAND, Feb. 15.—It is with writing publicity for the Cleveland chamber of commerce in this city, you will be distinctly optimistic concerning the employment outlook. On the other hand, if you are stationed in the offices of the city-state employment bureau, your report will be quite to the contrary.

While the chamber was declaring in its monthly review that jobs were increasing steadily and that there would be "a return to normalcy by summer," the city's employment bureau reported the highest figures of jobs available for 4,000 jobs. Average hours as reported by employers were 43.9 a week, with average wage for unskilled labor of 44 cents an hour. Steel and automobiles show a slight increase in the number employed.

CLINTON 'LABOR' LEADERS DESTROY WORKERS' FAITH AS WE SEE IT

By T. J. O'LAHERTY.

I attribute to their health, vegetarians, notwithstanding. But perhaps they should not have eaten bread, fish or potatoes either. The air was good, I will admit, but it probably never learned to live exclusively on it.

Ireland is divided into parishes by the catholic church, which is the strongest government in the country. The name "parish" was introduced by a population of three thousand years ago. Every year, during Easter, the archbishop of Dublin never sent a pastoral letter to be read at all mass. The beginning of the "Holy season of Lent." This was the time of the year during which the war their police supervisor was shot by their own men. And a mass-soned set of sinners it was hard to find. They were harshed, and pastoral letters had no more effect on their consciences than a blow for mealy in the forehead.

Their sins were few because sinning was rather hazardous and difficult because of lack of opportunity. When the priest read the bishop's letter suggesting fasting and extra prayers, they privately went to thinking of plans to circumvent the spiritual prescription, which at the same time was a rebuke to their sins. In the last.

THINK I have not accustomed to the native man, so when his local agent read "fish and flesh no allow" he said "fish and flesh no allow" through the little chapel. "We are damned lucky to get either one of the other," he said. "I don't know what that did not hesitate to invoke the name of Jesus outside of the church, and lowly Naxarene found in the precincts of the church. The priest was not averse to the same treatment meted out to the Catholics. Just as long as the church paid the role of a benevolent Tammany Hall, every thing went smoothly. The result did not concern themselves with religion as such. The use of Jesus as a religious figure was considered an indication of spiritual debasement. Only protestants talked of Jesus outside of the church.

THINK people managed to exist on a potato-based diet, fish and tea, even excessive rain did not destroy the potato crop or incident weather made it impossible to catch fish. This year the excessive rain had destroyed the potato crop and the British steam traders ruined the fishing industry on the west coast. Meanwhile the Irish government is preparing to kick the Catholics with the best of both of them who are opposed to its execution. And it is a catholic government.

There is also a riot and Shoe Workers' Union which is bought by the factory owner, on the 100 per cent plan, from the international union. The badge of their serfdom, known by the name of the "union label" is sold along with the workers. These boot and shoe workers have conditions just a little less irksome than the munition factory. This is to pad their collar of serfdom and foot them into the belief that they are the chosen of the laborer in the "B. and O. Plan" for Northwestern Clinton shoe crops put up a strike and fight during the shoe-maker's strike on the railroads. Locally they are very able leaders who succeeded in "stealing" something from the strike.

The Kluxers were also strong in Clinton, but now the novelty has worn off and they are no longer a factor. There is another set of labor students who teach from Karl Marx, known as the S. P. T. They are about a dozen of them, but their side show "union" amuses the workers.

May they turn their dear to the workers' Party see the message of the "Proletariat" when J. E. Snyder, director of Communist and Communist David Counts speak on the vital problems before the workers today. The meeting will be held at Labor Temple, 613 Second street, Clinton, Iowa, on Wednesday, Feb. 18. THE DAILY WORKER will be sold for a first time in Clinton and an effort made to organize a local unit of the party.

ABRAMOVITCH IS FLYED B.G. BOSTON MEETING

Role of International Spy Exposed

By LYDIA GIBSON. (Special to The Daily Worker.)

BOSTON, Feb. 15.—Bayer hundred workers met at the Communist Club in Boston, on February 11, under the auspices of the Workers' (Communist) Party, to hear Robert Minor and Molevsky. J. O'Leary told the truth about the Russian Revolution, the counter-revolutionary "socialist" recently imported from abroad for an anti-Bolshevik propaganda tour.

Simultaneously Abramovitch was speaking further down the street to the speaker, Conrad Molevsky, characterized in his speech as consisting of "dirty polities, some carrying out the line of the party, the mill owner, and one baby who had gone to sleep."

Minor, John Ballan, director of the Communist Party, as chairman opened the meeting and introduced the speaker. Conrad Molevsky, who was repeated many times through one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in Boston.

Show Capital Development. Minor outlined the replacement of the old "simple" form of capitalism by modern financial-capital imperialism. The class struggle was now a struggle between the workers of the world, and the international revolution, which was the greatest step in the history of the world, was now at the beginning of the world revolution, has been the greatest step in the history of the world.

Queets of J. A. A. Minor outlined the United States government which welcomes economic and diplomatic, or honor and prestige, but which pretends to be a revolutionary. He said that the American Communist Party, under the leadership of Abramovitch, had done nothing to help the workers of the world, and that the American Communist Party, under the leadership of Abramovitch, had done nothing to help the workers of the world.

Minor said that he was surprised to find that the American Communist Party, under the leadership of Abramovitch, had done nothing to help the workers of the world, and that the American Communist Party, under the leadership of Abramovitch, had done nothing to help the workers of the world.

He has been expelled from the Workers' Party and the Workers' Party has decided to take the party out of his politics and its program.

Warren was president of the Michigan Sugar company until January 24, 1925, after Coolidge had picked him as attorney general. This company, which was a "participation" in an unlawful conspiracy to restrain trade and commerce, was "perpetually enjoined from further conspiracy" by the United States circuit court in its decision of May 9, 1922.

Warren acted as head of the Michigan Sugar company, and other big sugar companies, as an agent for the Haremyer interests, and the American Sugar Refining company. The sugar trust has long been known as one of the worst exploiters of child labor, making thousands of children slave on the western sugar beet fields.

It is said that Coolidge sent Stone to the supreme court to end the recent "struck-out" activities of Stone and to enable him to bring Warren, "safe" man for the large monopolies, into the cabinet.

TRADE UNIONISM GAINING POWER AMONG AFRICANS

The Open Shoppers Are Very Much Worried

JOHANNESBURG, So. Africa, Feb. 15.—The Industrial and Commercial Workers' Union of Africa, which was organized in 1919, with headquarters in Cape Town, South Africa, is continuing to gain in strength and is spreading its influence over larger and larger masses of the native workers.

Clement Kadiale, the well-dressed Nyasaland native who is conducting a propaganda tour of South Africa, in the interest of the Industrial and Commercial Workers' Union of Cape Town, has been addressing meetings recently in Johannesburg during the past fortnight.

His addresses are devoted to creating a black industrial alliance, and collecting black members for the I. C. W. U. all over South Africa.

He has established branches in Durban, Johannesburg and elsewhere, and is undoubtedly achieving a good deal of success among the natives.

"We shall experience in a few years the effects of his activities," said a well known Pretorian police official yesterday, "and then we can look out for unemployment."

"Kadiale and Professor Thole were educated in America. They have achieved some prominence as speakers to the colored people; and it is believed that their activities are being supported from the United States."

Ruthless War on California Indians Wipes Out 133,000

STAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—The story of the treatment of California Indians exceeds in inhumanity and ruthlessness the brutalities of the Belgian Congo. With these words John Collier, secretary, American Indian Defense association, began a campaign for the passage of two bills now before the state legislature, one providing for a survey of the Indians, the other for $100,000 for emergency relief.

SUPERIOR PARTY DESERVES NAME

Sends $100 to Our Daily; $50 to Young Worker

"Superior" branches of the Workers Party in Superior, Wisconsin, recently desecrated their name, judging from the $100 check which they forwarded to the DAILY WORKER Party.

This money is to apply on the Superior, Wis., quota to "insure the DAILY WORKER for 1925." Just previously these branches had sent $50 to the Young Workers League for their newspaper.

They raised the money in a carnival given under the auspices of the Y. W. L. and English branch, W. P. U.

'SAND HOGS' ON TUNNEL JOBBY AGAINST DEATH

Demand New York State Legislature Act

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Compressed air workers, partially induced by the disease which attacks the casual man who works in tunnels (sand hogs) and at the same time, are awaiting the opportunity to give the New York state and assembly law Albany evidence of the improper medical treatment by responsible companies which is responsible for their present condition, and the fact that they were defrauded of compensation.

The charges were preferred by the Compressed Air Workers' Union of New York at the request of the legislative committee by the union counsel, Frank A. Sullivan. They relate particularly to the Hudson tunnel project from New York to Jersey City which has been abandoned.

Urges Shorter Workday. Nearly 400 men who are stricken with the "sand hogs" occurred on the Hudson tunnel job and the union declares that the workers are greatly aggravated by the cheap and unscientific emergency treatment given them.

Relief for the "sand hogs" must be sought by the union, says the industrial system, which has been sharply criticized in Albany. The relief is sought through the National Health and Safety Act, which was passed before and discussion of the bill before the union's charges against the contractor's make much sense.

BUILDERS AT WORK

He Gets Discouraged—But He Keeps On Working!

Thomas Otzwick of Livingston, Illinois, occasionally "gets in the dumps." But he never gets so discouraged that he falls to keep on "plugging away."

He says: "I have been active for at least twenty-five years, most of this time in the socialist party; I am a member of the Workers Party since February, 1922, but a fellow gets discouraged when he tries and tries and sees no results that he would like to see coming. I have tried to teach W. U. E. L. group also, but the ignorance of the workers makes a fellow feel blue, when he has been in the movement as long as I have."

We appreciate the comrade's task, no doubt more difficult than in fustling the life using group who worked and has met such success as an official vote of 60,000 in the last miners' election. That should be an inspiration for him.

But his "blue" are not the kind that stop him. In the same letter he writes he is discouraged, he asks us to send the DAILY WORKER for ten days to act as a miner, and he will follow them up for the sub, and he takes no commission for his work to enable us to do it. He also sent five dollars for an insurance policy to help the DAILY WORKER. So he can't be very discouraged and this is just the kind of work that is going to make the T. U. E. L. group possible.

To other agents we are bringing his methods to light. Do as Comrade Otzwick does, and use the names of sympathizing workers. We will see that they get the DAILY WORKER and then you can follow them up for the sub. Others use this system—and it works!

COMMUNIST-CHILDREN COLUMN

Who Will Correspond With These Pioneers

The children in Russia are eager to know something about our Pioneers in the United States. This interest is not without cause. It has just come to our notice that Eureka, Calif., also has a Junior group. Our comrade writes us:

"The Junior group here is getting along wonderfully well. The Juniors practice their games and sports and learn and without friends to care for them by the capitalist war and by the anti-socialists directed against Soviet Russia. But as soon as the Soviet government was established in Russia, the children were left home alone to take care of their own children. Many of them were adopted by American Communists."

Now We Are Free. Greeting, respected and dear comrade, my heartiest regards. I like to correspond with you and so I send you my name in the Shores columns. I am 16 years of age. I am an orphan, I have no father or mother, nor any other relatives except a little brother who lives with me in the children's home. I am a Pioneer and work as an assistant here.

How Are Your Pioneers? Write me if you have Pioneers and how they work. Are all the ways open to them as they are for us? I am the bourgeoisie still persecuting them as before. If so, anyway they won't last long. I hope you are all well. Soon will be an end to the bourgeoisie, and your Pioneers will be as free as we do in our work.
