NEW MINERS UNION FORMED!

Keller and Dawson, New Bedford Leaders, Ousted from United Textile Convention

MILITANTS BARE STRIKEBREAKING OF U.T.W. CHIEFS

McMahon, Campos in Frenzied Attack on T. M. C. Oust Passaic Delegates Comes on Eve of Plans for Real Union

Eli Keller and Ellen Dawson, among the leaders of the present New Bedford strike and of the Passaic struggle of 1926, were yesterday arbitrarily excluded from the convention of the United Textile Workers' Union which opened in the morning at the Great Northern Hotel here. Officials of the union who ordered the ouster did not even trouble to offer an explanation for their actions, despite that both Keller and Dawson are accredited delegates from Locals 1618 and 1619 of the Passaic U. T. W.

PLAN FOR MINE RELIEF MEETING

Watt to Speak at Big Meet

While the delegates of the rank and file miners continue their convention at Pittsburgh to build a new Miners' Union despite the police and Lewis thug terror, preparations are being speeded in New York City to make the monster Solidarity Mass Meeting on Thursday evening, Sept. 20, a tremendous demonstration of the workers of this city in support of the thousands of coal diggers who are throwing off the yoke of the treacherous Lewis leadership.

New Bedford Textile Pickets and Organizer

New Bedford textile strikers are now in the twenty-second week of their grim struggle against the mill bosses, and they are determined to win as ever as was demonstrated overwhelmingly by the parade and mass meeting held last Saturday under the auspices of the New Bedford Textile Workers Union of the Textile Mill Committees. Above, organizer addressing strikers.

BOSSSES ADMIT POWER OF TMC

Employers, AFL, Push Sell-Out Plans

(Special to the Daily Worker) NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 10.—Feeling against the attempt to betray the strike by granting a speed-up system to the mill owners, has risen to such a great pitch since the two anti-sellout demonstrations of the Textile Mill Committees, that the columns of the capitalist press here are compelled to admit their doubts as to whether a "settlement" with the A. F. of L. officials will result in a return of the textile workers to the looms.

Not only has the great "no compromise" movement, begun by the T. M. C., taken hold among the vast majority of the 28,000 strikers here, but even the membership of the Textile Council who have not as yet severed their relations with the A. F. of L. union, frankly declare that they will fight Batty and his gang in their locals.

Speed-Up Plans. The first full membership meeting of the Cotton Manufacturers Association held in many months will take place tonight to consider Batty's offer to settle the strike if the bosses would exchange the wage cut for the Frieder Plan, a speed-up system whereby the workers will produce much more for a pay smaller than even the wage cut pay.

Realization of Batty's impotent barons negotiating committee gave interviews to the press, which de- getting the strikers back to work, is, however, dawning on the mill owners, and their action at tonight's meeting is expected to reflect this knowledge. Hitherto, the mill

100 MOTHERS STRIKE Won't Send Children to Distant Schools

Rebelling against the tyranny of the petty officialdom of the New York school system which compels children to go long distances over dangerous street crossings in order to get to school, 100 working class mothers gathered at the corner of S. Third Street and Briggs Ave., Brooklyn, in front of Public School 50 and demonstrated against the efforts of school authorities to eject their children from that school. The mothers, grouping their chil-

BIG COMMUNIST VOTE EXPECTED DESPITE JINGOES

Signature Drives Exceed Hopes in Many States

Miners Rally to Party Fascists, Bosses Put Obstacles in Way

The great industrial state of Ohio and two southern states, Kentucky and Tennessee, are now on the Communist ballot, bringing the total up to nineteen. The comrades in Ohio collected 20,000 signatures the only 14,500 were required. The signatures were all collected by voluntary effort, the comrades visiting the homes after working hours and also collecting at the shops during lunch hour.

Expect Big Vote. Ten thousand of those signatures were collected in Cleveland alone. The steel cities of Youngstown and Warren contributed a good percentage of the necessary names.

A heavy Communist vote is expected in the mining region of Ohio where the bituminous strike was recently called off by John L. Lewis. Owing to the activities of the Communists, during the strike the miners are very sympathetic to the Party and many of them joined up.

5 Southern States. In addition to Tennessee and Kentucky there are now on the ballot in the south, Texas, Arkansas and Maryland. The Communist ticket was never before on the ballot in those states.

The National Election Campaign Committee now claims that the Communist ticket will be on the ballot in thirty-five states instead of the thirty originally set as a goal. With two months more to go before election day, the Party has five more states on the ballot than it had four years ago at the end of October.

As the Communist campaign is developing strength, the authorities in several states are beginning to put on the screws and in the west fascist organizations like the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars are protesting the appearance of the Communist ticket on the ballot.

In Nebraska and Kansas those patriotic societies, acting as the tools of the employers are attacking the Workers (Communist) Party, and in conjunction with the authorities trying to throw the ticket off the ballot.

Oehler Under Arrest. In Kansas, Comrade Hugo Oehler, the district organizer and several other comrades were arrested for holding meetings in front of the Cudahy Packing Company plant. The International Labor Defense is looking after the legal rights of these comrades.

The secretary of state for Nebraska has granted a hearing to the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars on their protest against permitting the Workers (Communist) Party ticket to stay on the ballot. The hearing is set

CALL FOR END OF FACTIONALISM

U. S. Negro Presides at Red Youth Congress

(Wireless to the Daily Worker) MOSCOW, U. S. S. R., Sept. 10.—Bucharin reported on the results of the Sixth World Congress of the Communist International at the twelfth session of the Young Communist International which was held under the chairmanship of Philipps, American Negro.

The Congress adopted the resolution approving the decisions of the World Congress of the Communist International and adopting its decisions and program as a basis for the work and decisions of the Young Communist International Congress.

The resolution assures the Communist International of the unshakable loyalty of the Young Communist International above all in regard to the war danger and the defense of the Soviet Union. "Under the banner of Lenin the Young Communist International will lead the masses of working youth to victory."

The resolution was greeted with storms of applause and the singing of the International.

3 Held for Real Unity. Three of the mine leaders were held for the grand jury on rioting charges. A number were fined $25 each. About fifteen were fined $5 each. Many of the delegates arranged this morning appeared with their heads bandaged and bearing other marks of the slugging by police and Lewis thugs. Despite the obvious criminality of the gangsters the few of them arrested were immediately discharged by the judge.

The miners were closely questioned on their political and industrial beliefs by the magistrate. "These Reds need investigation," the judge declared openly. "Every man who cannot prove his citizenship will be turned over to the government authorities for investigation. Perhaps some of them will be deported," he warned.

National Organization Launched; Greatest Enthusiasm of Delegates Representing All Coal Mine Fields

Sheriff Again Orders Meeting to Disperse But Not Before Miners Have Completed Historic Task of Convention

Watt Is Named President; Boyce, Negro Miner, for Vice-President; Weisbord Receives Ovation for Textile Workers

By JACK LEE. (Special To The Daily Worker.)

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—The New National Miners' Union which is to unite the forces of nearly one million bituminous and anthracite coal diggers of America for the coming era of struggle against the oppressor coal barons was born here today. The union with the greatest tradition of militancy and heroism in American labor history, built through the life sacrifice of hundreds of coal diggers, in the end, torn apart and finally wrecked by the treacherous policy of the Lewis machine, was reborn here today under a new form, a rank and file leadership with a program of battle which promises a new era for the courageous miners.

Evading the continued onslaughts of the police and the Lewis gangsters who yesterday raided the first meeting of the convention, over seven hundred delegates met hastily at the Workers Center at East Pittsburgh last night to carry out the second and successful session at which the full plans for the new union were formulated. Meeting again this morning the business of launching the new organization was all but completed when it was again interrupted by police and the sheriff of Allegheny County, who ordered the delegates to disperse and issued a proclamation forbidding the further holding of meetings.

While these sessions were in progress further developments were reported following the fascist raid yesterday by the combined forces of the Pittsburgh police, who led an army of over two hundred Lewis thugs in a raid on the first session of the convention at Labor Lyceum.

Three miners were held for the grand jury on $1,000 bail each. Fines were levied on over a dozen others including Pat Toohy, Freeman Thompson, Anthony Minerich, Andy Plechady, and others. Over fifty others were released. Some are still unaccounted for.

The fines were paid by the International Labor Defense in order that the delegates might return to the convention to carry on its business. Rough handling was made of the miners in jail by the police. Treatment was necessary for a number in the hospitals.

Textile Delegates Greeted. Fraternal delegates from the striking New Bedford textile workers to the mine convention were greeted amid the greatest enthusiasm last night. Speaking before the convention, this afternoon, Albert Weisbord, well-known militant leader of the textile workers, received an ovation from the coal diggers, who cheered the glorious fight of the battling New Bedford mill operatives. A vote of solidarity and support to the new union of the textile workers was carried unanimously.

At the meeting last night it was voted to submit the constitution of the new union to the membership for ratification and amendment. Among the unique and characteristic provisions of the new constitution is one providing that the salaries of officers and wages of minor officials must be based on the pay received by rank and file miners, and members of pit committees, which are also to become grievance committees. Complete democratic procedure throughout its provisions marked the constitution.

Provisions are contained for the easy recall of officers and members of the executive board. Mine districts will later be remarked for better organizing purposes, but for the present the existing district markings will be maintained.

A strong and nation-wide organization campaign will be launched. "The Coal Digger" was adopted as the official organ of the new union. Every new member is to take a six months' subscription.

The convention voted for the abolition of the check-off now going to the discredited Lewis group. De-

A. F. L. Fur Misleaders, Bosses Plan to Wreck Philadelphia Local; Workers Mobilize

CALL STOPPAGE FOR MASS RALLY THIS AFTERNOON

Boston Workers Win Skirmish With Fakers

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Workers engaged in the fur manufacturing industry here are rallying all their forces for an impending struggle which may terminate in a general walkout because of a threat of their employers to break their contract with the union and sign a fake agreement with the reactionary officials of the A. F. of L. Fur International. To this end a mass membership meeting will be held today at 4 p. m. in Boslower Hall, 7th and Pine Sts.

Mass Demonstration.
The setting of the time for four o'clock in the afternoon was done with the express intention of "demonstrating to employers that if they wish production to continue in Philadelphia fur factories they had better halt any plans they have about cancelling agreements and signing scab contracts with the A. F. of L. fakers," according to a union statement.

Edward F. McGrady, A. F. of L. agent in charge of the drive to destroy unionism in the industry, had been discovered by S. Bert, left wing union manager, while he was plotting with the bosses in the office of a leading manufacturer. Soon after this followed an announcement from the employers association that they intended to sever relations with the union.

The reason for the attacks on the local was its recent decision to join with the New York union in their drive to build a real furriers' national organization.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 10.—The first attempt of the International to launch a struggle against the Boston Furriers' Local, which had joined in the movement to build a new union, failed miserably when the workers carried through a short and victorious strike against a firm which decided to break off relations with the local union.

Strike Short But Effective.
Agents of the A. F. of L. came into Boston last week and approached one of the larger employers here with promises of permitting him open shop privileges if he would join them in fighting the local.

The employer, A. Rubin, agreed. Then followed a declaration to the union that the firm of Rubin no longer considers its contract with them valid. This was followed up by an immediate cutting of wages, and lengthening of hours.

The workers answered by a strike that lasted no more than four hours before it was won, along with a wage increase.

NORTH, NANKING CONTINUE WAR

HONG KONG, Sept. 10.—Fighting between Nanking and northern war lords continues and the Nanking forces have seized Tong Shan, endangering the position of Chang Chung-Chang in Shantung, where he established an independent position after the death of Chang Tse-Lin, the Manchurian dictator, and the retreat of the northern troops north of the Great Wall.

Tong Shan is near Tsinan, capital of Shantung, and the northern army apparently has succeeded in slowly encircling Chang Chung-Chang. The latter may be obliged to follow the example of thousands of disbanded northern troops and move north.

It has been reported, however, that hang Chung-Chang was in a strong position in Shantung and determined to resist the encroachment of the Nanking war lords. It is believed that his confidence results from Japanese support.

Within the democratic party, we witness the same process going on. Slowly but surely men like Bryan, with his confused petty-bourgeois theories, McAdoo, the representative of the big farming, cattle and wool growing interests of the West, representative also of the cotton growing interests of the South, are cast aside. The democratic party, which has been historically the party of the petty bourgeois, and has catered more directly to this class, is sloughing off its full capacity to serve the industrial and financial interests of the Northeast, of Wall Street. In the words of Wilson's platform, "We must now remove, as far as possible, every remaining element of unrest and uncertainty from the path of the business men of America, and secure for them a continued period of quiet, assured and confident prosperity."

One might naturally ask, "Why does the capitalist class maintain two parties? Think of the expense, inefficiency, wasted effort, confusion, etc." Professor Arthur N. Holcombe, in his book "The Political Parties of Today" makes the following enlightening reply, "That system (the bi-partisan system) has certain incontestable advantages along with its obvious defects. It diminishes the violence of social strife arising out of all the various conflicting interests of the people. . . . The very evasions of contentions issues and concealments of grounds for social friction, which so many critics condemn, form a part, and no small part, of the services which the major parties render."

What is the future prospect for the two party system? In the days when the LaFollette movement was at its height, Mr. Frank A. Munsey, one of the leading spokesmen of the republican party made the following prediction: "In the early days of the Republic they (the republican and democratic parties) represented distinct and positive ideas. But with these great fundamental ideas converted into history there are no longer any big outstanding issues between them that have any place in our politics. There are, to be sure, many small points on which the republican and democratic parties differ, today. It is their business to differ, to create differences, to work up issues, without which they would cease to exist as political parties. It is the business of each party to oppose and to fight the acts and proposals of the other party. While this political jockeying has been going on since the great old issues disappeared."

Export Trade of Soviet Union—Egypt Grows; Cotton Chief Import

MOSCOW, U. S. S. R., Sept. 10. According to statistical figures of the eastern chamber of commerce of the Soviet Union, the turnover of trade with Egypt for nine months of the fiscal year (October-June) amounted to over 33,000,000 roubles, having surpassed corresponding figures of the last year.

The USSR is importing from Egypt cotton and exporting to Egypt oil products, flour, sugar, coal, etc.

appeared, a new issue has developed, that now divides all America into two political camps, as yet without political names. They are the radical camp and the conservative camp, and within each camp there is a wide range of thought and feeling. Some day, and not a very distant day at that these two groups will evolve into organized political parties with names that signify what they stand for.

Some Prospects.
What are the forces making for the merger of the two old parties into one conservative party as against a so-called radical party? What will be the nature of such a radical party? One of the factors making for a merger is the general tendency toward merger in the field of industry and finance. But the capitalist class will not forego lightly the advantages gained from the bi-partisan game of buncombe. Only under the threat of some rising spectre which menaces its interests, will it consolidate its forces for more effective defense. Will that force be a party of farmers? That is unlikely. The present demoralization of the agricultural elements, the LaFollette defeat does not forecast a very speedy recovery in that direction. The drift of population from the farms to the cities particularly in the South will tend to weaken them still more. The future lies in the hands of the proletariat, which has given numerous recent proofs of its fighting spirit and militancy in the miners' struggle, the New Bedford strike, the needle trades fight, etc., and a greater resistance of the unorganized workers. The close and open identity of the two major parties with business has never been more evident. The prospect of severe struggles against capitalist rationalization expressing itself in the form of wage cuts, speed-up and union smashing will be a strong educative force, in which the government will again and again show the true character of the major political parties, and will bring to the fore emphatically and forcefully to the workers their interests as a class.

WORKERS CLUBS AID RED FUNDS

Followers of Trail Contribute

With the election campaign reaching a more intense stage throughout the country, marked by "whisper" campaigns and a monotony of scandals in the capitalist parties, the Red Campaign waged by the Workers (Communist) Party is daily growing more productive of donations by workers' clubs to the Communist war chest. The followers of the Trail Club, an organization of workers which takes regular weekly excursions into the country of billboards surrounding New York, recently collected from its members the sum of $37.25 while on an excursion up the Hudson.

Other workers' organizations responded to the appeal issued by the District 2 Election Campaign Committee. Workmen's Circle Branch 84 of Plainfield sent a donation of $5 to the campaign fund and the Tomashover Branch 106, Workmen's Circle of Paterson, N. J., contributed last Saturday.

Previous donations made to the Red Campaign fund by workers' organizations are numerous. The Finnish Cooperative Trading Cooperative Association donated $25; Ukrainian Workers' Club, $69.25; Staten Island Finnish Workers' Club, $10. Through the Jewish Bureau of the Workers (Communist) Party, the Coney Island Workers' Club donated $16; the National Workers' Alliance, Branch 3, gave $15; the Brownsville Workers Youth Centre donated $10; and the Young Workers Social Culture Club of Brownsville gave $5.

aggressive war, but the effect is just as bad."

In the same speech he very vigorously assailed the views of Chancellor Mueller of Germany and criticized his position on national minorities and the reduction of armaments. Briand side-stepped the national minority issue by declaring that "the question must not become a lever to shake the confidence of peoples in their governments in the work of the league for peace."

The entire trip will consume 35 days, and the party will leave on the fast S. S. "Mauretania" on October 17. Free Russian visas are guaranteed by the World Tourists.

KELLER, DAWSON EXPELLED FROM UTW CONVENTION

Expose Strikebreaking Misleaders

appeared before the convention to report, they recommended that Dawson, Keller, and John Di Santo be denied seats as delegates. Di Santo is a delegate from Local 1623, Passaic, and was marked for exclusion because of his militancy. It was only after Keller rose to protest at being denied the right to represent his union, and after he had demanded reasons for his exclusion, that McMahon, U. T. W. president, assigned John Campos of Fall River, Mass., to state "reasons."

"Young Workers Party."
Campos launched into a vicious attack against the two delegates, who, he said, were members of a dual union. "I, as an official of the U. T. W., was almost mobbed by the textile workers due to their propaganda," he said. McMahon then contributed to the attack of the progressives, by assuring the convention that he is not afraid of "red scares," but that Keller and Dawson are both members of the "Young Workers Party" which holds meetings at 799 Broadway.

"Dawson," he added, "is also secretary of the 'International Defense League' which is also red." Particularly hysterical did McMahon become every time he mentioned Albert Weisbord, Passaic strike leader. "Weisbord quit you," he shouted, despite the fact that the U. T. W. had made public demands that Weisbord leave Passaic before they would admit the Passaic locals into membership in the U. T. W. McMahon delivered himself of the prize gem of the day when, in talking about Passaic, he lamented, "these workers had the juice squeezed out of them; I was handed a squeezed lemon when we took the Passaic locals in."

Instead of defending themselves against the "accusations," Keller and Dawson launched into an attack against the U. T. W. officials. After insisting that they could be members of the U. T. W. and at the same time be adherents to the program of the T. M. C., which they termed a militant organization movement, the progressives branded U. T. W. leadership in New Bedford as nothing short of strikebreaking.

U. S. Military Forces in Nicaragua Protect Puppet; Ignore Many

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Sept. 10 (UP).—The newly organized constabulary quelled the first serious election outbreak late Sunday. The National Guard assisted in suppressing an attempt to storm the liberal party campaign office at Rivas. Several persons were injured and four were arrested. The rioting was started after a conservative party mass meeting which was held at Rivas. The crowd was aroused by speeches and finally moved on the liberal office and attempted to rush the doors. They were met by members of the constabulary and guards.

General Frank R. McCoy received a message today from Major Norman Randolph, electoral supervisor at Rivas, reporting the situation "well in hand." Reserves are held in readiness.

2 Officials Indicted in Street Graft Mess

Richard F. Walsh, a district superintendent in the street cleaning department, and Thomas Owens, a stable foreman were indicted yesterday by the Kings county grand jury of payroll padding and graft in the department.

Despite the fact that corruption in this department is known to be city-wide, thus far only about a half a dozen—and these minor officials—have been indicted.

Boro Park Red Week Features Contest for Ballot Signatures

Beginning yesterday and lasting through the week, a three-cornered contest will mark the signature drive in the Boro Park section of the Workers (Communist) Party. Preparations for an intensified drive to put the candidate of the Workers (Communist) Party in the 9th Kings County Assembly District on the ballot have been widespread and a lively competition is anticipated among the members of the Boro Park Section of the Communist Party, the members of the various Workers' Cultural Clubs and the members of the Women's Councils in the Boro Park, Brighton, Coney Island and Bath Beach sections.

The signature drive this week in Boro Park will be enlivened not only by the competition existing among the organizations as such, but also by the inner competition. Every Workers' Culture Club has challenged every other, the councils of the United Councils of Working-class Women are each sure of beating the record of their sister organizations, and among the Red Campaigners of Section 7 a spirited rivalry exists.

impending Minor-Whiteman tour. The workers have evinced their interest by questions asked the Red Campaigners who gathered signatures up-state to put the Workers (Communist) Party on the ballot as to the platform of the Communist Party. The increasing number of wage-cuts to which up-state workers in the factories, foundries and railroads have been subjected has opened their eyes to the role played by the republican party, which has always claimed up-state New York as its own, and the anti-labor record of Tammany Al Smith is sufficient to show what the workers can expect from a democratic administration.

Lovett Fort-Whiteman, a Negro worker, will devote a part of his campaign talks to speaking of the problems of the Negro workers, the attitude of the capitalist parties to lynching and race segregation.

WORKERS WILL HOLD TEXTILE RELIEF MEET

To Show "The Crowd," Distinguished Movie

Thousands of textile workers demonstrated their solidarity with the textile strikers and their Mill Committees in the monster parade held in New Bedford on Saturday, while preparations were going forward full speed in New York for holding a mass conference for relief. The call has been sent broadcast by Local New York, W. I. R., to all labor unions and working class organizations. Where the delegates cannot be elected the call requests workers to send their representatives from shop unions, fraternal societies to the W. I. R. Relief Conference, Saturday, Sept. 15, at Irving Plaza Hall, and to make the conference a 100 per cent demonstration of solidarity with the 35,000 workers now engaged in a life and death struggle.

A delegation of textile strikers from New Bedford and Fall River will address the meeting. Textile workers from Paterson and Passaic are sending their delegations to greet the strike delegates, to hear Albert Weisbord relate the newest developments of the struggle, and announce the program for the coming convention to organize the new textile union.

Following the Relief Conference there will be two motion picture performances Saturday evening, Sept. 15 of "The Crowd" which has drawn large and enthusiastic audiences. All proceeds will go for the benefit of the textile strikers of New Bedford and Fall River. There will be two showings at the Labor Temple, 14th St. and Second Ave., one performance at 3:45 p. m. and the other at 11:00 p. m. Albert Weisbord will speak before each showing.

Hold Protest Meeting Against Kellogg "Peace" Treaty; French Police Arrest 800

THIRTY HELD AS FOREIGNERS IN OFFICIAL PLOT

Demonstration for the Communist Youth

PARIS, Sept. 10.—A total of 800 arrests was made by the Paris police on Communists and workers who met yesterday to protest against the Kellogg peace pact in a mass meeting outside the city. Thirty of the men were detained charged with possessing improper, or lack of identification papers. They will be held for deportation as foreigners, a favorite device of the Paris prefect of police, Chiappe, who was in charge of the police attack.

The mass demonstration scheduled to take place at St. Denis in the cordons rouge, the Red Belt which encircles Paris, was intended as a commemoration of the fourteenth anniversary of the Young Communist Youth organization in France, as well as a protest against the Kellogg pact.

Chiappe, who recently announced the perfection of a plan to abandon Paris in event of a workers' uprising and concentrate the counter-revolution in Versailles, had the three Communist speakers, deputy Garchery, and municipal councillors Joly and Gelis arrested at the St. Denis gate. They were taken to the police station and only after repeated refusals to answer questions were they freed. The police admit that they were unable to learn anything from the prisoners.

The thirty workers who are being held on deportation charges were still in jail last night. While the police claim that they are foreigners this fact has not been established in more than a few cases. Following the Sacco-Vanzetti demonstrations in Paris in 1927, police prefect Chiappe used the same deportation proceedings to send a number of workers' leaders out of the country. It was charged at that time that not all those deported were foreigners, but the deportation proceedings were carried on by the police in secret.

Where Fascism Is Pushing War Schemes

The Balkans showing the district of Macedonia and Albania, contiguous districts of Albania, Jugo-Slavia, Macedonia, Bulgaria and Greece. Italy is running guns and ammunition into Albania and the recent elevation of Ahmed Zogu to the kingship is regarded as a triumph for the fascist government. In southern Jugo-Slavia, Bulgaria and northern Greece the Macedonians are demanding their autonomy. It is the plan of the fascists to utilize the differences in the Balkans to establish Italian control in the peninsula.

FACES DEPORTATION AND DEATH AS RED

VIENNA, (By Mail).—Seven weeks have now gone by since Dr. Peter Iskroff, a journalist, and formerly an executive member of the Bulgarian Young Communist League, was arrested in Vienna.

The Bulgarian police have been hunting him down since 1925; in 1926 he was finally obliged to flee the country, and in his absence was tried and condemned to death. The excuses for his arrest in Vienna were that he had been seen talking to a Communist, and that he was in possession of a forged passport and a "bag full of Communist literature."

The Communist literature proved to consist mainly of the works of Marx and Engels, and the forged passport is not an unusual possession for a political refugee whose government has sentenced him to death. There are many refugees from the Balkans in Vienna, and unless the police get other instructions offenders quite frequently get no worse punishment for their irregular passports than three days' imprisonment.

Marxian Newspaper.
Iskroff is also alleged to have brought out a newspaper in violation of the Austrian press law, but even the reactionary journals which are trying to make the most of this, have to admit that it was a publication dealing with Marxian theory.

The long detention of Iskroff can only have one meaning—that the Austrian authorities are planning to hand him over to the Bulgarian government. True the Vienna police have officially announced that the Bulgarian authorities have not filed any request for extradition, but there is nevertheless an acute danger that he will be deported to Bulgaria, where death awaits him.

Secret Arrest.
If it were only a matter of press and passport offenses, the Austrian government would not have held him in prison all these weeks.

His very arrest would have remained a secret but for the fact that the Austrian Red Aid with the support of the Communist press, brought it into public notice.

The capitalist press is trying its utmost to make an affair of state out of the case in order to stir up public opinion against Iskroff and to pave the way, not only for his extradition, but for the denial of the right of asylum of other political refugees.

100 MOTHERS IN SCHOOL STRIKE
Rebel Against Edict Menacing Children

tem, was given as the reason for the transfer of 560 of the pupils of P. S. 560, all of them in Grades 4B to 8B, to other schools.
The women were bitter against the school authorities and the Tammany city administration which had refused to listen to their complaints. They declared that they would continue their strike against sending their children to distant schools even if they had to be kept out of school the entire term.
No Room For Children.
The strike of the 100 Brooklyn mothers was a dramatic incident serving to focus attention on the intolerable conditions which greeted parents and children with the opening of the 900 elementary and secondary schools of the city yesterday. Seventy thousand of the 1,050,000 pupils have no place to sit down and they will have to be put on part time. Practically all classrooms are greatly overcrowded, making it impossible for the 34,000 teachers in the New York school system to perform their work properly.
While Tammany Hall has been busy dividing up huge sums in graft, the crying need of new schools and more adequate facilities has been conveniently overlooked. Only one new building, the Theodore Roosevelt, in the Bronx, was ready to meet the greatly increased enrollment yesterday.

FRENCH AND U. S. INTERESTS IN RUBBER BATTLE

Predict Native Unrest as Fight Begins

PARIS, Sept. 10.—Reports from Liberia and French Senegal state that leaflets printed in the native dialects and urging the natives to resist American encroachments have made their appearance in the Negro republic.

Wireless messages attacking the American concessionaires are also said to have been broadcast on the west African coast.

While the purpose of these attacks is unquestionably an attempt on the part of the French rubber interests to discomfort their competitors in Liberia, one section of opinion here is alarmed over the effect which the propaganda will have upon the native tribes.

The opinion has found expression that disturbances may be expected in west Africa if propaganda of a similar nature continues.

Both French and American officials express themselves as concerned over this latest turn in the rubber war which is rapidly developing between the rival interests in Africa. Neither would welcome a general outbreak among the natives, though each is willing to foment disturbances in the enemy's territories. The French, as the older and longer established interest, is at present the aggressor, but a number of indications suggest that a policy of reprisal will not be long in following on the part of the Firestone interests.

Meanwhile the natives are reported to be deserting the fields and enlisting in the Firestone plantations, lured by stories which the republicans have launched broadcast in the attempt to defeat Al Smith. Work has been entirely too emphatic in his statements repudiating the campaign.

Again Work's announcements on the prohibition issue, virtually giving away the case, that there is no real issue between both hypocritical old parties, has also displeased the more shifty politicians.

Watt to Speak at Big Meet

of the new Miners' Union.
Watt will bring a report of the historic National Miners' Convention; he will discuss the militant program of the new rank and file union and tell of its plans to organize the quarter million unorganized miners who have been ignored by the Lewis machine. He will describe in graphic manner the sufferings and struggles of the miners and their families in the great 17-month strike which was so shamefully betrayed by Lewis and his corrupt henchmen. And he will call upon the workers of New York to get behind the struggle to build a powerful new miners' union by supplying the means to enable the thousands of coal diggers, their wives and children who are in a destitute, semi-starving state to live and fight on.

In addition to Watt, other speakers, well known as leaders of working class struggles in this city, will address the meeting and call on the workers to join wholeheartedly in the campaign to furnish the relief necessary in order to build the new Miners' Union.

Invention Aids Military Naval Activity

Lieutenant C. B. Morsen, inventor, tells Admiral C. F. Hughes about his invention which, he alleges, permits divers to work at a depth of 110 feet without ill effects. Admiral Hughes gained notoriety thru his actions during salvaging of the F-4, navy submarine which sank off Massachusetts with a crew of two score men. At that time a garage owner from the middle west induced the admiral to show him the entire salvaging operations on the grounds that he was an expert on deep sea diving. Newspaper men discovered the hoax by asking a few simple questions.

HOOVER PLANS TO OUST WORK

Takes Personal Charge of Dirty Work

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Herbert Hoover, presidential candidate on the republican ticket, will hereafter take personal charge of his election campaign and has relegated Dr. Hubert Work, former secretary of the interior, to a merely technical role, it was learned here today. Work is now national chairman of the campaign.

While the real reasons for the assumption of personal power by Hoover are carefully disguised, it has long been apparent that the hard-boiled campaign strategists in the republican camp had become disgusted with Work's too easy going style. On the question of the whispering campaign which the republicans have launched broadcast in the attempt to defeat Al Smith, Work has been entirely too emphatic in his statements repudiating the campaign.

Again Work's announcements on the prohibition issue, virtually giving away the case, that there is no real issue between both hypocritical old parties, has also displeased the more shifty politicians.

clared that no wage cut recall would be made under any circumstances, even if the Frieder plan was granted. The tremendous strike demonstrations, however, caused a change of front already.

T. M. C. Stronger.

Now the mill owners are openly expressing their belief in the "sincerity" of the council officials, and are ready to confer. The probable course of action, observers declare, will be to reach a settlement with Batty and then try to break the strike with the aid of the A. F. of L. officials and a newly intensified police terror against the T. M. C. picket lines.

The continually growing influence and prestige of the Textile Workers' Union of the T. M. C. received new powerful impetus in the last few days' developments. An obvious process of disintegration is easily evident in the ranks of the Textile Council. Many more members of that union joined the T. M. C. outright, and even those remaining show their disgust with their misleaders by threats of revolt in the U. T. W. locals.

The New Bedford Times, which strongly favors the Frieder plan, states:

"Some believe that the manufacturers would not agree to a settlement on this basis, because they have no assurance that such a settlement would be supported by the operatives themselves in spite of its approval by the Textile Council strike committee. Even though the specialization system, which has been advanced as the basis of settlement is not the system which is known as the speed-up, the operatives appear to understand it as such."

Soviet Government Experiments in Benzine

LONDON, Sept. 10 (UP).—An official of Russian Oil Products, Ltd., was reported today to have confirmed reports that the company has purchased 10,000 tons of benzine in California.

It was understood the benzine would be used in blending experiments in an attempt to create a new brand.

U. S. S. R. to Provide Transportation for Year's Record Crop

MOSCOW, Sept. 10.—With large crop of spring wheat and feed grains in the villages and prospect for winter wheat promising to bring the harvest to 13 per cent above the pre-war average, the Communistariat of Agriculture is now concentrating its efforts to provide adequate transportation of the crop from the outlying districts in Siberia and the Caucasus.

The peasants have been selling their grain in larger and larger quantities due to the increase of prices by the government and this has resulted in the accumulation of large stores of grain in the village cooperatives. Inadequate provision for storage demands that the grain be immediately transported.

10 Die in Sunday Aviation Crashes

Ten men were killed and 5 seriously injured in aviation accidents throughout the country on Sunday. The deaths were traceable directly to the propaganda campaign on the part of the U. S. military authorities, in cooperation with militarist aviation societies, now being carried on in an attempt to stimulate interest in youth in aviation, and thus trap them into becoming part of a reserve aviation corps for use in imperialist war.

Two students in Otterbein, Ind. high school were killed when a plane in which they were passengers crashed. Two amateur aviators died in a crash in Sioux City, Iowa.

Needle Trades Leader Endorses Working Youth Conference Here September 29-30

NEW YORK LABOR URGED TO BACK MEET HERE SOON

It Will Aid Workers, Zimmerman Says

Charles Zimmerman, Manager of the Dress Department of the Joint Board of the Cloak and Dress-makers' Union of the National Organization Committee, in a statement yesterday declared himself to be heartily in favor of the Working Youth Conference of Greater New York to be held on September 29 and 30, at Labor Temple, Second Ave. and 14th St.

"The great task of organizing the unorganized youth of the United States will be greatly enhanced by the forthcoming conference," Zimmerman said. Declaring himself to be pleased that so many progressive unions have already endorsed the conference, the needle trades leader said that the meet will be a "means of approaching the hundreds of thousands of young workers with the message of militant trade unionism."

Zimmerman said he was glad to approve the Working Youth Conference and add his name to the lists of unions that have already endorsed it. The Independent Shoe Workers, United Umbrella and Handmakers, locals of the Knit-goods Workers, the Tuckers and Hemstitchers and Millinery Workers have already endorsed the conference.

RAIL STRIKE IN PEKING DISTRICT

Nanking Prohibits All Walk-outs and Unions

(Int'l. Press Correspondence)
PEKING, (By Mail).—The workers, and the railwaymen of Tchan-Sin-Tai, the first station south of Peking on the Peking-Hankow line, have gone out on strike. The workers demand an increase of wages and the right to reform their forcibly dissolved union.

In line with the general policy of the Nanking regime to prevent the organization of unions the local civil and military authorities of Shanghai have published an ordinance prohibiting the declaration of strikes or the formation of new trade union organizations without the permission of the government or the Koumintang.

The ordinance declares among other things: "We draw the attention of the capitalists once again to the fact that they have no right to treat the workers badly or to dismiss them without good cause. The employers and the workers must strive to arrive at a mutual understanding and cooperation. All striking workers must immediately come to an agreement with the employers and resume work."

SOVIET EXPORT OF COAL SHOWS HUGE INCREASE

Don Anthracite Used Thruout World

MOSCOW, USSR., Sept. 10.—According to information of the Trust "Donugol" the export of the Don anthracite abroad greatly increased lately. Thus its export to France for the period of seven months of current operative year (October-April) was 20 per cent higher than English import on anthracite to France. The selling of Soviet anthracite in France is realized on a monopolist basis according to the contract of "Donugol" with one French firm. As it is reported from "Donugol" the demand for the Soviet anthracite in France notwithstanding its great import surpasses the supply.

In Italy where "Donugol" is acting about three years, the Don anthracite is also in a great demand. In Greece and Turkey the Don anthracite is purchased mostly for filling the ship's bunkers.

Lately inquiries came for the Soviet anthracite from Switzerland, Denmark, Argentine, Canada and other countries.

The works which are at present carried out in the Don basin for construction of sorting and coal breaking machines will allow to issue a better kind of anthracite on the export market.

GIANTS WIN TWO; GAIN ON CARDINALS

WEAVERS STRIKE IN RHODE ISLAND

The Giants yesterday took a double-header from the Boston Braves, 4-1 and 11-0. Fitzsimmons easily held the Braves in check, allowing but 7 hits in the first game. Bob Smith, once an outfielder, pitched fine ball for Boston, but did not get Fitzsimmons' support. The second game was a walk-away for the Giants. Genewich allowed the Braves but 3 hits. Boston used Delaney, Edwards, Clarkson and Boggs in a vain effort to halt the Giant sluggers. The Giants gained a game and a half on St. Louis, whom Cincinnati beat, 7-2. The Cubs held second place despite being beaten by Pittsburgh, 7-5.

75 Workers Demand Wage Raise
 WARREN, R. I., Sept. 10.—Seventy-five weavers and helpers employed in the Warren Narrow Fabrics Co., walked out on strike recently due to the refusal of company officials to grant the men a wage increase and also to rehire a number of weavers who were laid off because of an alleged slackness. The strike forced a complete closing down of production in the plant, and although the employers show a willingness to "talk business" on the question of the wage increase, the strikers refuse to return because the management declares its unwillingness to capitulate on the question of taking back to work the dismissed weavers.

SEE MELLONS BEHIND NEW GAS TRUST COMBINE

Take Over Brooklyn Company

Acquisition by the United Light and Power Company of the American Light and Traction Company to form one of the largest utilities combines in the country was made public yesterday in a statement of profits which revealed an increase of over $4,000,000 of the consolidation over that of last year.

Negotiations have been conducted in secret between the Koppers and Mellon interests and have only recently been completed as a result of which a half billion dollar merger has been affected. The new consolidation follows close upon that of the Brooklyn Edison Company with the Consolidated Gas Company, a billion dollar merger.

The Brooklyn Borough Gas Company which is 90 per cent owned by the United Light and Power Company furnishes gas under perpetual franchise to the thirty-first ward of Brooklyn, the suburbs of Coney Island, Manhattan Beach and other sections. Other United subsidiaries are located in dozens of states throughout the country. The new consolidation further strengthens the hold of the Mellons in the public utility fields.
