AMATEUR photographers, attention! Do you want to win a prize? Five happy camera men and women have already received theirs and the contest's only started. Come on in—it's lots of fun.

Every week Margaret Bourke-White, noted photographer, will pick the best pictures sent the "Snap America Contest." Prizes of $10, $5 and $2 will be awarded. Help our readers see America through your lenses. All photos used will be paid for, even if you don't win a prize.

POT MENDER, By A. H. Greene—Honorable Mention

Here, There and Everywhere

WOMAN TURNS BLACK-SMITH; blacksmith turns artist. Martha Smith (above) New York City's only woman blacksmith, in her shop on Horatio Street. Guy Champion changed his Brighton, England, blacksmith shop into a studio and went in for painting in a big way. Now he ranks with Britain's best artists.

NO NEED FOR EXTRA ICE to keep the fish fresh here: Picture shows the beam trawler "Cambridge" all dolled up for the winter season as she arrived at the Boston fish pier with the temperature around zero.

EXIT ONE VENEZUELAN GENERAL. In Caracas, General Gomez was shot while attempting to escape, and his house burned. The General had been one of the strong-arm leaders in the government of the former president, his kinsman.

WHOOPS MY DEAR! We're off for a thriller over Canadian snow.—An instructor at a Ski School in St. Margaret's exhibits a leap on the snow-topped hills.
