By T. H. Wintringham

(Special to the Daily Worker) BARCELONA,.-The British Medical unit at Granien, on the Huesca front, when I left it at about 5:45 a. m. this morning, had already received the day's first patient.

Kenneth Sinclair-Loutit, the administrator, stopped typing a report to look at the boy, a civilian medical case of some sort. Kenneth had taken the night shift, with a nurse translator, partly to finish this report, partly I think from an uneasy feeling that he had done his full share of a crowded day's work, having spent half or more of the day showing me the hospital and all its work-and partly his reason may have been that he was desperately anxious that there should be every possible care given to the two most seriously wounded people the unit has yet been able to deal with.

I will describe these two cases in the medical terms given me: Woman of 66, from Tardienta: severely lacerated tibian fibula and patella: amputation above the knee, right leg amputation of large toe, minor abrasions, left

Boy of 16, from Tardienta: shot through abdomen; laparotomy performed, perforation of small intestine repaired.

SURGICAL ACHIEVEMENT

While these two cases, brough "theatre"-a small room in this vast minor cases for the second operattwo cases of multiple shrapnel injuries, including the excision of four wounds in each case, smaller "shrapnel" injuries, a head wound, and a bullet wound in the foot.

I hope I have got the medical terms right, for I hope doctors will read this and agree that to carry out operations of this importance in a field hospital improvised ten days before is a very considerable technical achievement. The operations mentioned were successful "from a theatre point of view"; that is to say, the patients got a good fighting chance of living. PROVIDENCE, R. In an extensive debate, all of the details of the controversy were brought out at the convention by Francis J. Gorman, vice-president of the United Textile Workers of America. William H. McIntyre, a representative of the Painters' International Union, led the debate for the opposing side.

Gorman denied the charge that the international unions had with-drawn from the A. F. of L. He said they had been suspended from membership and the mere fact of the State Federations of Labor and the City Central bodies being instructed by President Green to maintain the status quo was an adknowledgment "that the whole subject matter should have been referred to the convention of the A. YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 9 .- "This city is becoming an armed camp," boasted William Dudley Pelley, head of the fascist Silver Shirts in an editorial entitled, "Let's Go, Judah," in his "Pelley's Weekly."

The Washington Hitler declared he had "a thousand men able to respond to signal within thirty minutes here" and claimed that Yakima has "a sizeable stockade and bull-pen ready into which all radicals will be cast."

He said that his armed cohorts were led by "indignant Christian men, bolters from the Chamber of Commerce and the Industrial Commission who have refused to sit any longer on boards or commissions comprising Jews."

"All the major counties of the State, meaning the counties containing centers of population are heavy with vigilantes wherein SilverShirts predominate," was a further claim by Pelley.

Other statistics quoted disclose the tremendous growth in profits since 1932, during the same time that the cost of living has gone up far out of proportion to the limited increases in wages. In the largest August total since 1931, dividends showed an aggregate of $331,517,603, which is $75,-

V. The Rich Hold the Wealth of Our Country:

Make the Rich Pay.

We demand that social and labor legislation shall be financed and the budget balanced by taxation of the rich. We are opposed to sales taxes in any form, including processing taxes, and call for their immediate repeal. The main source of government finance must be a system of sharply graduated taxation upon incomes of over $5,000 a year, upon corporate profits and surpluses, as well as taxation upon the present taxexempt securities and large gifts and inheritances. People of small income, small property, and home owners must be protected against foreclosures and seizures and from burdensome taxes and high interest rates. . . .

DAYS UNTIL ELECTION DAY. They are 24 days of golden opportunity to enroll members in the Communist

Last night hundreds of thousands of people listened to Earl Browder, Communist candidate for President, over the radio. They heard his smashing exposure of the Hearst-Coughlin plot to fasten fascism on America. Many were stirred by his challenge to Coughlin to deny the Hearst plot charge, face to face, in Detroit, Among these listening people there were hundreds who drew closer to the Communist Party. It is up to us to bring them into the Party-thus to strengthen the present fight for democratic rights and the battle ahead for Socialism.

Let us hasten to do our part!

Making Ends Meet-Making More Wages

· "How can we make ends meet?" That is asked in more than a few workers' homes this October. It is a current universal problem from one end of the United States to the

Up, up go food prices. The increase is at least 40 per cent since March, 1933, says the Labor Research Association. Up go rents. The rise is 8 to 10 per cent this month in New York. Up goes the cost of clothing. Twenty per cent at one jump on many com-

Making ends meet means making more wages, for one big thing. The worker today begins with deferred wages due him from the past. Before the depression, his wages lagged far behind profits. When the economic earthquake hit America, his wages fell at a terrific pace.

On Sept. 20 of this year the Federal Coordinator for Industrial Cooperation made public a "business analysis" which proved these facts. In the chemical and allied products industry group, this analysis showed, the value put on the products increased four times as fast as wage payments to the workers from 1919 to 1929. Then came the depression. What happened then? The wages, already far below the value put on the product, fell much faster than that "value."

In 1936, the same old profiteering trickery continues. Again the rising cost of living knocks at the worker's door. DECIDED-LY HIGHER WAGES are a chief way to meet this unwelcome visitor. It is a life or death matter, and should be treated as such.

Organization of the unorganized and wage movements are beginning to be seen in the United States. The lettuce workers, suffering from the lowest of possible wage scales, have taken their stand against hunger and nakedness in California. The hosiery workers at the big Berkshire Mills have revolted against that citadel of open shoppery. The textile workers have come out on strike in scores of small shops throughout the country.

These movements must proceed much faster and be more extensive, if they are to catch up even in a small way with the cost of living. The time has come for wage increase demands, all along the line.

Throwing Light On the Subject

· Talk about throwing light on the subject. Read the radio interview that Earl Browder, Communist candidate for President, gave on his recent visit to Hartford, Conn. (pub-Hshed in Thursday's Daily Worker).

Browder showed clearly that large numbers of people are turning toward the formation of an independent political party, a Farmer-Labor Party, because the chief issue in this election is progress or reaction, democracy or fascism.

Browder cited the planks in the Communist platform as a program which can be achieved through a Farmer-Labor Party and which the majority of the American people are ready to accept. Moreover, he pointed

"The experience in fighting for these demands will, we believe, convince the majority of the people at some future time that it is necessary and possible to go forward to a new system of society which we call Socialism." What a contrast between this realistic, logical position and that of Norman Thomas, who insists that the immediate issue is Socialism or capitalism, but at the same time preaches a "Socialism" without the social revolution and refuses to help build the Farmer-Labor Party as a barrier against capitalist reaction today.

A big vote for the Communist Presidential ticket of Browder and Ford is the best way of driving this movement forward.

Townsendites Sold Down the River

· Townsend Plan supporters in California are urged to vote for the Hearst-Landon

The urging is made by Dr. Francis Townsend in person.

To the Communist Party, this announcement comes as no surprise. It definitely confirms what the Party has said from the beginning: That William Lemke, so-called Union Party candidate, is merely a stalking horse for Landon.

Dr. Townsend permitted the fascists, Father Coughlin and Rev. Gerald Smith, to drag him at their chariot wheels into the camp of Lemke. Now, when it is impossible to get Lemke on the California ballot, the Lemke managers quite naturally advise for Landon.

A year ago the Communist Party pointed to the danger of the Townsend movements being made into an adjunct of the reactionary Republican Party politicians. By Townsend's moves, that danger is made quite real. These people, seeking old age pensions, are being sold down the river into the camp of the bitterest opponents of any sort of aid for the aged.

A year ago the Communist Party also emphasized that the labor movement, and particularly Labor's Non-Partisan League, could combat that danger by stretching out a hand of fellowship to the Townsend followers, in helping them to fight for genuine old age pensions. This was not done. And, therefore, reaction was greatly helped.

This California development can well stir Communist Party members to continue the good work of winning the Townsendites for the Farmer-Labor Party and for the defeat of Landon. Let that work be speeded forward, especially in California.

More Blood On the Sugar

· There is more blood on the sugar.

Col. Batista, the Cuban butcher for the American sugar trusts, has instituted a new reign of terror against all in this island empire of Wall Street who refuse to knuckle down to the American rulers.

Butcher Batista needs no pretexts for his deeds. But he has found one to increase his murders. Recently El Pais, Havana newspaper plant, was blown up. Communists and other anti-imperialists-without the slightest proof-were blamed.

Blas Roca, secretary of the Communist Party of Cuba, in a stirring appeal to Earl Browder, secretary of the Communist Party of the U.S.A., declared:

"I appeal to you to make it known to the American public and to the whole world that neither the Communist Party nor any of its members have taken part, directly or indirectly, in the terrorist assault on El Pais, and we were the first energetically to condemn this act."

Is Batista justified in claiming that the U. S. State Department understands and approves his wholesale slaughters?

The murder of Cuban anti-imperialists must stop! Let the State Department in Washington hear the angry protests of Americans who demand an end to the outrages committed by the sugar trust's Gunman No. 1-Col. Batista. All support must be given to the labor and progressive movement of Cuba fighting against domination of their country by the American imperialist corporations and their hired Cuban gangsters in uni-

Release the Large Fund for the Unemployed

This month the organized unemployed, through their Workers Alliance, are carrying their demands to Washington. They want a minimum of 40 cents per hour on all WPA work. They want a 20 per cent wage rise all along the line. They insist on the release of the large fund for relief lying in the Federal treasury and which could put 1,000,000 more unemployed men and women to work on WPA projects. They demand an end of the abuses on

Communist Party members can give the fullest support to such demands. They can throw themselves wholeheartedly into the fight, to strengthen the determination of the Workers Alliance to carry through its policies and program. A far better battle must be put up by the Alliance than the retreat which was sounded in New Jersey. As for New York: Can the unemployed be satisfied with the present inadequate work and direct relief? Can they, on the other hand, permit Bleakley and his backers to put through their starvation program? The answer is decidedly NO. And that answer can be made effective by a large vote for the Communist Party candidates: Robert Minor for Governor and I. Amter for President of the Board of Aldermen.

World Front

By HARRY GANNES

How far the recent raids on the Fascist Croix de Feu in France will go in impeding the plot for an uprising on the Spanish border late this fall is yet to be seen.

The Blum government moves entirely too slowly. In fact, it was only after the severest pressure of the Co-ordination Committee of the Communist and Socialist Parties that the Socialist Premier acted at

A Fascist victory in Spain will of necessity have its most instant and violent repercussions in France. Without waiting, the French Fascists have been actively preparing. The French Hitlerites consider Gen. Franco's tactics as most suitable for their ends. For that reason they have been tightening their grip on officers have been openly recruiting Morrish troops for a march on Paris. The "Heil Hitler" salute is becoming more popular among these French militarists in Morocco than the usual army salute. French and German financial interests are literally pouring money into French Morocco, somewhat like Juan March did into Spanish Morocco before General Franco struck.

Reliable reports from London report: "It must be stated that today, not only in Morocco but elsewhere, indications that a similar putsch from the Right (to that in Spain) is contemplated during this autumn are at least as numerous. To declare on the strength of these indications-which in the Spanish case prevailed-that a Right attack on the French democracy is an inevitable event before Christmas would be pre-The Communist Party of France has repeatedly revealed that money is flowing in torrents from the Nazi Brown House in Munich into the Croix de Feu for such an uprising. Arms are being shipped from Switzerland and Germany to the French Fascists. L'Humanite, official organ of the Communist Party of France, has printed proof of more than a hundred instances of arms caches by the Fascists.

But is the Blum government to fail to heed the Communist warnings and allow the Fascists to continue their plottings without more drastic action? Should Madrid fall, it would seal the certainty of the French fascists, with the help of Hitler and Mussolini, taking every risk to unleash their bloody plans for a coup at the earliest possible moment.

Fascist conspiracies and Civil War plans would be dangerous enough, but the actions of some of the Radical-Socialist Ministers in the Blum government, if continued, become the greatest threat of all.

L'Humanite points to the worst example of all. The Minister of the Navy, M. Gasnier-Duparc, Radical-Socialist, who often expressed his warm adherence to democracy, in the latter part of September appointed Admiral Darlan-a notorious Fascist-as chief of the French Admiralty. In short, the French navy command was placed in the hands of a Fascist by a Radical-Socialist ostensibly cooperating with the Blum gov-

Though written before the raids on the Croix de Feu the following warning of Jacques Duclos, in the name of the Communist Party of France, still holds true:

The example of the Spanish rebels and the complicity from which they are benefiting can only encourage the men of Feb. 6th, for whom the terrorist attack at Vienne, which cost the life of the Young Communist Daniel Llaces, is only a sort of prelude to actions on a larger scale.

"It is inadmissible that La Roque and Doriot, who are preparing the coup, should be able to continue their criminal propaganda, and we can understand why the crowds are beginning to shout once more: 'La Roque in Prison!'

"The fascist leagues, even though camouflaged, must be dissolved. That is what is desired by the people, "And if the government does not dispose of the legal means to make harmless those who are dreaming of doing in France what Franco and Mola are doing in Spain, let it ask for them from Parliament, let it ask also for legal arms, if need be, to put an end to the abominable campaigns inspired by Hitlerism which are being carried on by certain papers such as Le Jour, L'Action Francaise, L'Ami du Peuple, etc.

"Marcel Gitton had occasion to stress (in the Coordination Committee meeting) on the inadmissible policy of certain fascist officers, who, by hunting down soldiers loyal to the Republic, seem to have adopted the watchword of sabotaging national defense through sympathy for Hitlerism, as is also being done by certain industrialists working for the ministry of war, who are sabotaging production.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

QUESTION: What has been the position of the Soviet Union on "non-intervention" in Spain?

ANSWER: From the beginning the Soviet Government looked upon any "neutrality" agreement towards Spain with great misgivings, knowing that the fascist countries-Germany, Italy and Portugal-would use any such pact as a screen for giving aid to the Spanish fascists. The hasty and ill-advised action of Premier Leon Blum of France, however, made it necessary for the Soviet Government to give the plan a trial. Blum raised the question of neutrality soon after the civil war broke out through notes to all interested powers. Germany and Italy did not reply for some time using the pretext that their position could not be determined until the Soviet Government had agreed to the neu-

As a result, the fascists tried to put the Soviet Government in the position of responsibility for the failure of neutrality and the excuse for their own open support to the Spanish fascists. To forestall this maneuver, the Soviet Government agreed to Premier Blum's proposals. Meanwhile, the Communist Party in France raised the slogan of "arms and airplanes to Spain," criticizing Premier Blum's precipitate action and the duplicity of the fascist signatories.

When the violations reached outrageous proportions, the Soviet Government most recently sent a note to all powers in the Non-Intervention Committee accusing Germany, Portugal and Italy of violating the agreement and stating that the Soviets would consider the pact void if the violations continued.

The Soviet Government could not take singlehanded action on this question. Had the anti-fascist movement in France and Great Britain been powerful enough to reverse the position of their governments, adequate measures would early have been taken to aid the Spanish Government. This is now the main task before those workers in democratic countries, especially France, Great Britain and the United States, who oppose the neutrality agreement because it has in practice meant a blockade of Spain rather than "non-

LET LABOR STRIKE A BLOW

An Answer to Monsignor Sheen

By Louis F. Budenz Monsignor F. J. Sheen of the Catholic University at Washington, D. C., has denied Earl Browder, Communist candidate for President, the right to explain Communism the students of the Catholic University. Nevertheless, while denying the Communist standard bearer this privilege, he continues

What does he say in his latest statement? "We must go down to the poor and unemployed," he says, "and build up as strong a Christian proletariat as Communists would a Communist proletariat. The Communists are right in their protest against injustices but wrong in advocating violence. Communism leaves nothing to the soul of his own attacks on the Commu-

man but hate." By that statement Mgr. Sheen admits that the Communists have taken up, before all other forces, the fight for the poor and the unemployed. That is correct. But the Communist Party has done more than that. It has persistently and consistently sought for a united front of all organizations of the workers and farmers and other secto fight for democratic rights and against capitalist injustices. It holds out the hand of fellowship to the Catholic masses and says: "Let us join in battle against the dark forces of fascism, which are destroying our trade unions and our

WHY NO WARNING? Why does not Mgr. Sheen, in "the fight against injustices," call attention to the danger facing all the workers of America-all the poor and the unemployed-in the slimy propaganda of William Randolph Hearst? Why does he not point to the combination of the most reactionary capitalist forces, to bring about the starvation of the unemployed? In that group are now aligned Al Smith and John J. Raskop, the latter of whom was appointed to a committee by the very National Catechetical Congress which Mgr. Sheen was addressing. The chief enemy of the Catholic workers of America, as of the other workers, is the reactionary combine represented by the American Liberty League, Heamst and the Republican Party. Mgr. Sheen does no service to the Catholic workers in avoiding an attack upon these real enemies of the working people. But the Communists, Mgr. Sheen says, advocate violence. What justification is there for such a statement? Does he mean by "violence," international war? Is it not the Communist Parties of the world who are in the forefront of the battle for international peace? Is it not the Communist International which has made the struggle for peace a chief item in its program? Is it not the Soviet Union which, in these days in Spain, has taken the lead in enunciating a policy that would forward peace and democracy, in contrast to the unscrupulous war-making and intervention of the dark fascist powers? WHY NO ATTACK ON NAZIS?

The Communist Party today is the sole force which consistently fights for a policy of peace. advance that cause, it is willing to join hands with all groups and forces which will take a similar road. What has Mgr. Sheen to say to that, faced as he is by the mad war-mongering of the bloody Nazi regime, at Nuremberg? Why does he not level his attacks at these mad Nazis, who have destroyed freedom of worship for the Catholic people of Germany,

As to violence within America who has been guilty of that? Has it been the Communists? Or has it been the murderous pro-fascist organizations represented by the Black Legion? They are pledged above all to fight Communism, also, but in that fight they plot the subjugation of all the working people.

Where has more despicable violence been revealed than in the hearings of the LaFollette Committee on Civil Liberties and in the reports of the Nye Munitions com-Here is violence, for filthy gain, against the working

The Communist Party, Mgr. Sheen, does not stand for terrorism or violence. The resolution adopted by the Ninth Party Convention of the Party is clear on that point; it would be well for every Catholic workingman and woman to read it carefully. The Communist Party is a revolutionary party, carrying forward today the traditions of 1776 and 1861. Does Mgr. Sheen mean to say that he is opposed to what took place in 1776? Does he mean to say that he is against the stand of Abraham Lincoln for the freeing of the chattel slaves in the Civil War? There were plenty men of the cloth who said the same things about Lincoln that Sheen says about the Communists.

THE REAL TERRORISTS

If Mgr. Sheen in reality wishes to combat violence in American life, let him direct his fire at the real terrorists, the forces of dark capitalist reaction. They will oppose any real fight against injustice by the common people, with force, Finally, Mgr. Sheen contends that "Communism leaves nothing in the soul of man but hate." Is that in reality all that he knows of the Communsit objective and Communist achievements? It would be well for him to study what Beatrice and Sidney Webb have written of the triumph of Socialism in the Soviet Union. It would be well for him to study the other facts on the great achievements for the common there. Comm Soviet Union has given to the worker a dignity that he never had before. It has brought together in one socialist nation, more than one hundred nationalities, living at peace with each other, working for the common good. It has brought education, building up the school systems and the institutions of higher education. It has established care for the children that no other nation equals. Does all this flow from "hate"? Do all of these magnificent accomplishments for the happiness and welfare of the people breed "hate" in their minds and hearts? What nonsense!

It is capitalism, based on the exploitation of the many by the few, that breeds the deepest hate and debases man. It is the mad dog stage of capitalism, fascist reaction, which comes out openly with its bloody oppression of the people and its wild cry for mass slaughter.

If Mgr. Sheen is to engage in any fight against injustice, he should learn this primer lesson in things

We repeat what we have said before to Mgr. Sheen: Permit Earl Browder, the outstanding representative of the Communist Party in the United States to speak at the Catholic University. He is the best qualified person to state the position of the Communist Party. There, face to face, you can then question him and also express such differences as you may have with the Communist Party. That is the fair way to face this question.

The Predicament of Mr. Citrine

By Theodore Repard

Sir Walter Citrine, secretary of the British Trades Union Congress -the Bill Green of Great Britain -is having a tough time convincing William Randolph Hearst that he doesn't love him.

Consider poor Citrine's predicament. On Thursday, two days ago, Citrine speaks at a meeting in the Manhattan Opera House in which he denounces Hearst as a menace to democracy, as a salesman of fascism, as an ally of the Spanish fas-

On the very next morning, Hearst's pet property, the New York American, runs an editorial headed: "British Labor Is Loyal."

LOYAL TO WHOM?

Loyal to Hearst or to Citrine? Loyal to both, so it turns out, for in this editorial, Hearst heartily congratulates the leaders of the British Trades Union Congress and the Labor Party for rejecting the application for affiliation of the British Communist Party. It was Citrine who did his best to make that rejection possible. It was Citrine who spent the best part of his speech at the recent Trades Union Congress denouncing Communism, the Soviet Union and a lot of other things that never get a pat from a Hearst editorlal.

From another angle, Citrine ought to be embarrassed.

In his Thursday night speech Citrine told how much he adored "the most democratic government Spain ever had." He wants the Spanish government to win, says

WORKING CLASS DEMOCRACY

First, there are two Communists in that Spanish government, Maybe the British Trades Union Congress and the British Labor Party would be a little more democratic-working class democracy, we mean-if a few Communists were admitted

Secondly, Hearst hates the Spanish Government. His hired hands are ordered to slander and befoul "the most democratic government into them too?

Spain ever had" day in, day out, from the news pages to the editorial pages.

How does it happen that the "patriotic loyalty and constructive citizenship" of men like Citrine are lauded in the New York American although Citrine pleads that he doesn't like Hearst one little bit?

THE ANSWER

The answer is: because Citrine is rabidly anti-Communist and so is Hearst. Because Citrine contents himself with vague and meaningless generalities about supporting Spain while at the same time he supports that fake "neutrality" agreement. Hearst likes that too. Hearst knows his friends. And Citrine will be his friend so long as his policies play into the hands of the fascists, including Hearst.

That fine speech at Manhattan Opera House isn't enough! A fascist leech like Hearst won't be shaken off your tail until you take real actions to stop the fascist assistance to the worst enemies of "the most democratic government Spain ever had."

Miss Gellhorn's book to the Colony- her report, not in the form of case ites, doesn't mean it's not worth histories, but in the form of stories. There are certain truths about the American people t at Miss Gellhorn brings out admirably in her book. The people's hatred for charity, for instance, whether government or otherwise. Their innate distrust of "made" work, work that is not of their own choosing and which they feel is unreal, the make-ization of youth, so that such normal realities as marriage and living together become neurotic fantasies Yes, Miss Gellhorn has written a true and terrible picture of life as it is known to millions of Americans today. Quite definitely she arouses our awareness of conditions; she evokes our pity. But awareness and pity are not enough. Nothing less than justice is enough. And justice means condemnation. "The Trouble I've Seen" agitates our complacence. But it does not What "The Trouble I've Seen" agitate us to do something to does remind you of, is that in this change the social system that perrichest country in the world there mits such outrages against millions of our fellow citizens. It does not and starvation, and despair, and arouse our hatred, much less orheartbreak as to make the admin- ganize such hatred as a corrective force against the evils it depicts.

H. G. Wells, who writes the inroduction to Miss Gellhorn's book, says there is no propaganda in it. That's just where it fails. A book like "The Trouble I've Seen" has no excuse for existence except as propaganda. It's obvious that Miss Gellhorn didn't write these sordid and terrifying stories just for the fun of it. She wrote them because he was deeply moved by the povery and despair she saw all around She wrote them because she felt that life was not meant to be like this, because she knew life did not have to be like this, because she saw that life was being degraded n so wholesale a scale that it was national catastrophe.

Instead of helping us heal the wounds to our selfesteem made by the Yankee batters; three cruel guys named A. Fan have written to us, rubbing salt into the lacerations

In order to identify these kickers-of-alleged-columnists-when-they-are-down we will give them numbers and you can take your pick as to the cruelest cut of all.

The one that is voted meanest in a poll to be conducted in the Grand Central telephone booth will receive a hand-tooled copy of Alf Landon's campaign documents, printed with invisible ink on black paper, something everyone should have to start fires with.

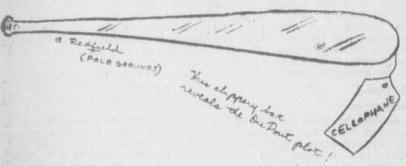

Anyway, folks, A. Fan, Number 1, writes:

Letter Number One

"Dear Ted: [Tsk, tsk, such familiarity-T. B.] "So you picked the Giants and you thought Hubbell would take the Yankees. Rats! You can't beat a powerhouse. Next time pick them right. Can't take it, kid.

"A. Fan."

Says A. Fan, Number 2 (probably a relative): "Ha! Ha! Hee! Hee! and all other expressions of the merry Ha! Ha! I think you ought to write a nice long column on the 'World Series and How the Giants and Benson Got Licked,' with apologies to Upton Sinclair. [I do not know how Sinclair got into this argument, but there he is, folks .- T. B.] Then retire, or better still, write a column on Advice to the Lovelorn, which ought to be right up your alley.

"Comradely [Oh, Yeah?-T. B.] Yours, "A. Fan."

(A. Fan, Number 2, has offered some sound advice. Especially that part about the Advice to the Lovelorn. However, if my prognostications in the art of love are as bad as my baseball predictions, the chances are that I would soon be assaulted by irate females. So, regretfully, I cannot take the advice-T. B.)

Number Three Unoriginal

A. Fan. Number 3, shows a singular lack of originality. His opus and that of Number 1 are almost identical. I guess they must be twins. He says:

"Why don't you at least excuse yourself for picking the Giants. How about writing about it, can you

After having read this mail can you blame me for putting these three members of the Fan family in the category with the duPonts? Come to think of it, maybe they ARE duPonts.

It's a Plot

A. Fan Number 1 sounds like Irenee, Number 2 might easily be Lammot and I suspect the fine hand of the duPont stooge Al Smith in Number 3.

Now that that's settled, I do not have to worry about having picked the Giants to win the series. I can even blame the duPonts for that. They probably put slippery cellophane on the Giants' bats so that they couldn't hit. The only reason they would have done this of course is to queer me with my public, both of them.

So now I can come out flatly and say: "Sure, I picked the Giants, but the Yanks had the duPonts on their side." I can say it, all right, but you would be a sucker to believe it. The truth is the Yanks were a better team.

Americans Favored in Tomorrow's Game at Ebbets' Field

By Joseph Smith

Ebbets Field, the stamping ground of the erratic Brooklyn Dodgers, of baseball fame, will be the scene of the third American appearance of the Palestine Maccabees, when the famous Jewish eleven clashes with a combined team of professionals from the American Soccer League at the Brooklyn field, Sunday after-

FLASHY ATTACK

In their first game the Palesinians whitewashed a New York State eleven 6-0, displaying a flashy short passing style which had the New Yorkers at sea for most of the ninety minutes. Many of the fans who witnessed the one-sided contest were ready to compare the visit ing booters with the celebrated Vienna Hakoah whose sensationa American tour is still vividly re-

Others argued just as strongly that the all star team failed to provide the opposition anticipated, and that a more difficult test would have to be given to the Maccabees before any judgment as to their greatness

It was therefore no surprise that the professional American Soccer League, representing the best in the booting game in this country hurled its challenge at the visitors for a match to decide the question of superiority. In accepting the challenge, the Maccabees realizing the tough job facing them, underwent a rigid training which included even a special diet. The Americans anxious to stop the winning streak of the Palestine champions, have mustered an eleven for the occasion which may be regarded as the cream of American soccer.

Against this formidable aggregation, the Maccabees will field the same line-up which proved so successful in their previous starts. EVEN MATCH contest is a rather difficult job, with both squads so evenly matched and lot of the outcome depending on the accuracy of the shooting by the two forward lines. However, in judging according to paper form, comparing man for man, we are the Americans. A close victory by them over the Palestine booting aces would seem the most probable

A preliminary, scheduled to go under way at 1:30 P.M. will bring out the Furrier's Union soccerites against Kadimah A.C. Both squads are amateur teams of high rating, and an interesting game is an-

Woods Rossiter Can't Analyze So Joe Louis Is O. K.

By Woods Rossiter

Joe Louis fought a Gaucho from the Pampas named Jorge Brescia in Mike Jacobs's very plush Hippodrome Club last night, and the analytical minds among the boxing gentry thought Joe very foolish to have signed for the bout.

Their line of reasoning was that because of the limited capacity of the Hippodrome (it seats fewer than 7.000) Joe's 30 per cent of the gate can't possibly exceed $15,000, and that he was foolish to risk his million dollar reputation and possibly his chance for a title fight, for such a paltry sum. To back up their argument, the critics point out that Brescia is tough as the steers which range in his native Argentina, and a team can go no further than its has a right hand capable of doing substitutes. And that's where Army every bit as much damage to Joe's has the edge. Their superior manchin as did Schmeling's, which power should turn the tide late in heaven knows its plenty. $15,000 IS MONEY

I don't agree with the critics. It's hardly to be expected that I would for, as I said, they are analytical, which makes me as different from them as water is from wine. I could not analyze a one way street on a bet. But that's neither nor there. The point is I think they're wrong. In the first place, $15,000 isn't a paltry sum. It's not haircut money in any language, specially for fewer than thirty minutes work.

In the second, Brescia never contuted a genuine menace. He's big yes, and has a long reach, but so has Carnera, and if Bootsie was a menace then Webster's definition of the word is as wrong as a broken watch. Much has been said of his deadly right-hand punching. Don't believe it. He's a fair hitter, and that's all.

My guess was that he won't be around for the fifth round. You can Fordham Is Ready check on it by the time this edition is out and see if I'm crazy. For Texas Invader
