

HITLER AND MUSSOLINI MURDER SPANISH PEOPLE -- STOP THEIR BLOODY HANDS

MASS AT MADISON SQUARE GARDEN MONDAY NIGHT TO HEAR SPANISH ENVOYS AT RALLY FOR DEFENSE OF SPAIN

OUTSIDE aid to the Fascists of Spain is reaching gigantic proportions. Sensational reports from all parts of the world tell of the murderous assistance given by Mussolini and Hitler to the Franco hordes in their bloody assault on Madrid. We publish only a few of the more glaring stories of foreign Fascist arms shipments to Spain.

From the United States: The Nation, Oct. 24 issues, writes: "The Nation has learned on good authority that a shipment of munitions for the Spanish rebel army recently arrived in Seville on an American vessel." At the same time, the Nation adds: "The State department is known to have placed insuperable obstacles in the way of exporters who have sought to exercise their legal right to sell munitions to the Spanish government." Northwich, England: A Herald Tribune cable from here states that John Wilson, a student, observed German Fascists piloting fighting planes against Madrid, still wearing their swastikas and German army uniforms. Italian flyers also flaunted the garb of the Italian Fascist army. German warships are conveying munitions vessels to Spain to be used against the constitutional government, declared Mr. Wilson. NAVALCARNERO: A New York Times correspondent with the Fascist forces reports that Italian whippet tanks, such as were used in Ethiopia, are employed by the Spanish Fascists (who get them on credit from Mussolini) to storm the trenches protecting Madrid. Besides whippet tanks the Fascists have received a new shipment of Caproni airplanes with Fiat escort and pursuit planes. The shipment of arms to the Fascists in Spain continues in a deadly stream against the heroic people defending democracy. Everything must be done to stop these wholesale shipments of the weapons of death against the lawful government of Spain. The blockade against the legally-elected government of Spain must be broken down. American seamen and dockers, watch out for American arms shipments to the Fascists in Spain. There is no time to lose! Rush every penny you can to help defend Spanish democracy and world peace!

COLUMN LEFT!

Introducing Col. Hashimoto Ever Been Homeless How Red Is Hitler's Nose In Winter?

By Harrison George

INTRODUCING Colonel Hashimoto, a gent you've never heard of before. The colonel is on the retired list of the Japanese army. But active as all get-out in the military fascist movement of Japan. The colonel has magnificent notions about the future of Japan. They harmonize with the famed "Tanaka Memorandum," given to the Mikado in 1927 by the then premier, Baron Tanaka, who had a wonderful plan for grabbing China, beginning with Manchuria, then Siberia, and then just eating its way around the world like a silkworm on a mulberry leaf. Colonel Hashimoto, in the name of Japanese military-fascism has issued a statement much talked about in the island empire. Japan must still conquer the world, he says. But as a sort of concession, it will "allow limited autonomy to other nations." Very generous of the colonel. But his gang hasn't yet encountered a possible united China. Most certainly he will have to revise his plans if Japan sends its forces against the Red Army of the Soviet Union. And believe me, there'll be many a Japanese colonel split on the bayonets of his own soldiers.

MIKE FARRELL, 18 years old and homeless, shivered in the cold wind Saturday night. For many nights he had slept on hard subway benches. Mike's in jail now. He disturbed the digestion of 100 people who had money enough to eat in the Plymouth restaurant in Brooklyn. He found a brick and chucked it through the restaurant window. Diners spilled their soup. Pedestrians gathered and police came to carry Mike to jail. If you think it funny, just try it! A lad must be desperate to go to such lengths to find a place to sleep. Where are all those "charities" that bum us regularly to "care for the homeless"? Where is the "recovery"? There are numberless Mike Farrells. Congress must pass the American Youth Act.

WHEN Maurice Thorez, French Communist, spoke last week in Alsace-Lorraine, the crowd saw a placard with a cartoon of Hitler, shown as having a very red nose. Berlin protested officially to Paris. The red nose was specially mentioned. Likewise Thorez's remark that the "best types of Germans now are in concentration camps." Together with the fascists in France, Hitler is on the offensive to smash the People's Front government of France, to make France fascist. "We only wish France would save herself by sending Thorez and his colleagues to French concentration camps," says a big Nazi. Just recall the insulting and threatening language of Hitler and other Nazis at the recent Nuremberg Nazi congress against the Soviet Union, and marvel at the brass-faced gall of them complaining about anything said abroad about them.

PERHAPS you recall the hard winters of 1917-18. I do, though I was warmly ensconced in a "nice comfortable jail" (barring the bedbugs, the awful victuals, the foul air, the lack of sun, walls, bars and assorted guards—all cantankerous). Anyhow, the coming winter is going to be one like it, according to Charles Big Knife, Huron Indian of north Michigan, who probably knows a lot more about the weather than the Literary Digest knows about the election. "Goose go south two weeks ago," says Injun Charley. "Muskrat build house hurry-up and bear come out of swamp to look for place to sleep. Everything no good. Fish tell same thing. Brook trout run up creek to spawn. Him no wait for November. Frog bury him two feet in mud, like winter 1917-18. Gitche Manitou (Great Spirit) him on war path. He punish white people for all time talk about election."

We faintly suspect that the Associated Press writer sneaked in that last crack about the election and Injun Charley never said it. However, that maybe, look alive, unemployed! It will be cold enough even if the muskrat is mistaken. And be as wise as the goose by uniting to compel relief agencies to provide for you the warm clothes and coal necessary to keep from freezing this winter.

Additional printing and tour expenses from now till the end of the election campaign will cost $4,500. Have you done your share in raising funds? Send money at once to the Campaign Committee, 35 East 12th St., N. Y. C.

SOVIETS DISAVOW SHAM PACT ON SPAIN

In the Steel Country

Steel workers and miners of the Pittsburgh area were among the millions who tuned in on Browder's nationwide speech over WEAF. With Browder, seated in the center, are Walde Frank, famous writer who will accompany Browder to Tampa Sunday; left, Seymour Waldman, representative of the Communist National Campaign Committee, and standing, Tom Myerscough, of the Pittsburgh committee.

Aid Spanish People, Browder Urges in Radio Plea to Nation

Asks Embargo on Madrid Be Lifted in Speech Drawing Parallel Between Battle There and American Revolution of 1776

Drawing a parallel between the American fight for democracy in 1776 and that of Spain today, Earl Browder last night urged that the United States sell arms to the Spanish government.

Over a nation-wide broadcast from WEAF, New York, the Communist candidate for President declared that the "dark forces of reaction, aided and abetted by the fascist governments of Italy, Germany and Portugal are destroying cities, blowing up factories, uprooting what was built up by the Spanish people through centuries."

IN TAMPA SUNDAY Browder spoke on the eve of his departure for Tampa, Florida, where he will address a rally tomorrow afternoon. He is accompanied by Walde Frank, noted author, who will also make a talk there as well as report the trip for the Daily Worker. On his last visit to Tampa, Browder was forcibly prevented from speaking. Tomorrow's meeting will be in a vacant lot because the intimidated owners of halls refused to rent one to the Communist Party.

"It is the duty of every American worker and progressive to help the Spanish people defeat the fascist invasion," Browder told his radio

PLAN ATTACK ON JOBLESS DELEGATION

Lasser Bares Intent of Washington Police to Charge on Group

(Daily Worker Washington Bureau) WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—David Lasser, president of the Workers Alliance of America, charged tonight that the Washington police are planning to attack the delegation of 500 unemployed and WPA workers which will visit President Roosevelt tomorrow morning, and to arrest Alliance leaders. "I have learned from reliable sources," he declared, "that the police are planning to break up our delegation before it gets to the White House. This attack is being planned with the permission and cooperation of Federal WPA authorities."

Lasser assured the Daily Worker that the Workers Alliance is organizing an orderly and disciplined expression of demands for higher relief appropriations and better working conditions on WPA. "The responsibility for any disturbance of violence, he said, will be directly on the police force and on Federal authorities."

TO GO TO WHITE HOUSE Lasser estimated the delegation is being backed by folded-arms strikes and demonstrations by workers on WPA projects in at least 1,500 cities and towns. The delegation will proceed in a body to the White House where a group of seven will be selected to participate in discussions with the President. A request for an inter-

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 23.—The first break in the "united front" of the steamship lines against the Maritime Federation of the Pacific came today when 11 lines conceded the International Longshoremen's Association almost all of its demands. It is entirely possible, however, that the I. L. A. will refuse the proposal, as Harry Bridges, head of the union, has previously informed the ship owners, because the longshoremen cannot make a separate settlement so long as the demands

Attempt to Pin Subway Jam On Workers

Early attempts to connect labor with the tie-up of the subway yesterday morning were proven false later in the day when both company and union officials laid the pulling of eight emergency switches to a drunk or prankster.

First editions of afternoon newspapers laid the stalling of trains on the East Side Lexington Ave line to sabotage by workers. Floyd Van Dusen, state railway policeman, immediately placed blame for the tie-up on a "disgruntled" employee.

Other police representatives also tried to identify the switch-puller as a dissatisfied worker. They said the vandal knew the workings of the power system.

An hour delay in service on the line during the rush hour resulted from the stalling of the trains.

A renewed fight against brutality in Harlem public schools was begun yesterday when a summons was sworn out for Gustav Schoenchen, principal of P.S. 5, and savage attacker of a 14-year-old Negro boy last Wednesday. The principal is charged with assault. The summons was issued at the request of Roy Shelton, father of the boy, Robert, at the Harlem court, 447 W. 151st St. A hearing was set for Nov. 4. The boy's parents were represented by Attorney Alexander Racolin.

Expect 1,000 At Meeting to Aid Steel Drive

(Daily Worker Pittsburgh Bureau) PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 23.—Mobilization of fraternal organizations to aid the Steel Workers Organizing Committee has reached a record peak with 107 Western Pennsylvania lodges and 21 national orders having named delegates for Sunday's conference here, B. K. Gebert, acting chairman of the Fraternal Orders Committee, announced today.

Many other groups are expected to be represented when the conference opens, and at least 1,000 delegates will be present. The chief speaker will be Philip Murray, chairman of Steel Workers Committee.

Sunday's conference is the first of a series of such meetings mobilizing workers and professional groups throughout the United States to aid the drive to organize the half million American steel workers.

FASCIST PLANES BOMB MADRID

FASCISTS OPEN AIR ATTACKS ON MADRID

Rebel Planes Center Attacks on Working-Class Districts

(By United Press) MADRID, Oct. 23.—Fascist airplanes bombed the outskirts of Madrid tonight and sent the city's million inhabitants screaming in terror to places of safety. A fascist air squadron flew over the Northern outskirts, turned and swooped low over Real Casa de Campo at the Western edge of the city and dropped four bombs. It was the first actual bombing of the city and in the excitement the amount of damage was not learned. Earlier three fascist observation planes circled above the city and viewed the government's aerial defense fortifications. Wireless and cable communications were cut temporarily, reportedly after fascist planes bombed the wireless station at Aranjuez. The city's inhabitants sought all means of shelter in fear of actual bombing of the capital itself.

Demands Government of Spain Be Permitted to Buy Arms as Hitler and Mussolini War on the Spanish People

BULLETIN LISBON, Oct. 24 (UPI)—Portugal today officially broke off diplomatic relations with the Madrid government.

By FREDERICK KUH (United Press Staff Correspondent) LONDON, Oct. 23.—The Soviet Government informed the International Committee on Non-Intervention in Spain today that the non-intervention agreement has "ceased in practice to exist."

The Soviets demanded in a note that the Spanish Government be given the right and facilities to purchase arms outside Spain, while participants in the agreement be authorized to sell or not to sell arms to Spain, in their discretion.

SOVIET NOTE Soviet Ambassador Ivan Malski's note said the agreement had become "an empty, torn scrap of paper." "In adhering with other States to the agreement for non-intervention in Spanish affairs," Malski wrote, "The Government of the Soviet Union expected that the agreement would be fulfilled by the participants; that, as a result, this period of civil war in Spain would be shortened and the number of victims reduced. "The time which has elapsed, however, has shown that the agreement is being systematically violated by a number of participants and that the supply of arms to the rebels goes on unpunished.

Portuguese Ship With Nazi Markings Sinks Spanish Boat, All Die

(By United Press) LISBON, Oct. 23.—The Spanish Embassy here today announced it had received a report from the acting governor of Spanish Guinea that at 8 A.M. on Oct. 14 a Portuguese motorship, Ciudad de Macao, had fired warning shots at short range at the motorship Fernando. Flying the Spanish flag, the report said the Fernando was sunk and the captain and her crew of 40 drowned. Franciscan Says Support of Fascists Is Crime Against Humanity—'Will Tell Truth About Spain' at Rally Monday

"Catholic newspapers in the United States are committing a crime against humanity and against democracy," charged the Rev. The tiny Basque ecclesiastic, who is to speak in Madison Square Garden on Monday night, was replying to a front page editorial published in the Brooklyn Tablet, Catholic newspaper. The Tablet stated that it was "reliably informed" that Father Sarasola is an "apostate Franciscan" and is not in good standing with his religious order. This statement was categorically denied by Father Sarasola. "I am going to tell the truth about the church in Spain on Monday night," the priest said. The Tablet did not attempt to deny Father Sarasola's priestly office but referred

Unwed Mother Freed Suspended Term for Elizabeth

Elizabeth Smith, unwed mother at 18, convicted in the Bronx County Court House of killing her new-born baby, was freed today by Judge Harry Stackell. The dark-haired, sad-faced young girl, who went through child-birth alone in the bathroom of her father's apartment, was given a suspended sentence. The judge had been petitioned by hundreds of men and women in the city to free the girl. A verdict of not guilty had been expected, after the judge had charged the jury. The day after the conviction, four jurors recanted, saying they believed the girl innocent, but had been told they would be kept there indefinitely if they did not agree to a verdict of second degree manslaughter. Thermo Shows $34,217 Fund Still Needed

Contributing to the election campaign fund yesterday, individuals and organizations throughout the country boosted the grand total for the drive to $105,387.45.

The National Campaign Committee's share of the day's contributions was $1,236.38, making the Committee's final two-week total $15,782.28. In the ten remaining days before election an additional $34,217.73 must be received by the National Campaign Committee alone to complete its final $50,000 budget (see accompanying campaign thermometer). Branch One and the Upper Kinsman Branch of the Ohio Communist Party, both in the Cleveland South East section, have fulfilled their quotas of $125 and $150 respectively, leading all other Party branches in the state.

Send YOUR share of the final $34,217.73 today! All funds must reach the Campaign Committee, 35 East 12th St., New York City, at once, in order to be used with the greatest effectiveness during the last week of the 1936 campaign!

Soviet People in Farm and Factory Pledge Support to Spain

Raise Funds to Aid Madrid Anti-Fascists

The Whole Soviet People Is with You, Greetings from Factories to People's Front Fighters in Spain Say—Women Send Resolutions

(By Cable to the Daily Worker)
MOSCOW, Oct. 23.—The million-voiced cry to the embattled Spanish people, "Crush the Fascists and Save Revolutionary Spain!" rings out every day now from the tremendous wave of solidarity meetings which is sweeping the Soviet Union. "Remember, the entire Soviet people is wholeheartedly with you," the cry resounds from meetings at factory gates in great industrial cities, like Dnepropetrovsk and Stalingrad, in collective farms, in national minority republics—wherever the Soviet people work and come together.

HONOR SPAIN'S FIGHTERS

A novel form of solidarity action has been adopted by several brigades of the "Comintern" factory in Dnepropetrovsk. It has been decided to organize new "shock-brigades" of the most skilled and efficient workers under the names of Spanish heroes.

One of the most fiery and typical letters is that of the "Heroic Fifth Regiment Shock Brigade," addressed to its namesake on the Madrid front. "The glorious fighters of the Fifth Regiment," it reads:

TEXT OF GREETING

"Dear Friends and Class-Brothers! Having studied at a meeting the news of the situation at the fronts our brigade has declared itself a 'shock brigade' taking the name of your glorious Fifth Regiment.

"Our factory is on the Dniepr River in the center of the Soviet Ukraine. Before the Revolution it belonged to a Belgian capitalist and a German employer.

"It was a miserable, dingy factory making engineering products. Dozens of workers were injured and met death in its filth and murk.

SEND AID

"After the great Socialist October Revolution, we workers became the masters of the factory, which was rebuilt with new technical equipment, forging to the van as one of the Soviet Union's great metal factories.

"Our great conquests were not won with ease.

"Our workers have collected a fund to aid your families, amounting to some 15,000 rubles.

"This will help you until you complete your victory over the fascists.

COSSACKS ACT

In the North Caucasus, collective-farm Cossacks, formerly the cruellest police-hounds of Tsarist oppression but today loyal builders of Socialism, adopted a resolution of support for the Soviet Government's action in regard to non-intervention.

"Our Cossack collective-farmers support all acts of our government to oblige the fascist countries to respect international law," their declaration reads.

Out on the steppes of the Kalmak Republic, the collective-farmers of this national minority are in a ferment of discussion of every bit of news that comes through from Spain.

The women members of the Soviet of the town of Kalinin adopted a resolution expressing their profound solidarity with the "courageous women of heroic Spain," and sent them a moving letter of greeting.

In Rostov-on-the-Don, in Stalingrad, everywhere, the entire toiling populace of the Soviet Union are holding similar mass meetings.

BELGIUM TO RESIST MARCH OF FASCISTS

Leader Announces Plan of Brussels Putsch Tomorrow

BRUSSELS, Oct. 23.—Plans of Belgian leader Leon Degrelle to raise his followers in a "march on Brussels" on Sunday will meet with stern repression by the Government, it was learned here today.

Police and army units will be called into action if the fascists disregard the Government ban on their rally and attempt to assemble in the capital, said Government announcements.

Degrelle, who claims to be able to turn out a following of 250,000, has modeled his organization closely on German Nazi lines and is known to be in close touch with Hitler and the French fascist leader De la Rocque.

Refusal by the Belgian Socialist Party to form a United Front with Communists, thus weakening the working-class movement in Belgium, has allowed Belgian fascism to make marked progress this year.

An alliance was made lately between Degrelle's "Rexist" fascist league and Flemish Nationalists who seek separation of Flanders from French-speaking Belgium.

New Shipment Of Medicine Sent to Spain

I.L.D. Orders Sailing on Tuesday of $1,000 Cargo

A second shipment of medical supplies for Spain has been ordered by the International Labor Defense and will leave on the Ile de France next Tuesday, it was announced today by Rose Baron, in charge of the campaign for that organization.

The shipment will contain $1,000 worth of tetanus anti-toxin, together with large quantities of surgical instruments and other medical supplies. A first shipment leaves today on the S.S. Lafayette.

The shipments represent only a small fraction of the medical supplies urgently needed by the I.L.D. of Spain, which is functioning as the Red Cross of the Republican government, to help save the lives of thousands of loyalist soldiers, Miss Baron said.

Funds to make possible a third, even larger shipment of medical supplies for the defenders of democracy in Spain, by the next boat, are being collected by the I.L.D. at 80 E. 11th St. Serums, anti-toxin, and elaborate surgical equipment are being sought by the I.L.D., while miscellaneous, non-perishable supplies are being contributed directly, through the efforts of doctors, pharmacists, and other medical workers.

The Nurses and Hospital Workers Union and the Pharmacists' Union in New York have been very active in the campaign, Miss Baron said.

TOWARD 19th ANNIVERSARY OF SOVIET UNION

In U.S.A. Jobless Ask for a Little Aid; In the U.S.S.R. the Job Seeks the Man

Students Condemn Anti-Labor Stand of University After Address by Browder

"We want to hear Browder!" We want to hear Browder!" chanted scores of students barred from the Browder meeting yesterday noon in the Auditorium of the School of Education, New York University after every one of the 502 seats was filled and the uniformed attendants had locked the doors.

The students outside kept up their shouting at intervals, and finally at the very end of the meeting a few of them got in. Others distributed themselves outside the windows and heard what they could. A street overflow meeting of 400 listened to Communist speakers during the main meeting inside.

Browder spoke under auspices of the Karl Marx Society. His first main point was the painters' grievances against the administration of the university, which refuses to grant union demands.

Painters are picketing the university and Browder was escorted in by Business Agent A. Latker of District Council No. 9, Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America. The Communist candidate for President complimented the students on reports he had received from painters, who testified that the students gave them valuable support in the struggle with the administration of this privately-owned university.

"When the fight for the rights of the workers becomes organically connected with the struggle for democratic rights everywhere, then the possibilities of preserving democratic rights in America becomes much greater," said Browder. Later, the meeting unanimously adopted a resolution demanding the administration grant union conditions and use union painters.

Browder defined the main issue in this election campaign as "progress or reaction," "democracy or fascism" and told of the reactionary concentration around Landon. "Landon is not a bold and daring figure like Hitler or Mussolini," said Browder. "That's why he was chosen. Hearst knew very well that the American people are vaccinated against the Hitler type."

He proceeded to analyze the supporters of Landon, including the Liberty League which he characterized as demanding "unrestrained liberty of exploitation." References to Hearst were hissed by the students. Browder received nothing but enthusiastic applause, frequently repeated.

He referred to his being prevented from speaking in Terre Haute, and warned that though now the issue of free speech turns around the right of the Communist Presidential candidate to speak, this is only temporary. Prohibition of free speech is already being extended to the American Labor Party.

He described the Communist campaign as primarily a campaign to build in the near future for a Farmer-Labor Party, under this name or another, a party that will rally all progressive forces, including those who are not yet ready for socialism now.

He explained in some detail the eight planks of the Communist Party election platform, and in the brief period allowed his audience by academic schedules, managed to answer some of the thirty or more questions handed in.

One student who wanted to know how the democratic constitution of the Soviet Union could cover the Zinoviev terrorist trial was answered by a declaration that Democracy especially had the duty of saving its officials from assassins.

Richard Pack, class of '37, and president of the Karl Marx Society, acted as chairman of the meeting, introducing at the end a resolution that carried with only one humorous "Nay" wishing Browder free speech in Tampa.

Kids Among 28 Arrested At Aid Bureau

Delegation Seized During Conference With Head of Relief Office

Twenty-eight men, women and children were arrested at the offices of the Emergency Relief Bureau, 114 W. 17th St., yesterday because they insisted that they were in dire need of home relief. They were charged with disorderly conduct and paroled for trial, Nov. 6.

While 30 pickets, members of the Workers Alliance, paraded in front of the building the 28 were in conference with Mrs. McGuire, supervisor of the bureau and known as an opponent of unemployed unions, who refused to accede to the requests of the delegation. Her call brought the police to the relief office.

Italy and Reich Ready To Conclude Fascist Pact

Hitler and Ciano Meet Today After Three-Day Parleys by Foreign Ministers Planning Wide Campaign Against Soviet Union

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—Finishing touches on a far-reaching agreement for an Italo-German fascist front are scheduled to be made at tomorrow's meeting between Adolf Hitler and Italian Foreign Minister Galeazzo Ciano.

The way has been prepared by a three-day conference between Ciano and Nazi Foreign Minister Konstantin von Neurath. The keynote of the conference has been plans for attacking Communism and the Soviet Union.

It has already been reported that German and Italian fascism have agreed to recognize the Spanish fascists as soon as they enter Madrid, and to recognize no other Spanish government.

Both powers are also expected to come to terms on a program of smashing whatever remains of the Locarno peace pact as well as to achieve the destruction of the League of Nations.

At the conclusion of the Hitler-Ciano conversation, an official communique will be issued summarizing the agreement, it was reported.

Duchess Says Son Will Be King

Victoria, Duchess of Toledo, and former Queen of Spain, counted her chickens before they were hatched as she sailed for her London home aboard the Queen Mary yesterday.

The former Queen permitted Count de Mora, her spokesman, to say that she expected her younger son, Juan, Prince of Asturias, to rule Spain after the present civil war.

Count de Mora is the Queen's gentleman-in-waiting.

The Queen came here to visit her eldest son, Count de Cavadonga, who is suffering from hemophilia.

Count de Mora entered a denial that the anti-government forces were fascist in character, to favor of a monarchist interpretation. In any event, both sides could agree in their hatred of the Republic, he said, though not in so many words.

PETITION TO DEWEY CITES PIER RACKET

Thugs, Stool Pigeons Hired By United Fruit Company

If Special Prosecutor Thomas L. Dewey really wants to clean up racketeering on the New York waterfront, let him start by tackling the United Fruit Company, declared Nick Sands, member of Local 856, International Longshoremen's Association before a cheering crowd of 900 longshoremen at Pier 7 yesterday morning.

Sands read a letter addressed to Dewey and signed by Sands for the loyal members of Local 856, charging the company with:

1. Engaging in an undercover conspiracy to rob 500 union longshoremen of $100,000 pay.

2. Having their company agents threaten the lives of Nick Sands and George Becker, active members of the I.L.A., Local 856. These threats were made on October 17 and 20 respectively.

3. Having used and now using undercover agents, strongarm men, stool pigeons and bribes in its efforts to break up Local 856 of the I.L.A.

4. Taking $5,000 in cash from the longshoremen on Pier 7 of the United Fruit Co. No accounting has been made of the money.

HIT BY COPS, NEGROWOMAN IN HOSPITAL

Others Hurt, 5 Seized for Asking Relief in Brownsville

A Negro woman is in Kings County Hospital, the victim of a police attack because she joined with 300 members of the Workers' Alliance yesterday to demand relief for unemployed families.

She is Mrs. Edna Knight, 26, who was so badly beaten by policemen swinging clubs that she was taken to the hospital in an ambulance.

While 300 pickets marched in front of the Brownsville relief headquarters at 285 Powell St., Brooklyn, a delegation was ordered out of the offices of Morris Bluestone, local supervisor.

The committee refused to leave the office until Bluestone heard its demands for adequate relief for all needy workers and no discrimination against Negroes.

EXPOSES COMPANY UNION

Sands, who held the crowd despite the heckling of planted disrupters, exposed the move of the company to establish a company union on the docks. One of the stooges, Patsy Romano, was shoving around company union petitions. Sands read from the petition, "We the laborers on Pier 7, United Fruit Co., desire to form an association for our own mutual benefit and to carry on negotiations with the company."

Pointing out that by terming the men laborers instead of longshoremen the company could work them for as little as sixty-five cents an hour, instead of the dollar an hour minimum for longshoremen, Sands asked the men to show by a vote whether they wanted the I.L.A. or a company union. A unanimous vote marked the popularity of the I.L.A.

Police were stationed at the pier in large numbers. About 70 moved among the crowd, trying to break up small talking groups. During the meeting itself, however, they maintained order for the speaker for as long as sixty-five cents an hour, instead of the dollar an hour minimum for longshoremen, Sands asked the men to show by a vote whether they wanted the I.L.A. or a company union. Rubber Union Minor to Flay Gets Apology, Coupon Cutting Ends Strike

Called 'Sit-Down' When Worker Was 'Disciplined' Breaking Rule

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 22.—After the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. had apologized for a breach of agreement by one of its foremen, its pit workers who had tied up production during the last 30-hour "sit-down" strike voted today to return to work at noon.

The foreman had refused to permit a representative of the United Rubber Workers to be present while a worker was being "disciplined." The foreman claimed he did not know the union had this privilege.

Fascist Bombing Halts Wireless From Madrid

LONDON, Oct. 23 (UP)—Wireless communication with Madrid was interrupted for several hours today, but Cables and Wireless Ltd. announced tonight that communication had been restored.

Wireless interruption was attributed to trouble at the Aranjuez radio station, possibly from rebel bombing. Temporary cable communication was established through Barcelona and over Spanish land lines.

Later full service was restored.

Duchess Says Son Will Be King

Victoria, Duchess of Toledo, and former Queen of Spain, counted her chickens before they were hatched as she sailed for her London home aboard the Queen Mary yesterday.

The former Queen permitted Count de Mora, her spokesman, to say that she expected her younger son, Juan, Prince of Asturias, to rule Spain after the present civil war.

Count de Mora is the Queen's gentleman-in-waiting.

The Queen came here to visit her eldest son, Count de Cavadonga, who is suffering from hemophilia.

Count de Mora entered a denial that the anti-government forces were fascist in character, to favor of a monarchist interpretation. In any event, both sides could agree in their hatred of the Republic, he said, though not in so many words.

Gil Green, Back from Spain to Speak at Youth Rally

Robert Minor, Communist candidate for governor, will discuss "The Coupon Clippers Who Run Our State Legislature" at the youth election rally sponsored by the Young Communist League tomorrow, Sunday afternoon at the St. Nicholas Palace, 66th St. and Columbus Ave.

A special feature of the meeting will be a first-hand report on the war in Spain by Gil Green, national secretary of the Young Communist League, who has just returned from the battle front. Green will also analyze the World Youth Congress which he attended.

Angelo Herndon, champion of America's young workers who faces twenty years on a Georgia chain gang, will be heard by special wire from the broadcasting studios of WHN. He will talk about the role of WHN youth in the election.

I. Amter, Communist candidate for president of the Board of Aldermen, will discuss the municipal situation as it affects youth. The arrangements committee promises a 35-piece symphony band and other surprises. 5,000 young workers and students are expected to jam the hall.

John Little, executive secretary of the New York Young Communist League and candidate for the State Senate, will preside.

California Labor Plans Drive Against Vigilantes

Unions to Act on Resolution of Federation Convention Condemning Organizations That Use Extra-Legal Terror

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—With clear memories of the reign of terror set up by vigilantes in the coast-wide marine strike of 1934, and with knowledge of formation by the employers' vigilante gangs for the showdown on the waterfront that may come next week, California unions are now taking to heart the advice of the State Federation of Labor that they form defense committees.

The resolution, passed at the recent thirty-seventh annual convention of the federation in Sacramento, the state capital, is very clear and outspoken and did not at the time receive the attention it deserved.

The resolution reads: "Vigilanteism is becoming more prevalent every year," and declares:

"That we go on record as being tired of the activities of these elements and their organizations that persist in taking the law into their own hands and we are equally fed up with the weak-kneed and spineless excuses of the civil authorities who continue to ignore flagrant disregard of civil laws; and be it

"Resolved: That the Executive Committee of the California State Federation of Labor proceed at once to ask all affiliated organizations to set up defense committees to the end that the rights of labor be protected and defended, also that the Executive Committee shall devise such methods and means as conditions may demand from time to time and advise the various unions as to their conclusions."

Police Attempt To Smash Line Of Mill Strikers

Gas Pickets and Arrest 2 in Fall Fall River Spinners Strike

FALLS RIVER, Mass., Oct. 23.—Police attempted yesterday to break up picketing by hundreds of strikers in front of Plant "E" of the Berkshire Fine Spinning Associates here. Tear gas bombs were thrown and two arrests were made before the pickets dispersed.

The picketing was especially vigorous today and yesterday as the strikers felt that the company "double-crossed" them by prevailing on the United Textile Workers to accept a proposal of the State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration that the strike be called off—and then not accepting it.

The strike in two mills and lock-out in one in the Falls River company here began more than two weeks ago. About 4,000 workers are affected.

Rail Company Union Out

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23 (FP)—Company unionism in the maintenance of way departments of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad and the Quincy, Omaha and Kansas City Railroad received a set back here when the National Maintenance Board certified the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees the official bargaining agency. The board's certification was made following a poll taken of the employees in which 3,299 voted for the bona fide union while 1,636 voted for the company union.

Hearst Pays Off G.O.P. Gets San Simeon Wages

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—William Randolph Hearst stood revealed today as the largest single contributor to a Republican campaign jackpot of $3,161,617. Hearst gave $300,000 in three separate $100,000 contributions, according to a report by the Republican National Committee.

Five thousand persons jammed the Hippodrome Thursday evening to attend a mass "trial" of William Randolph Hearst, Labor's Enemy No. 1. Seated on the stage in the capacity of counsel and witnesses are (reading left to right): Robert K. Speer, New York University Professor; Governor Hjalmar Peterson of Minnesota; A. P. Lockhart, editor of the Union Advocate; Rabbi Israel Goldstein; Attorney Osmond K. Fraenkel; Arthur Garfield Hays, counsel of the American Civil Liberties Union.

Pickets Turn Back Scabs In Utah Smelter Strike

Mines Still Closed Down as Workers Wait for Strikebreakers All Night Brought in from Nevada

BINGHAM CANYON, Utah, Oct. 23.—The first attempt of the operators to break the state-wide metal mines and smelter strike here came at the little town of Lark last Tuesday—and the mines are still closed down.

While the Lark local of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers was in session Monday night, word came to them that two groups of strikebreakers would attempt to go into the mine at Lark.

Glen Gillespie, member of the international board of the union, rushed down from Bingham, and with the Lark men all night and on the picket line with them in the morning. Over 100 pickets blocked all approaches. Shortly after 6 a.m. seven scabs approached the Bingham-Salt Lake road, and were quickly persuaded to turn back. A bit later four came up from the other side on the road from Harriman, and also turned back.

Labor News in Brief

WOMEN'S GROUPS ANSWER STEEL PARLEY CALL

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 23.—Favorable response from a number of women's organizations has stimulated the Conference Committee for Women's Auxiliaries to greater action in their campaign for a real conference of all South Chicago women's organizations on Nov. 6, according to Mrs. Dorothy Patterson, chairman of the Conference Committee. The conference will be held at 7:30 P.M. in Knights of Pythias Hall, 3025 East 91st Street.

RUBBER WORKERS STRIKE

NORWALK, Ohio, Oct. 23 (FP)—A woman trade unionist, President May Sanford of United Rubber Workers of America Local 56, led the strike of 35 employees of the Maple City Rubber Co., toy balloon factory, when they walked out demanding union recognition and better working conditions. After two union organizers were arrested for assistance in the strike, a caravan of 400 Akron "gum miners" descended on the plant to help in mass picketing.

M.E.S.A. Delays Affiliation Issue

CLEVELAND, Oct. 23 (FP)—The Mechanics Educational Society of America will wait until after the next American Federation of Labor convention before acting on invitations to affiliate with the United Automobile Workers of America.

SWIFT FACES UNION CHARGE

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 23 (FP)—Charges have been filed with the National Labor Relations Board against the Plankinton Packing Co., of Milwaukee, Swift subsidiary, for discharging Peter Dapp, active worker in the Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of North America.

Discharge of several employees for union activities, plus a strike, plus pickets do not add up to a labor dispute, so far as Federal Judge Ferdinand Geiger is concerned. He has handed down a decision forbidding striking employees of the E. G. Shinner & Co., Milwaukee chain meat dealers, to picket or speak to scabs. The Meat Cutters Union will appeal the decision.

STRIKE AT RUNAWAY SHOPS

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 23.—Another runaway shop found it had jumped from the trying pan into the fire when the workers of the Pacific Parlor Frame Co. struck here. Picketing is going on vigorously under the leadership of Local 76-B of the Upholsterers International Union.

STEEL TRUST STALLS ON WAGE DEMAND

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 23.—Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation, largest affiliate of U. S. Steel Corporation, took the second step today in what its workers see as a deliberate process of "kidding along" its own company union general council. The company announced today that while it refused the council's request for a $1.24 per day raise wage, it would be "pleased to enter further negotiations for a compromise agreement."

NEW AUTO LOCAL LEADS STRIKE OF 450

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 23.—The new local of the United Automobile Workers of America, organized in D. L. Ault Co. here through the aid of the Committee for Industrial Organization, is already leading 450 of its members in a plant in a strike for better conditions.

CLEVELAND GARMENT WORKERS OUT

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 23.—A strike of 200 workers for five pants contractors here was called yesterday by the Amalgamated Clothing Workers.

Ship Cooks To Vote On Strike Plan

$70 a Month and Better Working Conditions Asked on Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 23.—The shipowners' belief that they could hold 5,000 members of the Marine Cooks and Stewards Union to a permanent scale of $45 a month for a ten-hour day or less is one of the reasons for the deadlock in West Coast maritime negotiations, the news service of the Maritime Federation of the Pacific Coast revealed today.

The cooks and stewards are voting with the other seamen and longshoremen this week to give the maritime unions' joint negotiations committee consent to call a strike any time after next Wednesday. The trustee under which the negotiations take place is a prolongation of the 1934 contract until next Monday.

Even the old contract is unfair to the cooks and stewards, the Maritime News Service points out in a plea for the eight-hour day and wages of at least $70 a month.

While they gave at least a hearing to demands of the other seamen's unions, the shipowners simply jeered at the demands of the stewards' department workers.

"MOST DISGRACEFUL CONDITIONS" And yet, the negotiations committee emphasized:

"The working conditions handed down by the arbitration board (that framed the 1934 contract) are no doubt the most disgraceful ever handed to any labor organization in America. Under this award cooks and stewards are compelled to work 70 hours a week, Sundays and holidays, at wages as low as 15 cents an hour."

Cooks' quarters are the worst on shipboard. Their food is bad. One company boasts that it fed its men on 33 cents a day, the committee found.

In addition to their regular work, which can be extended to 20 hours a day if the company wishes without any extra overtime, the cooks and stewards are usually also compelled to paint their quarters. They ask to be relieved of this additional labor.

Like the other maritime unions, the cooks and stewards are determined not to give up their union-controlled hiring hall.

Ship Engineers Choose MEBA For Bargaining

Board Recognizes Progressive Group on Four Vessels

The Marine Engineers Beneficial Association was recognized by the National Labor Relations Board yesterday as the representative in collective bargaining of the engineers on four ships of the Panama Railroad Company. The ships operate between New York, Haiti and the Canal Zone.

The men regard this as a victory for their right to choose their own union. The M.E.B.A. is a progressive organization, affiliated with the Maritime Federations of the Pacific and Gulf. The company threw its influence behind the claim of the United Licensed Officers, an organization much more conservative in its policies.

Evidence before a N.L.R.B. hearing in New York last week showed that nearly all the licensed engineers on the four ships belonged already to the Marine Engineers Beneficial Association.

Illinois Communists Denied Ballot Right

U. S. Appeals Court Rejects C. P. Petition To Restore Candidates to Ballot; Browder Rally to Hit Ban

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—An injunction to protect property? Yes!

An injunction to protect civil and political rights? NO! On the same grounds that a Terre Haute judge denied Earl Browder protection from a mob of vigilantes Tuesday, the United States Court of Civil Appeals today rejected the Communist Party petition for an order restoring the party's candidates to the ballot in Illinois.

Incensed by the decision based on the technically that an equity court could not issue the injunction asked by the Communist Party, members and sympathizers tonight redoubled their efforts for a record turnout at Chicago Stadium Nov. 2 when Browder, William Z. Foster, James W. Ford and Mother Ella Reeve Bloor will speak.

Many liberals and progressives, alarmed at the threat to civil liberties foreshadowed by this decision, prepared to join the Communist Party rally and turn it into a protest of nationwide significance.

The court's action, virtually depriving 30,000 Illinois citizens of their franchise rights, did not end the battle to get on the ballot. An appeal is pending in the U. S. Supreme Court and another test is awaiting decision in a special Federal Court convoked to rule on constitutionality of the Illinois election petition law which requires more signatures of a minority than of a majority party.

Labor Board Head Parleys Providence Woolen Mill Strike

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 23.—Howard Myers, investigator of the National Labor Relations Board, intervened in the strike of 350 workers here at the National-Providence mill of the American Woolen Co. yesterday.

He saw Horace Revere, vice-president, and Joseph Sylvia, organizer, of the United Textile Workers, and with the union heads today.

The Crown Worsted mills here is still tied up by a strike of its 200 employees, for demands similar to those made on the American Woolen Co.

Union Rallies for Prisoners

Scores Warden for Cruelty

AMHERSTDALE, W. Va., Oct. 23.—The warden of Moundsville state prison, the governor and the press were notified yesterday that the miners of this vicinity will not desert their fellow workers sentenced in a frameup growing out of strike activities, and demand that persecution of two union miners in jail shall cease immediately.

The action was taken by Local 5849 of the United Mine Workers, in behalf of Ernest E. Mullins and Charles H. Bock, serving life sentences on murder charges that resulted from a battle between mine strikers and armed company guards at Coalburg, W. Va., in 1933.

Chicago Relief Forced to Pay For a Burial

Alliance Group Wrings Admission Bureau Is Responsible

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 23.—The Chicago Relief Administration admitted its responsibility for burying relief clients for the first time yesterday when a committee of ten irate Illinois Workers Alliance members cornered Commissioner Leo M. Lyons and forced him to agree to bury Mrs. Julia Turner, who died Oct. 20.

Mrs. Turner was on relief when she died. The Woodlawn Relief Station refused the workers' demand to bury her. The workers went direct to Lyons, who tried to slip out of his office without seeing them. They collared him and made him agree to bury the 60-year-old woman.

Mrs. Turner was well known and highly respected in Chicago's South Side. She was the mother of Glenna Stannard, leader of the famous strike against the Sopkin dress manufacturing firm in 1932, and chairman of the shop committee formed after the strike was won.

PLAN TO SELL ALL TICKETS IN WEEK-END

Browder to Speak in Buffalo Thursday—Foster in Detroit

DETROIT, Oct. 23.—A weekend push on a larger scale than ever undertaken for a Communist drive, was launched today to guarantee that Olympia Arena will be filled to its 15,000 capacity for the Browder-Ford rally Tuesday night.

Flying squadrons headed to all sections of the city and to many outlying regions with the goal of disposing of all tickets for the big meeting at which, in addition to the Communist Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates, William Z. Foster and Waldo Frank will also speak.

Foster, chairman of the Communist Party National Campaign Committee, and thrice Presidential candidate, will make his first public appearance of the current campaign at the Olympia Arena meeting. Frank noted author, besides delivering an address, will prepare a first-hand report of the rally for the Daily Worker. He is now on his way to Tampa, Florida, where he will take part in a meeting at which Browder speaks on Sunday.

The arrangements committee for the meeting today issued an urgent appeal that final settlements for all tickets be made at 5969 14th St., on Sunday between 9 a. m. and 12 midnight.

William Weinstein, campaign manager, sent out a call for 600 ushers, who are asked to report at the Olympia Arena at 5 p. m. Tuesday.

A welcoming delegation is to meet the various speakers when they arrive in Detroit. Foster is coming here from New York. Ford, completing a nationwide tour, will turn Detroitward from Durham, N. C., where he is going to address a meeting on Sunday although the mayor there has refused a permit to let him speak.

Browder and Frank will travel here directly from the Tampa meeting.

Browder in Buffalo Thursday

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The Eagles' Auditorium at Pearl and Tupper Sts. has been definitely rented for a Browder-Ford rally next Thursday night at 8 o'clock, the Communist Party State Campaign Committee announced today.

Earl Browder, candidate for President, will be the main speaker.

121,457 Tenements Inspected in Year

Inspections by the Fire Department of dwelling and tenements from Nov. 1, 1935 up until Oct. 1, amounted to 121,457. Commissioner John J. McElligott said today.

I. Amter, Communist candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen has been campaigning for increase of city tenement inspection personnel to lower fire casualties.

Harlem Monday After Tour

WILL DISCUSS SITUATION AT HOSPITAL

Huge Ovations of Negro People Met Candidate on Three Trips

Renaissance Casino, 138th St. and Seventh Ave., Monday night at 8 o'clock.

At 6 o'clock, two hours earlier, a torchlight and automobile parade beginning at 120th St. and Lenox Ave., will carry the vice-presidential nominee through the center of Harlem, winding up at the Renaissance Casino.

LEADERS TO GREET HIM

Prominent Harlem leaders and organizations will be in the huge throng of people who will greet Ford at the railroad station.

In addition to Ford, other notable Communist candidates and leaders will address the meeting Monday evening. Among them are: "Fighting Bob" Minor, candidate for Governor; Julian Sawyer, Negro leader of Buffalo, N. Y., and candidate for Lieut.-Governor; and Angelo Herndon, All Peoples Party candidate for Assemblyman in the 21st Assembly District.

Ford has already wired ahead that he will discuss "the criminal situation in the Harlem hospital" Monday night. He will also reconstruct a word picture of his three national campaign tours during which he was barred from speaking in Springfield, Ill., the home of Abraham Lincoln, tear-gassed at a meeting in Toledo, Ohio, and threatened by the Ku Klux Klan in Allentown, Pennsylvania.

CANDIDATES TO SPEAK

Harlem Communist candidates, who will make brief addresses at the meeting are: A. W. Berry, Negro member of the Party's Central Committee and candidate for Assembly in the 13th A. D.; Cyril Philip, State senatorial candidate; and George Wastila, candidate for Assembly in the 20th A. D.

Despite the efforts of vigilante-type groups in various cities to balk Ford's campaign meetings, his tours have been marked with tremendous ovations from the Negro people and the labor movement as a whole.

Repeatedly Negro newspapers and other publications throughout the country have reflected the great receptions accorded Ford. When the Communist vice-presidential candidate spoke at the Coliseum in St. Louis, Mo., last night his meeting had been heralded by the city's three largest Negro newspapers, the St. Louis Argus, the St. Louis American, and the St. Louis Call.

"The St. Louis American of Oct. 16, said in part: "Considered by many to be the outstanding Negro leader since Frederick Douglass, Ford is internationally known and admired by millions, both Negro and white, for his uncompromising fight against Negro discrimination and other forms of reaction."

Mayor Backs Down On Threat Against Ford

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 23.—Jolted by a protest filed with the Federal Communications Commission by William Z. Foster, noted Communist leader, Mayor W. F. Carr said today that no attempt would be made to prevent James W. Ford from making a radio address here tomorrow.

Ford, an outstanding Negro leader, is Communist Vice-Presidential candidate. He will speak over Station WDNC, in Durham, at 2:30 P.M.

view was submitted more than a month ago. The demands which will be presented are: The establishment of a $40 a month minimum on WPA, a straight 20 per cent increase in all WPA wages now over $40 a month, abolition of regulations docking WPA workers for absences not due to any fault of their own, and the use of the $1,000,000,000 reserve fund left over from last year's relief appropriations for increased relief funds and to put more workers on WPA.

The delegates will gather in a body at 9:15 in the morning near the White House. They expect to meet with Harry Hopkins, Federal WPA Administrator, later in the day.

serted that "religion is not the issue in Spain and the church is freer under the Republic than she ever was under the monarchy, and very much more free than under a Franco Fascist regime where she would be subordinated to the State as in Germany and Italy."

With Father Sarasola on the tour is Marcelino Domingo, called by the Tablet a "Socialist." Senor Domingo, it is stated by Fred Hodgson, executive secretary of the committee sponsoring the tour, is leader of the Left Republican Party which, Hodgson said, is not even mildly Socialist.

"The Catholic press is trying to give this struggle in Spain a religious significance and this is entirely false," Father Sarasola said. "This war in Spain is an attempt to place the Spanish people in a position of slavery under Fascism as in Italy and Germany. The clearest proof that this war is not religious is the fact that Franco has to depend on infidel Moors from Morocco. Since when has the crescent become the champion of the cross?"

"The Catholic people of Spain are overwhelmingly on the side of the government," Father Sarasola said, "but particularly in my own Basque province where not even the bishops are united on the rebel side as the newspapers say."

Browder Urges Aid to Spain audience as he appealed to all American men and women to help the Spanish people with money for munitions, food, clothing and medical supplies.

DENONCES NAZIS

The American neutrality policy actually aids Spanish Fascists and thus indirectly lends support to the infamous Nazi and Fascist designs on Spain, the Communist standard bearer charged.

"What is taking place in Spain is not something which Americans can view as foreign and unimportant to us," he continued.

"Hearst and London raise the false issue of Communism in the United States elections, in the same way as the fascists raised that issue in Spain.

"We are justified in warning the American people that such propaganda here is also preparation to discredit the election results in November, and prepare an effort to change those results by undemocratic methods."

"They try to cover up the fascist invasion as a crusade for God, a crusade, mind you, by Mohammedan mercenaries who murder innocent Christian men and women," Browder said. "The truth is that the Spanish government was taking first steps towards separating church from state, an American tradition which is written in our constitution.

It is not true that the Catholic masses of Spain are supporting the fascist, the great majority of government supporters are Catholics."

Recalling the arrival of the Spanish People's Front delegation in the United States, and the Madison Square Garden meeting for them Monday night, Browder urged the listeners to give the delegates a "true American welcome."

"Just as Benjamin Franklin went to France to rally French people in support of American democracy," he continued, "so does Spanish democracy today send representatives to the American people, appealing for your support against fascist tyranny. We cannot fail these fighters for democracy. We must give them great support, so that they can go back to Spain and tell the Spanish people that America hates fascism and will not permit it to destroy a friendly democratic nation."

ASKS ARMS FOR SPAIN

"We who believe in progress must come out openly in support of the Spanish people."

"We must demand of our own government, whose so-called neutrality policy gives aid to the fascists and hampers the fight of the Spanish people, that it sell arms to this friendly democratic government of Spain which is fighting for its life."

"I appeal to working class leaders and parties in the United States, to trade unions, to progressives everywhere, to join us in united action to help save Spanish democracy. I appeal to the Socialist Party, as well as to the right-wing Socialists, to support the fight in Connecticut and elsewhere, to work out an independent program of action against the Spanish fascists."

"We must lift the unlawful blockade against the Spanish people and their democratic government. We must support the action of the Soviet Union in exposing the criminal actions of the fascist dictators. Men and women, old and young, Americans, no matter what are your political or religious beliefs, I appeal to all of you who believe in civilization and the further progress of humanity. I appeal to you to help the heroic Spanish men, women and children and their government, to collect all the money possible in your organizations and among your friends, to buy munitions, food and clothing for the defenders of Spanish democracy, who are laying down their lives so that democracy will not perish from the earth. Our call must be:

"The people for Spain—Spain for the people!"

Browder cited the "campaign of lies" which the reactionary allies of the Spanish fascists are carrying on throughout the world, and specifically cited Hearst as an example.

That publisher, Browder said, has "outdone his whole notorious past in fabricating untruths."

The speaker listed the central issues in Spain as follows: separation of church and state; elimination of the feudal aristocracy's stranglehold on the people; liberation of the peasants from semi-slave conditions; democratic rights for the people held in tyranny, superstition and illiteracy for centuries; the right to enjoy high living standards, collective bargaining.

And, he went on, just as in 1776 the American Tories used mercenaries against the American people so the Spanish fascists are using rebels; whilst the legitimate government of Spain has turned out to be in fact under a boycott and deprived of facilities for the purchase of arms outside Spain for the defense of the Spanish peoples.

"Thus, as a result of violations of the agreement, a privileged situation for the rebels has been created, which situation was in no case within the purpose of the agreement. As a result of this abnormal situation, there is a prolongation of the civil war in Spain and an increase in the numbers of its victims.

NOT ON AGENDA

"Efforts of the representative of the Soviet Government to put a stop to the practice of violating the agreement has not found support in the committee.

"The last proposal of the representative of the Soviet Union with regard to control over ports of Portugal which are the main base of supply for the rebels also did not find support and was not even placed on the agenda of today's meeting of the committee.

"Thus the agreement turned out to be an empty, torn scrap of paper. It has ceased in practice to exist.

ASK ARMS FOR SPAIN

"Not wishing to remain in the position of persons unwittingly assisting an unjust cause, the Government of the Soviet Union sees only one way out of the situation which has been created—to return to the Spanish Government the right and facilities to purchase arms outside Spain, which rights and facilities are enjoyed at present by the Governments of the world; to extend to participants in the agreement the right to sell or not to sell arms to Spain.

SUB-COMMITTEE TO MEET

"In any case, the Soviet Government, unwilling to bear any longer the responsibilities for the clearly unjust situation created with regard to the legitimate Spanish government and the Spanish people, is compelled now to declare that in accordance with its statement of Oct. 7, it cannot consider itself bound by the agreement for non-intervention to any greater extent than that of any of the remaining participants in the agreement.

"I would greatly appreciate it if you, Mr. Chairman, would communicate the contents of this letter to

Although outnumbered 3 to 1, the Canarias, 10,000 tons, accepted the challenge to a naval engagement because she carried 8-inch guns, while the Libertad, 7,650 tons, only has 6-inch guns.

The government warships surprised the Canarias with a swift running attack and bombarded her heavily until a shot from the Canarias struck the forepart of the Libertad squarely. The fascist ship was next hit and prepared to abandon the battle.

Two fascist planes came to her assistance and bombed the government ships, enabling the Canarias to reach Ceuta safely.

Meet New Drive In the North

MADRID, Oct. 23.—While fascist bombing planes rained death on the defenseless inhabitants of Madrid today, workers militia met a new fascist drive in the southeast with desperate resistance.

Four times during the day fascist planes circled over Madrid. Anti-aircraft and machine guns answered the raiders with an incessant roar from roof-tops and gun-emplacements while women and children ran shrieking to take cover.

The first fascist raiders flew high over the city dropping leaflets demanding "Surrender, or be bombed," while motorcycle units sped through the streets, sirens shrieking to warn the people to get into cellars.

You Never Heckle Wall Street Bankers, Mr. Mayor

When Will You Begin To Live Up to Claim You Are Progressive?

AN EDITORIAL

Scene: The budget hearing before the Board of Estimate Thursday.

Speaker: I. Amter, Communist candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen. Amter reads a prepared statement urging sharp decreases in the appropriations for the police department, and assailing police brutality in Harlem.

Interruption by Mayor LaGuardia: "Perhaps you would like a 'Russian system' in this country!"

Amter reads on. Interruption by Mayor LaGuardia: "Maybe you would like an OGPU here in place of our New York police force!"

And more in the same vein.

Mayor LaGuardia's explosion was a disgraceful exhibition. One would have thought from the hysterical attacks of the Mayor that Amter had come to seize the City Hall.

In the presence of a supposedly progressive Mayor the Communist candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen was making proposals to reduce the police force, increase social services for the people, and end police brutality in Harlem—progressive proposals, all of them.

And Mayor LaGuardia met him with fixed bayonets.

A few questions to the Mayor:

1. When a representative of the progressive forces of the city appears at a public hearing, why do you, who call yourself a progressive, greet him with abuse and vilification? You don't greet the bankers' representatives that way.
2. Why do you, who are even casting eyes in the direction of a Farmer-Labor Party, borrow a Red-baiting leaf from Hearst?
3. Why do you repeat the slander that the Communist Party provoked the Harlem "riot" of March 19, 1935, when the committee which you yourself appointed has publicly absolved the Communist Party and declared that the outbreak was the result of the intolerable conditions under which the Negro people in Harlem were living?
4. Isn't it time that you begin acting like the progressive you call yourself?

Proposal Made To Protect Utility Workers

Union Lays Plan Before Service Commission for Edison Employees

A four-point proposal, designed to protect the jobs of New York Edison and Consolidated Edison companies employees, has been laid before the Public Service Commission by the Utility Workers Union, Local 3752 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

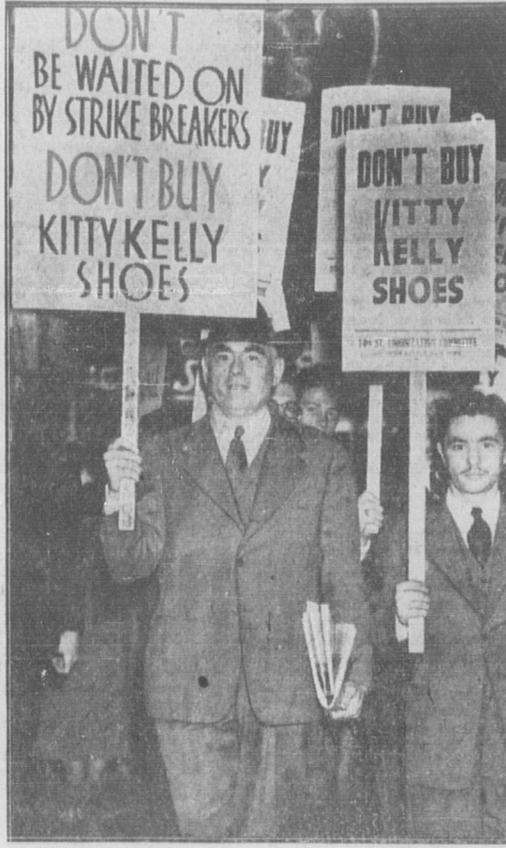

The proposal was contained in a formal statement presented Thursday to the Commission by Martin Wersing, union president, at one Commission's second hearing on the proposed merger of the two companies.

The statement denied the claim made by Floyd L. Carlisle, chairman of the Consolidated, that the pending mergers "will not produce unemployment or place any one on relief." Testimony was introduced by the union business agent, Albert Stouckus, proving that in the previous merger in 1933 between the United Electric Light and the New York Edison, 700 workers lost their jobs. The union also established the fact that some 1,450 permanent employees were dismissed when they were transferred to "temporary" positions, and that others were forced to resign, when they were transferred to jobs which demanded 60 to 70 hours a week.

Where Is Candidate Bleakley?

Minor Leads Picket Line Of Shoe Store Strikers

Robert Minor, Communist candidate for governor of New York, led a mass picket line in front of the Kitty Kelly shoe store on 14th Street and University Place Thursday night to demonstrate the solidarity of the Communist Party with all workers seeking to win higher wages and better working conditions.

Minor and a group of 40 pickets paraded in front of the store in their attempts to force the Kitty Kelly management to settle with their striking employees and end a 21-week walk-out.

The mass picket line was arranged at a meeting of union salesmen which heard an address by Minor. When union officials announced plans for a mass picket line the Communist candidate was among the first to volunteer.

The strikers—who labored 80 to 90 hours a week—are asking for a

Hundred of Employers Sign With Hairdressers Union—Fifty Squads of Painters to Picket Realty Bosses

Hundreds of employers in the Bronx and Brooklyn signed agreements with Hairdressers' Union, Locals 913-C and 560-B yesterday. But the strike is still on, spreading into Flatbush, Bay Ridge, Brighton Beach and Coney Island in Brooklyn and numerous Bronx areas today.

The Bronx strikers have been able to break the steel ring of the State Hairdressers Association, signing up a number of association employers, but the association is still putting up a stiff fight against the union. In Brooklyn, the employers association has already signified its willingness to deal with the union.

PAINTERS TO PICKET REALTY FIRMS

Fifty picket squads, consisting of from ten to 25 men, will picket major real estate offices, office buildings and apartment houses in Manhattan today, as part of the campaign to make the city "100 per cent union shop" for painters. Today's action is directed primarily against the Potter and Hamilton, William A. White, and Chanin Realty companies. All members of District Council 9 have been urged to report this morning for picket duty.

PORTERS BROTHERHOOD GAINS MEMBERS

The Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters has gained over 100 members in the three weeks of their organizational drive. For the next two weeks, the nightly meetings will continue at the union headquarters, 36 West 145th Street, Ashley L. Totten, international secretary-treasurer, is in charge of the campaign. The union reports that B. F. McLarin, international field organizer, has just returned from a trip to Buffalo and Albany.

KNITTING MILL SETTLES WITH UNION

The New York Knitting Mill, after making some phony accusations against the Joint Council of Knitgoods Workers at the recent Dodge "red herring" investigations, at its words and has settled with the union, granting union conditions. This closes the months-old strike. Two other knitting mills, which kept their doors closed since

Communists Warn of Anti-Union Drive Behind Racketeering Cry

Racketeering? The newspapers are full of it. At the present time, the newspapers, especially the Hearst press and the open shoppers, are utilizing the investigation by Special Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey to attack unions. The Communist Party of New York, in a thorough analysis, has answered the questions facing us. Who are the racketeers? Who breeds them? How can racketeering be weeded out?

The following statement answers the questions trade unionists in the city want to know:

The arrest and indictment of a number of officers of the Cafeteria and Restaurant Workers' Union in this city, along with a larger number of representatives of the bosses' association and their attorneys, on the charge of racketeering, raises the issue of the racketeers in the labor movement in the sharpest form, irrespective of the guilt or innocence of all or some of the labor leaders involved.

OPEN SHOP DRIVE

The acuteness of this issue is emphasized by the efforts of the open shoppers, the Chambers of Commerce, the Hearsts and the Liberty League forces, to use this incident to further their drive against trade unionism, for the breaking down of the hard-won conditions of the workers.

Already reports from workers indicate that the employers are not slow to take advantage of this situation and are beginning to make plans for destroying some of the gains recently made by the union. Through the spread of all sorts of rumors, they are trying to demoralize the workers, weaken their bond with the union.

MUST BE ON GUARD

The workers of the catering industry must be on guard now. The first and most important thing is to defeat any and every attempt on the part of the bosses to utilize this situation to weaken the union and rob the workers of their gains. At the same time they must themselves take steps to get at the truth of the matter and to bring to light the actual facts. When the truth is established, the workers must take proper steps to protect those who may be found to be innocently accused, but they must also root out of their organization once and for all any and all who have a share in the corruption that has been brought into their union by the employers, their allies or agents.

The position of the Communist Party and of all true progressive elements in the labor movement has always been one of relentless struggle against racketeering in the labor movement. But the only really effective means to root out this evil is through the vigilance of the labor movement itself, and particularly the action of the rank and file. Where the workers enjoy full trade union democracy, make all decisions, and control their elected officials, neither racketeering nor dishonesty can gain a foothold. Denial of the democratic rights of the membership, on the other hand, inevitably leads to the alliance of corrupt officials with underworld elements, first to thwart the will of the membership, and then as an end in itself—the emoluments of racketeering as a business.

The experiences of the painters and the furriers in New York City have proved that in unions ruled by the workers there is no room for racketeers.

It is to be regretted that the leadership of the American Federation of Labor, which has been made aware of such practices in the union and has time and again been called upon to help remedy this situation, has not given serious enough attention to this matter, nor in any way encourages the struggle of the rank and file against racketeering. Even after a special committee was elected at the San Francisco convention to investigate these matters, little was done to assist the rank and file in their struggle to establish clean and honest union leadership. The neglect of the labor movement to root out these elements who are brought in by the employers to prey on the workers has made it possible for capitalist politicians to step in as the "saviors" or would-be saviors of the workers. This very matter of alleged racketeering in Locals 16 and 302 was brought to the attention of the highest labor authority in the industry, the International Convention of 1934, and that convention expressly instructed President Fiore to investigate the subject. But instead of himself investigating the subject, punishing the guilty and cleaning up the union, if punishment and cleaning were necessary, President Fiore let the matter sleep for two years, thereby giving a chance to Mr. Dewey to come forward as the "savior" of clean unionism, to the great profit of the political and economic enemies of labor, the Hearsts and the bosses.

COMMUNISTS SUPPORT UNION

The Communist Party and its membership have been in the front ranks in leading the struggle against racketeering elements in the trade unions.

In the present situation in the cafeteria unions the Communist Party will support the union in every effort to establish the real facts of the case, to rid the union of those who, upon investigation satisfactory to the union and its membership, have been proven guilty of racketeering. But at the same time we must warn the union not to allow the bosses to utilize the situation in order to victimize honest union leaders.

It is our opinion that in the present situation labor should not sit back and wait for a verdict of the court, but should itself take steps to clear up the situation and to prevent the enemies of labor from utilizing these indictments to weaken the cafeteria unions, or to discredit and besmirch labor in general.

We call upon the membership of the cafeteria unions to stand solidly united and not to allow this situation in any way to weaken or demoralize their ranks, but to continue the splendid organizational work carried on recently in unionizing the chain cafeterias and securing improved conditions for the much-exploited and oppressed workers in the cafeteria industry.

Stench Bomb Thrown Into Union Meeting

Building Service Union Workers Forced Out of Labor Temple

For the third time within a month a stench bomb was used to break up a meeting of the progressive members of Local 32-B, Building Service Workers Union.

The meeting, scheduled to take place Wednesday night at the Labor temple on East 84th Street, was broken up when an unknown person or group threw a stench bomb into Room 8 of the Labor Temple, forcing everyone out of the hall, progressives charged yesterday.

Twice before, at 458 West 44th Street, the same action was taken to stop progressive members from their way to the meeting from work crowded the street.

The attack follows the suspension of Carl Offord, progressive leader, by the officially appointed "trial" committee of the union leadership. Offord was suspended after he was charged with posing as a locked out worker. He was originally charged with non-payment of dues. This was withdrawn and a charge of conducting an illegal strike substituted. Finally the trial committee hit on the final charge.

While the Brooklyn Consolidated Restaurants plan to break the union by starving the men, the locked out workers are putting up a stiff fight to get relief.

MATZOS FIRM STRIKE IN SIXTH WEEK

The strike against the Wisnietzky Products Company, largest distributors of Maneshevitz Matzos and Noodles, is now in its sixth week. The Wholesale Grocery Salesmen's Union charges the firm with hiring strikebreakers. Harry Rosenzweig, union secretary, and striker Harry Cohen, were arrested on complaint of the owner, but later released when the boss couldn't prove his case. The Matzos Bakers, Local 97 and the Grocery Clerks, Local 338 are backing the strike. Picket lines are maintained constantly at the warehouses.

How Many Negro Recruits?

The campaign of James W. Ford as Communist candidate for Vice-President is a living symbol of the role of the Communist Party as the foremost champion of Negro rights.

Is this being brought home to the Negro masses of the country? Are the Communist Party members capitalizing on Ford's splendid campaign in the form of thousands of new Negro recruits to the Party?

Only 10 DAYS UNTIL ELECTION DAY.
How many Negro workers will YOUR district, YOUR section, YOUR branch or unit bring into the Communist Party during the next ten days?

The Soviet Union Points

The Way on Spain

From the Soviet Union has come the most powerful and resounding demand on behalf of Spanish democracy.

"The government of the Soviet Union sees the only way out of the situation which has been created—to return to the Spanish government the right and facilities to purchase arms outside Spain, which rights and facilities are enjoyed at present by the governments of the world," says the latest note of the U.S.S.R.

Yesterday, Ivan Maisky, Soviet Ambassador to London, at the meeting of the non-intervention committee denounced the so-called "neutrality" pact, which scrap of paper has most shamefully given the fascists the greatest military advantage in their murderous war against the legal, constitutional, elected and recognized government of Spain.

Mighty as is this step by the Soviet Union it can gain its greatest effect only if the workers and anti-fascists of the whole world now get into action.

The blockade against Spain must be broken. It can be broken. The workers and anti-fascists of England and France can, if the proper steps are taken, force their governments to comply with international law and justice and immediately supply Spain with the arms she needs to defend herself against the most criminal assault of Hitler and Mussolini, masked by the fascist hordes of General Franco.

On the very day Ambassador Maisky denounced the non-intervention farce the capitalist press of the world reported the most sensational news of arms shipments from Germany and Italy to Spain.

The most astounding fact of all is that Portugal, a virtual British puppet, has been the main gateway of all arms shipments to the Spanish fascists.

Drastically the Soviet Union has opened the way for positive action in behalf of Spain. The opportunity must not be lost by friends of Spain and enemies of fascism and war everywhere.

Let us here act quickly. Demand Spain be given its right to have arms shipped from this country. Demand arms to the fascists be stopped.

Rush funds to Spain now! There is no time to lose!

They 'Protest' Terre Haute By Attacking Soviet Union

The Jewish Daily Forward, organ of the right-wing Socialists, has finally broken its long editorial silence concerning the events in Terre Haute.

The press of the entire country of all political shades, with the notable exception of the Hearst newspapers, has protested the violent suppression of civil liberties in Terre Haute on the two occasions when Earl Browder, Communist candidate for President, sought to speak there.

Now the Forward also throws in its two cents of "protest." It "protests" a la Hearst: by shifting the attack from the tinpot Hitlers of Terre Haute to the Soviet government.

An editorial in Thursday's issue makes light of the Terre Haute events and asks: Why doesn't Browder fight for civil liberties in the Soviet Union?

The Forward, of course, is merely echoing fascist propaganda. It is well known that the working masses of the Soviet Union enjoy complete freedom of speech, press, radio and assembly such as exists in no other country. In what other country is the right to work guaranteed to every citizen as it is guaranteed in the new Soviet Constitution?

What the Forward really wants is a free hand for the Russian counterparts of Chief Yates and the fascist "Law and Order Leagues"—a free hand for those who would do in the Soviet Union what the fascist rebels are doing in Spain?

Let us remind the gentlemen of the Forward that it was they who in an editorial on Sept. 8 rushed to the defense of fascist Germany, Italy and Portugal with the statement that "not one of these governments [those that signed the neutrality pact] has as yet broken the agreement."

In the same editorial the Forward characterized the demand of the French Communist Party for the lifting of the blockade against the legitimate Spanish government as "provocation."

The Forward's "protest" against the Terre Haute outrages is of the same character as its "support" of Spanish democracy.

George Harvey Tramples On the Bill of Rights

Borough President of Queens, the notorious George U. Harvey, would like to tear the names of Communist candidates off the ballot in the State of New York, even if by ripping away this ticket he tore the American Constitution into shreds at the same time.

Harvey's hatred of the Communists, fed at the founts of Hearst and Hitler, knows no bounds. But one would be wrong who thought this reactionary's deeds were exclusively directed against the Communist Party. The Communist Party is the bull's eye on the target of democracy at which the fascist-minded Harveys of this country are aiming.

In signing his petition to Attorney-General John J. Bennett, Jr., urging the Communist ticket be stricken from the ballot, the odious Harvey attached his titles. But he left out the most revealing. He did not add to the fact that he is a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States Army that he also joined the Ku Klux Klan.

Harvey's desire to trample on the constitutional rights of the Communist Party is of a piece with the Nassau Republican Party demand that no labor party be allowed to organize in the United States.

When Harvey banned the Communists from a Queens meeting, the Nassau Republicans refused a permit to the American Labor Party in Mineola, on the ground it was "Communistic."

If by any stretch of the imagination or manipulation, Harvey is able ever to throw the Communist Party off the ballot, then fascist slavery would be on the wing for the American people.

The Harveys, advance fascist agents of the Republican-Hearst-Liberty League-crowd, must be given their answer early and in the most positive terms by all labor and progressive forces.

Seattle Strike 'Settlement' Plan Is Surrender to Hearst

The Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor has proposed a "settlement" of the Newspaper Guild strike against Hearst's Seattle Post-Intelligencer which must shock workers and progressive people throughout the country.

Overruling the objections of its own affiliate, the Newspaper Guild, the Council has proposed that all strikers return to work with the exception of Philip E. Armstrong and Frank M. Lynch, the two men whose dismissal for union activity precipitated the strike. Negotiations, under this plan, would be continued, with President William Green and Harvey J. Kelly, Hearst's union-busting "labor" attorney, acting as arbiters.

This is a strikebreaking plan. It means a surrender to labor's worst enemy, William Randolph Hearst, who has used the Seattle situation in an effort to incite fascist violence and the overthrow of constitutional authority.

The entire Seattle labor movement, led by the Central Labor Union, is behind this strike. The mayor of the city, John F. Dore, has refused to be intimidated by Hearst's threats and has sided with the strikers. William Green's own personal representative, as well as the hearings before the National Labor Relations Board, clearly fixed the responsibility of the Hearst management in trying to deny its employees the right to organize.

On what grounds, then, does the Executive Council propose a settlement which rejects the judgment of the labor movement and government bodies, and accepts as its basis the right of Hearst to fire men for union activity?

'The People' Greet Landon

"This [endorsing Landon] is Henry Ford's latest hunch, and may all his guardian angels protect the man who bets against a Ford hunch!"

—N. Y. Herald Tribune, Oct. 15.

P.S.—In 1932 Ford supported Hoover.

"Also among those who boarded the Landon train along the way, and with whom the Governor talked, were: J. P. McEvoy, general counsel for General Motors Corporation; C. E. Wilson, vice-president, General Motors Corporation; K. T. Kellea, president of the Chrysler Corporation; Fred Zeeder, vice-chairman, Chrysler Corporation; B. E. Hutchinson, chairman finance committee of the Chrysler Corporation; and Clyde Ford, Mayor of Dearborn, a relative of Henry Ford."

World Front

By HARRY GANNES

Hitler has learned that if a man makes the most effective Fascist dictatorship his ilk of every national stripe will make a beaten path to his door.

The latest pilgrim turns out to be the little-known Leon Degrelle, Belgian fuhrer of the arm-thrusting Fascist gang known as Rexists.

When Leopold, King of the Belgians, recently broadcast his pro-Nazi foreign policy, that was an invitation to the Belgian disciples of Hitler to do their stuff on home territory. It turns out now that just two weeks before Leopold read his speech, made in Rome and edited in Berlin, Leon Degrelle visited Hitler to get instructions. Degrelle consulted Hitler in Berlin on Sept. 29, the Socialist Party of Belgium charges.

The upshot of this visit is the threat of a "march on Brussels" by Degrelle's Rexists, reinforced by the Flemish nationalists.

Socialist Minister Spaak, doing a neat balancing act, initiated the "prohibition" of the demonstration which his policy encouraged. But the Fascists have a way out of the formal "prohibition." They will meet on Count de Grunne's private estate and see whether the King Leopold-Van Zeeland-Spaak combination have sufficiently prepared the ground for a successful Fascist march on Brussels.

Whoever adopts Hitler's foreign policy, it is now axiomatic, invites the overt actions of his agents on their own soil.

When Spaak, the Socialist, underwrote the King's pro-Fascist policy, he should have known how Hitler takes those things.

The Wall Street adviser, the Whaley-Eaton Service, in its latest foreign letter, estimates the Belgian diplomatic maneuvers as follows:

"The Belgian move is diagnosed as essentially anti-Communist and as supporting the German thesis that the Franco-Russian Pact endangers the existing frame-work of Western Europe and makes a Locarno Agreement impossible. Influential Belgian Catholics have swung to support of the Rex party's program which is essentially pro-German."

The German Nazis were the original organizers of the Rexist movement of Belgium. Even today, the main power behind Degrelle is one Serge Doring, a Nazi, who directs the foreign political service of the Rex and is manager of the Infor-Rex news agency.

Not so long ago one whole number of the Rexist organ, "Solrees," was devoted to unbridled praise of Hitlerism. Degrelle knew before March 7 that Hitler was going to march into the Rhineland. He was tipped off beforehand, also, about the recent declaration of King Leopold. Most of Degrelle's information comes through the Nazi Doring.

Doring, like most of Hitler's foreign agents, is a mysterious fellow. He calls himself a Frenchman who has lived most of his life in Germany, but he happens to speak perfect Russian and associates with White Russian emigres.

The Rexists use the Hitler-Mussolini salute. They greet each other with the German expression: "Heil!"

Since the pronouncement of King Leopold, the Rexists have become provocatively bolder. Though still a small organization, they speak threateningly of "seizing power," "marching on Brussels." Such daring can come only from the fact that they have been promised serious support in high places, in the king's retinue, among the commanding officers of the army, from certain naval officers, and even from high officials in the van Zeeland government.

Recently, Degrelle was turned back at the French border while on his way to confer with de la Rocque, French Hitler. From the bloodthirsty tone of Degrelle it seems probable now that there is some sort of an agreement between the French Fascists and the Belgian Rexists and Flemish Nationalists, that in the event of a Fascist coup against the French People's Front similar action will be taken in Belgium.

The Rexists have been particularly elated by recent events such as the Leopold pro-Nazi declaration and the Spanish Fascist advance on Madrid.

The Communist Party of Belgium has been mobilizing the Belgian anti-Fascists against the Rexist threat with the greatest vigor. The Belgian Socialist Party officialdom has balked the proposal for a Belgian People's Front, the Socialist ministers contenting themselves with joining the van Zeeland cabinet which prepared the ground for the Leopold foreign policy declaration and the invitation to the Rexists to intensify their provocations.

A turn seems evident in the Belgian labor movement now. The threatening split among the Socialist ministers is aggravated by the demand of the rank and file for action against the Rexists.

The newly established Communist daily, "La Voix du Peuple" (The Voice of the People), is making great headway in its campaign for a Belgian People's Front against the Fascist threat.

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS

QUESTION: What "economic royalists" are supporting Landon? S. L.

ANSWER: The greatest concentration of monopoly interests in American history is supporting Landon and Knox for election in this campaign. It is also true that a number of "economic royalists" are supporting Roosevelt, such as A. P. Giannini, Walter Teagle, Owen D. Young and others. But the bulk of the monopoly interests, closely organized around the American Liberty League, is rooting for Landon and Knox.

Heading the list of Landon supporters are the duPont dynasty, Henry Ford, Pierpont Morgan, William Randolph Hearst, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Andrew W. Mellon, Alfred P. Sloan and Ernest T. Weir. Landon's chief monetary advisers have been reported to be Ogden L. Mills, Eugene Meyer, Benjamin Anderson and Winthrop W. Aldrich.

Other big business men in back of Landon are John J. Raskob, who supported Smith in 1928 and a close duPont associate, A. Atwater Kent, Bernarr Macfadden, Frederick M. Warburg, George F. Baker, Harold S. Vanderbilt, Joseph E. Widener and Alfred E. Smith.

The pro-Roosevelt financiers belong in general to the anti-Morgan group. The dominant monopoly interests are behind Landon.

Hutcheson's Record Shows Him as Ideal of the Liberty League Gang

By CECIL W. FRANCIS

In this day and age when labor throughout the world is locked in a life and death struggle with the organized forces of reaction, it is astounding to find two American "labor leaders," William L. Hutcheson and John Coe, ardently campaigning for Hearst's mouthpiece, Alfred M. Landon, who openly espouses the cause of the open shop. But when one examines their records, one is not surprised that these men are Republicans, but that they are the heads of two great labor organizations.

If anything, William L. Hutcheson, president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America and chairman of the Labor Division of the Republican National Committee, is no less reactionary than the Republican presidential candidate. Hutcheson runs his own union along Fascist lines and probably would prefer a fascist form of government for the United States. Indeed, he has already gone on record as favoring government-sponsored red-baiting. During the so-called "red scare" of 1919, a resolution was proposed at a conference called by the Executive Council of the A. F. of L. condemning the government's brutal tactics. Hutcheson at once protested and proclaimed that there was enough I.W.W.ism in the labor movement, and that he, as an American citizen, would not go on record as saying the government agencies were autocratic and oppressive.

THE 1916 STRIKE

There is no democracy in the United Brotherhood of Carpenters. From the day he took office, Hutcheson made it known he was going to run things to suit himself. In 1916, shortly after Hutcheson was elected president, 18,000 union carpenters in New York City went out on strike. Hutcheson demanded that the strike be held off. When the locals refused to comply with his command, he and Brindell entered into a secret agreement with the Masters Carpenters' Association providing that the men continue at the old rates, with increases to go into effect several months later.

But the New York carpenters rebelled against being betrayed by their president. On a referendum they rejected the agreement by a vote of 12,000 to 104. Hutcheson's interference was termed "a betrayal of the interests of the carpenters of New York and a violation of the principles of the labor movement" by the New York State Council of Carpenters.

Like all dictators, Hutcheson would not tolerate any challenge to his absolute power. He summarily expelled the 63 locals to which they belonged for having the audacity to defy his dictates. In ordering the reinstatement of these men and their locals, Judge Mullin ruled that "local unions cannot be suspended from a national labor union without charges or a trial."

Hutcheson's despotism has been the subject for frequent censure. In 1926 the court stated in the case of Feldman vs. Goldeberg: "Although the United Brotherhood of Carpenters has an elaborate constitution and by-laws with ample safeguards for the members, those laws were observed by the defendants only in so far as their purposes might be furthered by such observance. When a constitutional limitation stood in the way of the defendants it was brushed aside without hesitation. This was true of the general president of the Brotherhood down to the least significant of the district council officers. This is not the first offense of this nature of which the officials of this union have been guilty."

Hutcheson was employing "Der Fuehrer principles" long before Adolph Hitler ever heard of it. This, of course, is the same Hutcheson who demanded the expulsion of the C.I.O. to vindicate majority rule in the A. F. of L.

Robert P. Brindell, the most notorious labor racketeer of all time, was Hutcheson's particular pal. Brindell's union was the only one to support the secret agreement made with the employers in 1916. For Brindell labor unions were only a means for personal enrichment, and he managed to extort more than a million dollars from the workers and employers of New York in less than a year. He formed dual unions, promoted monopolies, and sold vast quantities of "strike insurance."

When Brindell was convicted of his crimes in 1921 and sent to Sing Sing, Samuel Untermyer, who prosecuted him, wired the Denver convention of the A. F. of L. that "the federation will also be exceptionally fortunate if the carpenters' union can rid itself of Brindell's crony, Hutcheson, who is an evil influence."

Hutcheson is wise enough not to give the carpenters any opportunity to voice their disapproval of his regime. A convention has not been held for eight years, although one is scheduled for this Fall. If the convention actually materializes, it will as usual be packed with Hutcheson's hand-picked delegates.

COEFIELD'S TIES

John Coe, president of the Plumbers' Union and chairman of the Eastern Labor Division of the Republican National Committee, received his training in Fascist tactics as assistant to "Pin Head" McCarthy when the latter ruled the San Francisco building trades. Coe, who is vice-president and business agent of McCarthy's odiferous council.

During the reign of McCarthy and Coe, the San Francisco Building Trades Council had a reputation for helping itself to its affiliated unions' funds. The council's government was just as despotic as that of the carpenters. Disenters were driven into line by strong-arm tactics. More delegates were granted to favored unions than they were entitled to, and ballot boxes were stuffed in local elections. If workers didn't go along with the administration or became too curious about the use of the council's funds, the business agents, of whom Coe was one, wouldn't get them any jobs. One had to be a McCarthy and Coe man, or starve.

Enemy of the C.I.O. and everything progressive in the labor movement, Hutcheson would be Hearst's beau-ideal of a Secretary of Labor. It is already rumored that he is slated for the job if Landon is elected. Coe would make an able assistant. William L. Hutcheson and William Randolph Hearst have more in common than their first names.

'Chiselers, With a Capital C'

Editor, Daily Worker:

New York, N. Y.

In nearly every newspaper in New York City, we have heard much talk of relief "chiselers," "bums," "drones" and all sorts of vulgar names applied to the unemployed of our city. But you haven't heard or read one line of the real chiselers with a capital C, the Realty Corporations. These chiselers are not satisfied with the harvest they are reaping from the city for their old, dilapidated fire-trap buildings, condemned in so-called prosperous days. They employ janitors to take care of these houses, without pay, with the use of three or four rooms—relying on the city to feed and clothe them and their families. Being successful in this first attempt, they are continuing their chiseling on the better type homes, with all modern improvements. These superintendents are also on relief.

Why don't relief officials force these chiselers to pay a living wage to their janitors and superintendents. H. W.

Where Your House Is Also Your Home

Housing Problems Are Being Solved Democratically in the Soviet Union, Reports the Director of U. S. National Public Housing Conference

By Irma White
Housing is one of the best means for accomplishing social education, Helen Alfred believes.

This energetic woman, secretary and director of the National Public Housing Conference, quit settlement work to devote her energies to the housing problems.

Your Health

Psychiatry For the Sane

N. M. WILMINGTON, writes: "My husband is subject to depressed periods. He happens about every two months. He says they have nothing to do with me and he does not like to discuss the matter for fear it will worry me. Lately he has expressed a wish to consult a psychiatrist. I must admit that this alarmed me. From our conversation, I draw certain conclusions: 1) He has definitely with his job because of superiors who try to keep him from getting ahead. This makes him lose confidence and results in errors and lack of concentration; 2) He is very quiet by nature and admits to selfishness which he says he cannot conquer. Please advise me how I can help him."

Cooperative Apartments

Miss Alfred smoothed her black hair. She continued, "They're managing it democratically there too. I hope we obtain as much. You see, the apartment houses are cooperatives. The tenants elect their own management. It's so exciting to visit buildings in the Soviet Union. We went into an apartment house of the old type, and we asked the workers how they liked it. They answered, Oh, we're going to live in the building across the street as soon as it is finished. "The Soviet Union is the land of hope."

"But, I don't want to go back to Germany. It is the land of fear and despair. They've departed from the housing program they had before Hitler came in. And the fear complex there, I don't want to go back to Germany."

Shocking Menace To Health

Then, turning to the United States, Miss Alfred said, "Conditions are as bad here as any place in the world in some places. We have whole areas that are a shocking menace to health and life itself. Cleanliness is the only answer. These buildings must be torn down. "And it isn't true that New York has the worst conditions in the country. In some southern cities, and the homes of the sharecroppers you find crowding, dirt, leaky houses, one supply of water for 25 families."

"These areas are a cost to the whole community with their high fire, tuberculosis and delinquency rates. One-third of our American population today lives in homes that are a menace to health and safety."

"Housing is an excellent way to make people become aware of social problems, for they come in contact and study the land question. The difficulties of acquiring land at low prices make low rents impossible. The student comes in contact with the banks. I believe we have made persons think. When you talk of home, they know the value of it."

Short Cuts

To crisp crackers and dry cereals, spread them in shallow pans and let them dry in a moderate oven for five to ten minutes. Then conclude put them back into their boxes or tins until they have cooled.

A good cheese mixture to use for stuffing celery is Camembert and cream cheese used half and half. This mixture spread on crackers goes well with soup.

BOOKS of the DAY

(Resolutions of the Ninth Convention of the Communist Party, Workers Library Publishers, 64 pp., price 10 cents.)

READING the newly-published Resolutions of the Ninth Convention of the Communist Party, one is impressed by the brilliant precision and correctness with which the powers of evaluation of scientific Marxist theory are applied to political events and changes of world significance. It is not enough that the resolution declares "that the analysis of the world situation given by the Seventh World Congress of the Communist International has proven correct." It goes on to show how and why this analysis is correct. It proves conclusively that the alignment of class forces and the tasks of the world labor movement "continue to be determined by changes which arise from the general crisis of capitalism, the victory of socialism in the Soviet Union, the advance of capitalist reaction and fascism, political crisis in several countries, and the Leftward development of the toiling masses in all imperialist and colonial countries."

But what is most impressive is the absolute correctness of the Communist appraisal of the situation and the course of development of the class struggle in the United States, an analysis which has been confirmed even in the few months which have elapsed since the Ninth Convention took place. How capitalist reaction is advancing under the mask of democracy and "preservation of the Constitution"; how the prolonged depression has brought incalculable suffering and impoverishment to the American masses, which the Republican-Liberty League-Hea r st combination is seeking to perpetuate and to make even worse; how American capitalism is emerging slowly in increasing capitalist exploitation by increasing profits without any increase in real wages; how American capitalism is emerging slowly from the economic crisis although it has not yet overcome the special kind of a depression because of the general crisis in the capitalist system; how the American masses, under the impact of seven years of the crisis, and deeply impressed by the victories of socialism in the Soviet Union, are looking for a new way out of the crisis, and how in the absence of a strong, independent political party of their own, they are being misled into various Utopian, reformist and even reactionary channels; all these facts are not merely stated, but each is elaborately and convincingly explained.

There are three resolutions in the pamphlet. The first, based on the report of Earl Browder, is entitled "The Struggle Against Reaction, Fascism and War." It discusses the offensive of reaction and the policy of the working class, the united front and trade union unity, the Farmer-Labor Party, the Communist policies in the National elections, and the question of building and strengthening the Communist Party.

The second portion of the pamphlet presents the resolution on the report of Robert Minor, "The Struggle for Peace." It gives a broad, comprehensive picture of the war danger arising from the international situation as it exists today, exposing the fascist instigators of war and pointing out where the chief sources of the war danger lie. It shows the necessity for an American peace policy which will help prevent war and effectively check the war mongers.

"Building a Mass Party" is the resolution on organization, in which the form and structure of the Party organizations, the shop units, the new industrial units and branches are discussed in great detail. The resolution also takes up the important questions of the composition of the Party membership, dues, education, the work in the trade unions and mass organizations. It

For a clear grasp of the world situation, for an understanding of the underlying changes and realignments of the class forces, and of the difficult and complicated tasks which face the working class in the struggle against reaction and war, these resolutions must be read.

The Women's Angle

By Ethel Bloomington

When Cora was fourteen, an accident happened. A fire broke out in the tenement in which she lived. Unfortunately the Housing Inspectors hadn't gotten around to checking up on the fire-escape which served the five-story building. Cora was taken out of the building, but not until the smoke and fire had done something to her young strong eyes.

For two years the girl remained at home. She stumbled about the little flat, learning to trust her hands and feet, learning to see through everything but her damaged eyes. Cora's father runs a little grocery store. Times had been very slow, and there had been scarcely enough to take care of the family of seven. But after watching Cora grow sad and morbid after two years of isolation in the crowded flat, her parents decided to send her on to school.

Qualified to Teach—But Where?

Cora was twenty-three when she graduated from Hunter College in New York in the spring of 1932. For seven years her parents had worked morning and night to give this girl who lacked eye-sight an opportunity to compete with other girls more fortunate than herself. Cora had learned the Braille system of reading for the blind, but she had learned much more. She had been awarded a degree and had been told she had the necessary qualifications to teach in the high schools.

Armed with her degree and her qualifications, Cora went back to the little flat and her isolation. She had graduated college, she had been trained in a profession, but she was back where she had been almost eight years ago. There just were no jobs.

Feeling that she was unwanted because she was blind, feeling that at no time would there be work for her, she became more and more isolated. She walked around the house in a daze, mumbling about suicides, hinting darkly at drastic measures which she would take if something didn't happen soon. Her parents were heartbroken. Business was terrible. They had to labor 15 hours each day in the tiny store to eke out a bare existence. And they saw no relief in sight for their daughter.

Socially Useful Work for Women

Two weeks ago I happened to wander into one of the big city armories where an exhibition of work held by the Workers' and Professional WPA projects. There were many colorful booths all over the floor and demonstrations were going on all the time of the work done by the Works Projects women artists, actors, writers, teachers, nurses, clerks, social service and welfare workers.

One booth was particularly interesting. It showed the work being done by the workers on the New York Public Library project in the field of Braille translation. Many educated and skilled blind men and women were used to translate the best of the world's literature into a form that other blind people could read.

Chattering at the booth, smiling, cheerful, neatly dressed, was Cora. She was answering the questions of all comers, and explaining the work to them. There was a note of self-possession and confidence in her voice that told of independence and social usefulness.

I spoke to her. We shook hands, pleased to see one another after two years. She was like another girl. Alert, direct, quietly sure of herself, it was as if she had gotten a new hold on life.

When I wandered away from Cora's booth it was with the feeling that here, in one case, the WPA with its small weekly salary of $23.86, had given meaning to a human being. If the Republicans want to call it boondoggling, let them. Here was genuinely useful work, useful to the worker, and of infinite use to the community.

Litany in the Late Style Of the Erstwhile Mr. Nathan

Reviving an Ancient Custom Which Has Languished Since the Crisis Grew Critical and the Critic Less So

By Charles E. Dexter

THIS IS THE TIME of year when, in other years, George Jean Nathan went into a blue funk and came out with a set of aphorisms about the theatre. He would compose litanies about leading ladies and epigrams about playwrights. It was all very smart and pleasant.

But, like the Literary Digest, which has not changed its methods of straw voting since before the depression, G. J. N. cannot change his. He and his old association, Henry L. Mencken of Baltimore, are securely in the camp of reaction. A tragedy, this, for like the snows of yesterday, yesterday's quips are but memories—and who wants to live among the dead?

Nevertheless, the technic of the late and lamented hero of yesterday's youth, the quondam critic and inextant Mr. Nathan, has its uses. So with due credit to one who sells to Hearst and whose compeer will vote for Landon, here goes:

FROM PLAYS about British maniacs who resemble Dr. Grippen and who kill aged ladies with pillow now ten minutes after the third act begins, from stars with fog-horn voices acquired by dancing in the nude on Sunset Boulevard just before dawn, from plays by George Kelly, which Mr. Kelly should be ashamed to have written, from plays in which comedy characters are over six feet tall and the character comedian is five feet one inch, from plays written around a dirty joke, from plays in which dirty jokes get the biggest laughs, from operettas in which the chorus of eighty-four comes out in knee breeches carrying cabbages, hams, prop gasses, silver platters, bibles, plates, hat boxes and pretzels, from Tyrolean chorus men who slap each other, from prop horses, snakes, snails and dingleberries of all kinds. . . .

From leading ladies who lip and actors who forget their lines, from producers who used to be scenic designers and whose plays should never have come out of the scenic studio, from plays about workers by playwrights who have never worked, from plays in which Grand Duchesses love to wash floors, from

Stravinsky Writes Special Ballet

American Ballet to Perform Specially Composed Music This Spring

Igor Stravinsky, the father of modern ballet music, has accepted a commission to write a new ballet score for the American Ballet. The work is now in preparation and will probably have its premiere in New York in the Spring. The American Ballet hopes to be able to present a program of three of Mr. Stravinsky's compositions at that time, and that he will be at hand to conduct the works himself.

George Balanchine is in charge of the choreography, assisted by William Dollar. The dancers will be chosen from those appearing with the Metropolitan Opera this season, augmented by dancers from the school of the American Ballet.

With this proposed Stravinsky evening, the American Ballet intends to inaugurate a policy of performing each year a specially commissioned work of some outstanding composer, as well as revive classical masterpieces. Such performances will be included in an independent appearance after completion of their work with the Metropolitan.

'Big Broadcast' Proves It's An Imperfect World

Paramount Offers a Musical That Violates Worst Traditions of Light Entertainment and Gets Good Results Thereby

THE BIG BROADCAST OF 1937, based on a story by Erwin Gelsey, Arthur Kober and Barry Trivers; screen play by Walter DeLeon and Francis Martin; directed by Mitchell Leisen; produced by Lewis E. Gensler for Paramount. At the Paramount.

Jack Carson Mr. and Mrs. Platt, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Bob Black, Patsy Owen Holmes, Jack Benny, Frank Rossman, Bob Miller, Frank Forest, Benny Fields, Himself, Also Leopold Stokowski and a symphony orchestra, and Benny Goodman and his orchestra, Shirley Ross

By Philip Sterling

Producers are slowly coming to realize that musical films do not have to be full of music or bird's-eye views of sixty beautiful Whoosis girls in rose petal formation.

Having liberated itself, more or less, from tradition, Paramount has turned out a musical which is entertaining. "The Big Broadcast of 1937," on view at the Paramount Theatre, right next to that cut-rate bookstore, distinguishes itself even further by unusual photography.

The plot is flimsy but unpretentious. Instead of dealing with heart-break behind the footlights it deals with heart-break before the microphone. It consists of a radio executive's (Jack Benny) unwilling participation in a plot to take a backwoods girl announcer off the air and to prevent her from sipping a big-time singer in her broadcasts.

Love Laughs At Microphones

She is brought to New York to be put on ice but gets a break before the mike and becomes big stuff. All of this is to the accompaniment of her misunderstood love for one of the parties to the plot, etc., etc. The blow-off comes when she finds herself forced into a marriage before the microphone with the singer whom she ribbed back home and still dislikes. At the last minute the proper substitute appears and she marries the right man in the hearing of 50,000,000 radio fans.

Gracie Needs Director's Guidance

The Girl is played by Shirley Ross, who has a pleasant voice and a pleasant manner. An important double cog in the machinery of the plot is the team of Burns and Allen. Gracie's imitatively insanity is, as always, good for a laugh, but she needs better direction.

Bob Burns, hill-billy comic, slowly uncorks his backwoods drollery. There is something genuinely humorous about the sequences where this husky galoot wanders obliviously into a broadcast and begins to draw anecdotes into the microphone about his aunt back home who never used cosmetics. The punch being in the fact that he has interrupted a cosmetics commercial.

One sequence is excellent, the one in which the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra plays what sounded to this unshoed ear like a Bach fugue. Even so it could do with fewer close-ups of Stokowski's hands. These are shown, no doubt, on the theory that it would be a waste to pay Leopold all that money with actually putting him on the screen. Many persons will like the picture, some persons won't.

This reviewer, however, can say he knows the meaning of restraint. With the Hollywood yes-man of the well-known story, he can say about the "Big Broadcast": "I'm sorry, Paramount, it's only stupendous."

BRITISH PRODUCER STAGES PLAY HERE

B. A. Meyer, veteran British producer, has arrived from London to sponsor his first American production, "The Two Mrs. Carrills," a drama by Marguerite Veiller, the wife of Bayard Veiller. The play is scheduled to go into production in a fortnight with a Broadway premiere set early in December.

COAST BOOS LONDON AT MOVIE HOUSES

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 22.—Booming of London at neighborhood theaters in Los Angeles has forced theater managers to remove all political subjects from the newsreels. . . .

Republicans had a terrific time trying to find a place for Alf Landon to tooth in this week. They wanted the Shrine auditorium but found it booked by the Hollywood Anti-Nazi League in Defense of American Democracy. The League refused to give up the Auditorium, remembering the pro-Nazi backing of Landon, also thumbed its collective nose at the request of Landon backers that the meeting be made a joint one. At the Pan-Pacific auditorium there is an Electrical Pageant and Landon would have to compete with washing machines and mangle irons.

At the Olympic Auditorium, a prize-fight was scheduled and the fight fans weren't ready to give up a real show just to hear Landon. The only place left was the Coliseum which seats 100,000. The Landon crowd will look like peas in a pod, while the rainy season has come early this year. It looks like a washout.

HOWARD'S "HAMLET" GOES OVER

There is already more than $27,000 in the box office of the Boston Opera House for Leslie Howard's "Hamlet." It is expected that the figure will reach $35,000 before the week is over. The advance sale for Philadelphia and New York is also very large.

'FOUR TO GO'

Gladys Shelley has been engaged to play the ingénue lead in Joe Byron Totter's forthcoming production "Four to Go," by Almee Torriani, now in rehearsal under Mr. Totter's direction. Originally scheduled to open on Broadway Nov. 2, the play's premiere has been postponed until the week of Nov. 9.

Alla Collects

The Museum of New York, which is planning an exhibition of Ibsen items, has asked Nazimova to contribute to the collection. As a result she is presenting to the museum the following items: a pistol used in the original production of "Hedda Gabler"; photographs of early productions of Ibsen plays; photographs of three "Hedda Gabler" productions, the last being her forthcoming November production; a bronze statue of herself as Hedda; framed cartoons, etc. Mme. Nazimova holds a record for performances in Ibsen plays in this country. No other actress has played so many of the leading Ibsen characters. She has appeared in "Hedda Gabler," "The Doll's House," "The Master Builder," "Little Eyolf," "The Wild Duck" and "Ghosts."

WRITERS ATTEND TOLLER RECEPTION

Lillian Hellman, Harold Clurman, of the Group Theatre, Michael Blankfort, George Sklar and Albert Maltz, of the Theatre Union, Alfred Kreymborg, Clifford Odets, Archibald MacLellan, Malcolm Cowley, Joseph Wood Krutch, and Paul Sifton, are among those who will attend the reception for Ernest Toller, noted German playwright, being given by the League of American Writers Saturday afternoon.

Toller, who arrived in New York from London last week to see about productions of his plays here, and to lecture, will speak on "Hitler—The Promises and the Reality" on Friday evening, Oct. 30, at Mecca Temple, under the auspices of the Henri Barbusse Memorial Committee.

OUT ON THAT LIMB AGAIN

By Ted Benson

Well, I am feeling better now. The wounds in my self-esteem left the floperoo I made trying to pick a World Series winner have partially healed. So what do you think I am going to do? Yep, I am crawling right out on that limb again and heaven help the guys standing under my precarious perch.

It wasn't tough enough to pick a team to win in a two-team series so I am herewith shooting the works. Read 'em—and if you are wise, you'll bet that hard-earned bankroll against the Benson selections as they are sure to lose.

Well, here goes nothing.

The best game of the week is the tussle between Purdue and Minnesota at Minneapolis. The Gophers, who have won twenty games in a row over the past three years, are listed as favorites in the tilt. The Boiler-makers, however, figure to give the lads from the Farmer-Labor state a battle.

While a lot of people figure that the Indiana college was named because of Helen Kane's song "Poo-poo Purdue," they shouldn't get the impression that the team consists of a lot of crooners.

There are a couple of halfbacks behind an iron-fronted line who will make the Minnesotans sit up and take notice—after they have passed through on their way to a touchdown.

Cecil Isbell and John Drake are the touchdown twins referred to. They have twisted their way across many a goal line all season, and if their dazzling attack holds up Minnesota may be thrown for a loss for the first time in three long years.

Those boys make me confident, so I pick Purdue!

Pitt Is Peeved

A peevish Pitt Panther, licking its wounds and hating the world after its thrashing by the tiny Duke of Duquesne, will tangle with Notre Dame in the second big game of the day.

Vengeful and ready to rebound with vicious power, Pitt would be a dangerous opponent for any eleven today. It should be devastating against Notre Dame where the boys are riding high for a fall.

I'll crawl out on that limb a little farther. I pick Pitt!

May the Luckiest Win

A couple of teams beaten by a fork-tailed Jinx will meet this week. If the Jinx is still hovering around they will battle to a scoreless tie.

Princeton playing Navy is a case of the boys taking in each other's washing. Both are good teams and both are irate at fate. Some of the lads think that Princeton is the more irate of the two and so will conquer.

I pick the Jinx. They'll tie in my opinion.

Here Are a Few More

The unbeaten Blue Devils of Duke have a tough one in Tennessee. I am rooting for Duke to win because it is easier to get their name in a headline. Anyway, I think they are good enough to take Tennessee.

With the best men on the Yale team busily scouting Harvard, the second stringers should handle little Rutgers with ease. Larry Kelley should win the game all by himself with that educated toe of his.

There's something wrong up at Syracuse. Maybe it's because there's a Hearst paper in the town. No matter what the reason is, with the raft of material floating around, Coach Vic Hansen's boys can't seem to get together. But the individual brilliance of such stars as Vannie Albanese and Marty Glickman should overcome the grinders from Maryland.

There, am I out on that limb far enough?

School Season Gets Hot

Championship Hopes at Stake in Games Today

New York will see some high school football games today. Among the better ones are those between Boys and Madison at Boys Field in Brooklyn, Flushing and Adams at Memorial Field in Queens, Curtis and Utrecht at Thompson's Stadium in Staten Island and Roosevelt and Monroe at the latter's field.

Sizing them up: Boys, led by Hal McCullough and Ed Rosenthal, is rated slightly stronger offensively than their opponents, Madison. Both lines are on par but this edge held by Boys will mean the game.

Adams is favored over Flushing on the basis of consistent punting by Armand Prusmak and outstanding ball carrying by Jim Wilson.

Curtis with their strong offensive and defensive play is the choice over New Utrecht. Utrecht has a tough defense but the lack of scoring punch is enough to make them come out at the lower half of the score.

Evander's all-around consistency in play and fine backfield will roll up a win against La Salle. John Sepulski, La Salle back, will give Evander a lot of trouble with his great offensive running, once he gets started.

Roosevelt's improved pass defense and stronger backfield rates them better than Monroe. Frank O'Hare, Blackie Gaudiosi, Piggy Mankowitz and Jack Fottrell make up the tough Roosevelt backfield.

Commerce—Seward at Dyckman Oval, 12:00—Commerce has a fast opportunistic team. Commerce 13-0. Stuyvesant—Franklin at Dyckman Oval, 2:00—Powerful Stuyvesant will overcome Franklin, 12-0.

Textile—Washington at Washington Stadium, 2:30—Textile has a little edge and should win.

Manual—Jefferson at Dexter Park, 2:30—Jefferson is finally on the right path and will win.

Tilden—Hamilton at Commerce Field, Tilden has better offensive drive.

Knock Out Artist Tries for Another

Baby Salvy Saban, the Greenwich Village knockout artist who earlier this week beat Irish Jimmy Brady, swings back into action again Tuesday night at the Broadway Arena where he exchanges blows with Johnny Toomey of Newark in one of the two eight-round corking-pocd bouts slated by Matchmaker Max Joss.

Saban, who boasts of 30 knockouts in 37 pro boxing starts, is eager to take into camp a rival of Toomey's ring ability. Toomey has conquered such good fighters as Lou Lombardi, Joey Ferrando and Buckley Keyes.

Garibaldi's Boys

Two of the three Garibaldi brothers, who claim they can lick any other trio of wrestling kin, take to the mat in important bouts at the Broadway Arena Monday night. They are Gino, the oldest who clashes with Hans Kampfer in the finish feature, and Ralph, who collides with Sammy Menacher in a time-limit.

Gino and Kampfer come to grips in a return bout, one made possible by popular demand of the fans.

Workers' League Reorganizes

Red Sparks Stop Hoisting of Nazi Swastika

By Joseph Smith

The Metropolitan Workers Soccer League at a special reorganization meeting attended by delegates from sixteen workers clubs decided to change the name of the circuit to the Manhattan Soccer League. This step was necessitated by the fact that a Metropolitan District Soccer League already is in the field in the New York area, and the similarity of the names caused frequent confusion.

Elections of officers were also held and William Glassman was named General Secretary, J. D. Moore Financial Secretary, A. Topkin Recording Secretary, M. Gorowitz will be in charge of the league schedule and M. Katz heads the referees' group.

STILL WORKER'S GROUP

The newly elected officers emphatically declared that the adoption of the new name would not change the working class character of the league or its activities.

The Tom Mooney Challenge Cup, the most highly prized possession of the former M.W.S.L. will be conducted as heretofore but on a much bigger scale by the reorganized M.S.L.

With the league conducting its activities for the first time within the United States Football Association, the cup tournament will be open to clubs belonging to other leagues, which will make it a much bigger and more impressive event.

Already five new teams have joined the reorganized loop, and three more are expected by next week, with many more to follow in the near future.

The league will swing into action tomorrow with eight games scheduled in both divisions.

Topping the list in importance is the play-off for the championship between the Hinsdale Workers A. C. and the Dauntless F. C. Last year they finished in a deadlock on top of the standing with an equal number of points won.

Hinsdale and Dauntless F.C. in Play-Off for Pennant

After several postponements, the game will be finally played tomorrow at Rutland Road Park, at 82nd Street, Brooklyn. The Dauntless eleven, one of the foremost Negro soccer squads in the country, is very anxious to annex the league title, and will put up a most energetic struggle against the experienced Hinsdale booters.

The contest, which is scheduled for 3 P. M., is the main attraction of a special four-game event to be staged at the Brooklyn double pitch. Another contest which will be played simultaneously on the adjoining ground, brings out the Yorkville Hungarians against the Hinsdale B team.

The two 1 o'clock tilts which will precede the games, show the Purifiers Joint Council B team against the Y.Z.S.C. and the Red Sparks B vs. the Haneris F.C.

The Bronx Knights, newcomers, to the league will show their wares against the Red Sparks A team at Crotona Park at 1 P. M., two other newcomers, the Bar Koehba and the Torino F.C. will test each other at Torino Field, 180th St. and Bathgate Ave., Bronx.

The Scandinavians A tackle the Equador F. C. at Jasper Oval at 3 P. M., and the Armenians are paired with the Scandinavians B Riverside Oval, 150th St. and Riverside Drive, in the other games.

The premier team of the Red Sparks, Branch 605 I.W.O. will devote the free day tomorrow for an exhibition match with the Hakoah Reserves. The game will be played at Commercial Field as a preliminary to the Hakoah Premier-Norwegian Turners clash, and will start at 1 P. M.

Last week, the I.W.O. booters played against the Praelzer F.C. of the German-American Soccer League in the qualifying round of the National Challenge Cup and were eliminated after a bitter struggle by the score of 6-5.

The Red Sparks gained a moral victory, however, when they prevented their opponents from hoisting the Nazi flag, a procedure which is observed regularly by that pro-fascist club.

The I.W.O. protested vigorously and threatened to walk off the field if the Nazi emblem were displayed. After a stormy argument the Red Sparks finally won out, but the bitter feeling remained and shouts of "Kill the Reds" were frequently heard through the game.

Millinery Union Local 24 will make its debut in the preliminary to the New York Americans-Hispano tilt at Starlight Park, tomorrow, in an exhibition soccer game against Local 117, I.L.G.W.U.

The kick-off for the game has been set for 1:30 P. M. Local 89 meets Local 143 at Victory Field, Mt. Vernon, in the only other trade union league game, scheduled for the day.

City's Elevens Face Crucial Games Today

Big St. Mary's Team Favored Over Fordham—Columbia Tackles Michigan—N.Y.U. Plays Unbeaten Hoyas

By Murray Kantor

New York is plenty excited today as local football fans keep their fingers crossed and pour out in the thousands to watch Knickerbocker elevens get their severest tests of the season.

First on the list of thrills is the spectacular encounter at the Polo Grounds between St. Mary and Fordham. Slip Madigan, keeper of the Gaels, thinks "this team of mine has a chance to be the best I've ever coached." The horde of pigskin dinosaurs that will line up against the New Yorkers comprise the biggest squad that ever faced the Rams.

There isn't a regular who tips the beams under 185. The line averages over 200 lbs. The backfield with Les Groux, who Madigan says can handle the ball "only 80 yards," Lou Ramissa, Lou Ferry, chatter-chatter quarterback, and Hugh Sill, flashy half-back, have made Crowley's hair turn grey since last Saturday. He's afraid even to think of Harry Aronson, smashing 185 lb. fullback.

Gaels Drill In Splendor

Harry Aronson Tells Why He Selected St. Mary's

By MARK O'HARA

The galloping Gaels of St. Mary's trotted across the spacious polo field of the world's most ultra-exclusive Westchester-Biltmore Country Club, yesterday for their final workout before their clash with Fordham at the Polo Grounds.

Under the watchful eye of "Slip" Madigan and his assistant "Red" Strader, the boys were put through their formations. With the punters booting long loping arches, the passers flipping to the ends, and the line charging, the whole squad worked up a nicely before they were called in.

Needless to say "Slip" thinks Harry Aronson, the first Jewish boy to play varsity on St. Mary's is pretty good. Commenting how Harry came to St. Mary's he said, "Dutch" Conlin, a former Gael, coaching at a San Francisco high school, first spotted the youngster, so it was only natural that Aronson came to St. Mary's.

I asked him if the fullback received a scholarship or if he is working his way through. Madigan replied, "Aronson is working his way through. 'As an afterthought he grinned, 'It's no shame to work one's way through."

"Red" Strader said that most of the "cripples" will see action today if the doctor okayed it. "But Floyd Maxham is definitely out of the game." Aside from that the team "looks pretty good!"

Aronson received bids from almost every college and university on the coast. "After graduating Commerce High School where I made all-city backfield," he said, "I got letters from California, Oregon University, Stanford and a number of other schools."

Asked why he chose St. Mary's, he answered, "In order to get into some of the other schools I would have to go to Prep school for six months. Another thing which prompted me to choose St. Mary's was the fact that they travel to New York for intersectional games," he laughed.

DETROIT AIR-RAIDS

Coach Meehan's footballers still don't know what to expect from the University of Detroit at Ebbets Field today. The Westerners employ a full repertoire of Notre Dame plays and have always been known as a wild and woolly passing outfit. Which is the reason why practice drills for the Jaspers this week have been something of a five-ring circus. Both teams are in fine physical condition and signs are sure of an exhibition of wide-open, fancy football all the way.

City College and Brooklyn travel to strange territory with improved teams. Friedman's huskies are fairly brimming with confidence as they tackle the strong Drexel squad in Philadelphia. Lou Oshin and his Flatbush Canutes expect to roll the Canisius football wave right back into Lake Erie.

With the Pros

The New York Giants hope to take the lead in the National Professional Football League at the expense of the Philadelphia Eagles when they meet tomorrow at the Polo Grounds. A win for Coach Owen's crunching pros and a defeat for the Pirates, present pace-setters, will do the trick. The Giants are out to reverse their opening game setback at the hands of the Phillies by as decisive a margin as possible.

At Ebbets Field tomorrow, Paul Schissler's Brooklyn Dodgers encounter a Cardinal team which has finally rounded into form with the return to action of its injured stars. The Dodgers will start their regular line-up with Bobby Wilson, one of the league's best ground-gamers, Father Lumpkin, Dick Crayne and Ralph Kercheval, place-kick artist in the backfield. Coach Creighton's Cardinals intend to shoot his big guns in Al Nicholas, "Iron-Mike" Mikulak and Phil Sarboe, one of the shiftest runners and most accurate passers in the league, right at the start.

Godoy Signs Up

Arturo Godoy, Chilean heavy-weight, today signed a one-year contract to fight exclusively for 20th Century Club Promoter Mike Jacobs. Godoy was guaranteed $25,000 and optioned his services to Jacobs for three more years in the event Jacobs wants him that long.

Jacobs also announced that Godoy has been matched to fight ten rounds here Nov. 11, with Al Ettore of Philadelphia.
