BRIDGE IS BLOCKED DURING RUSH HOUR

Car Jumps Track, Delaying Traffic for an Hour.

Fourteenth Street Car Goes Amuck on Williamsburg Bridge—Passengers Get Severe Shaking Up—Bridge Police Are Swamped Under Crowd—Scurries Are Called Out—Local Bridge Cars Can't Handle Passengers.

A serious blockage on the Williamsburg Bridge during the early rush hours this morning was caused by the derailment of a westbound Fourteenth street car, which jumped the track and bumped into one of the big girders of the structure. No one was injured, although some of the passengers received a somewhat severe jolting. Scenes of wild confusion followed, and it became necessary to call out the bridge reserves and those of the Bedford avenue station.

The entire bridge traffic of the Metropolitan system was tied up from 7 o'clock until 8, and the shuttle cars of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit were unable to handle the thousands of persons bound to and from Manhattan.

At 7 o'clock the cars run normally under about fifteen or twenty seconds' headway. At certain points on the bridge it is necessary for the motor cars to slow down, owing to technical reasons, or power-motoring points, according to the street railway officers, the motorman of a Fourteenth street car, crowded to the rail, failed to slow down at the "crotch" just west of the Brooklyn tower. As a result the car jumped the track, and bumped into the iron uprights of the bridge.

There was a wild stampede to get out of the car. The bridge policemen were unable to cope with the crowd, which gathered as car after car became stalled. The crowd was ill-natured, and several fights took place. As soon as it became apparent that the block would be of long duration many persons demanded that the conductors return their fares. The policemen were swamped, and calls were sent in for reserves.

The local bridge cars of the B. R. T. were entirely inadequate for the task of handling the crowd and the police had much difficulty in maintaining a sufficient semblance of order to allow of the operation of the shuttle cars. Passengers jostled each other to get aboard, and the pushing, jamming crowd made it next to impossible to get the cars under way.

A wrecking crew was sent out from the Manhattan end of the bridge shortly after the accident, but it was not until 8 o'clock that the derailed car was placed on the track and traffic resumed. Thousands of disgruntled persons had crossed the bridge on foot by that time.

"RED SPECIAL" WILL TAKE PASSENGERS

Special to The Call.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—Arrangements have been made to carry several hundred passengers every day on the Red Special. Any person can get on the train at any stop and ride as far as he likes at the rate of two cents a mile. Meals will cost fifty cents each. There will be no sleeping car berths for these passengers, but a first-class day coach will be provided.

Indications are that every afternoon the train will be crowded with workers going from the smaller towns to the cities where evening meetings are to be held.

Dobs and all the special train party and all their fellow workers who board the train for short trips will have their meals together, and these meals are to be made any place. The train will enable workers of one town to get acquainted with those of another, and the gathering of so many men and women interested in Socialism is expected to be a great encouragement to them, in small communities and to the speakers and candidates for President.

"Those who intend to join the Socialist train," said Otto McPeck, correspondent for the Workers' Press Association, "should give the names of the party to their local newspapers and also call the editor's attention to Socialism every day in their columns."

SOCIALISTS FIGHT EXTORTION

Special to The Call.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ind., Aug. 28.—Because they were Socialists and revolted against an exorbitant price for their food, seventeen Italian section hands on the C. C. & L. railway were arrested, charged with inciting a riot. The Socialist party has employed attorneys to defend them.

Emanuel Gianturo and Angelo Galante, two members of the Socialist party who were arrested with fifteen others, declare the exorbitant prices charged by two brothers named Caruso, who operate the commissary and bunk house, compelled them to quit work.

In all twenty quit work and demanded transportation to Chicago. This was refused by the railroad company. The officials allege that the refusal aroused the anger of the laborers and they threatened to burn the bunk house cars and the depot, and Howard Davis, a merchant, telephoned to Richmond for a posse, which was provided with a special train by the C. C. & L.

When the train arrived in Williamsburg no trouble was in sight, but Caruso picked out seventeen workers whom he said had made threats and they were hustled into a caboose and brought back to Richmond, where it was decided to prosecute them on a charge of inciting a riot.

COMBERS TO MAKE FIGHT ON CANNON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Samuel Gompers yesterday announced that he would take the stump in a personal effort to drive Speaker Cannon from the House. The president of the American Federation of Labor will open the campaign, which he intends to make a general fight for the Democratic ticket, at Danville, Ill., the home of "Uncle Joe."

Mr. Gompers said that his plan included not only an appeal to the labor vote, strictly speaking, but that emissaries would be sent into the rural sections of the Speaker's district to work against him. It is recalled that the only time Mr. Cannon was ever defeated for Congress was in 1890, when Samuel T. Busey attacked him on the grounds of the Speaker's profanity. "Uncle Joe's" use of "cuss words" is being made an issue this year by his Democratic opponent, Henry C. Bell.

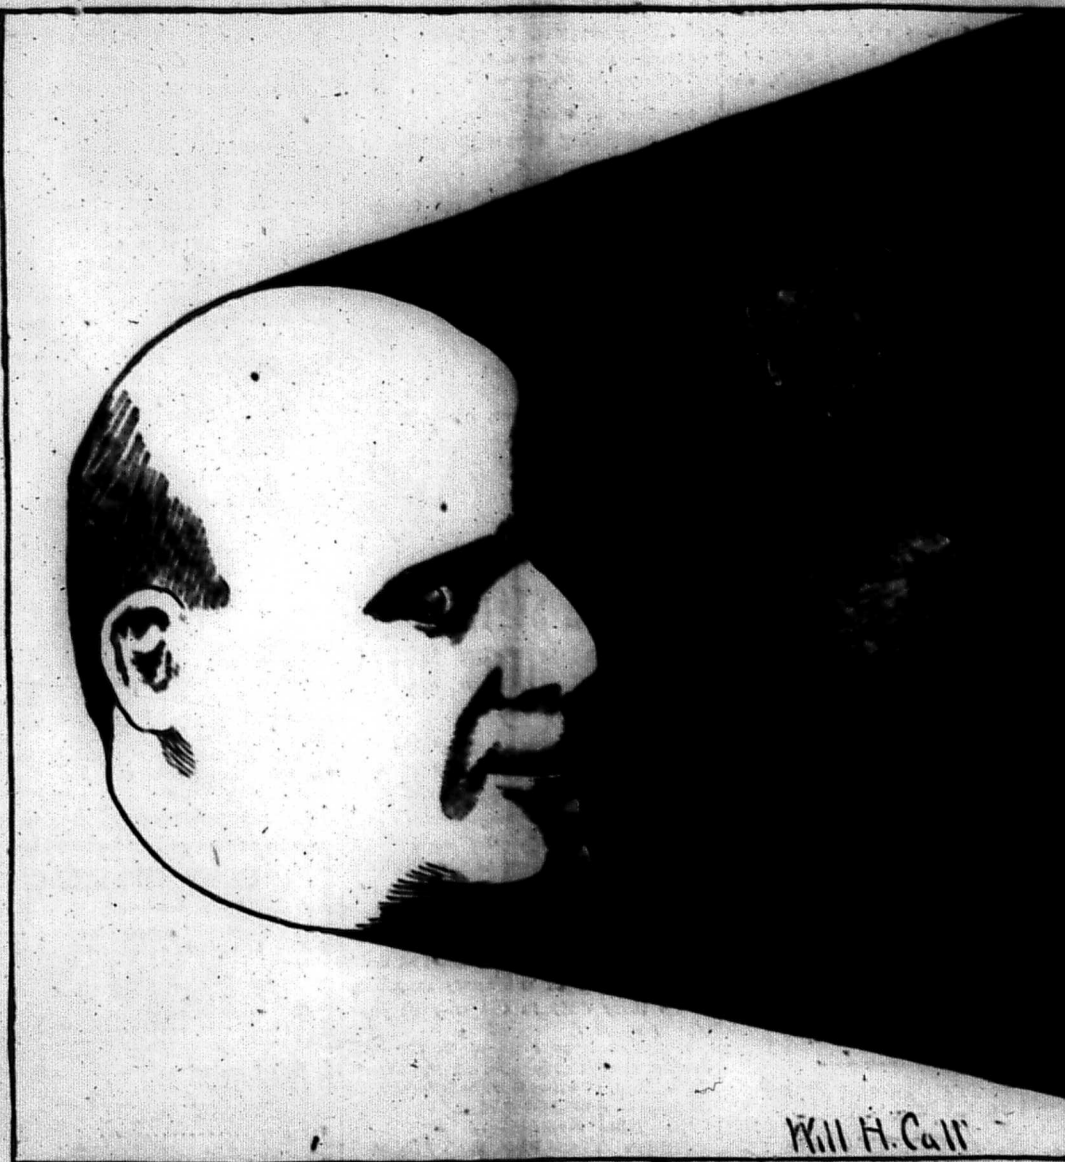

Frank Morrison, secretary of the Federation, said to-day that an effort had already been made to induce the individual unions to endorse the political declarations of the central organization, and to contribute to a campaign fund for pushing the activities of the labor party to the limit.

STRIKING TAILORS BELONG TO DISENTING UNION.

Benjamin Schwitzer, General Organizer of the United Garment Workers of America, issued a statement yesterday, in which he said that the people were likely to be misled as to the extent of the present strikes of the Brotherhood of Tailors. He said: "Over a year ago the General Executive Board of this body expelled the locals of the Brotherhood of Tailors, which had a membership of about 12,000 in New York for striking without authority and in violation of agreements. A rival organization was formed which has a small membership, and its members are the only coat tailors who are on strike. The statement that thousands of these tailors are on strike is absurd."

Seven Williamsburg manufacturing tailors signed the new time and wage schedule yesterday. There are seventy shops and already twelve have acceded to the demands of the strikers.

The Call is able to-day to present another illustration of the methods used by the capitalist organizations which make a business of helping the great corporations to fight the labor unions.

A Philadelphia man, whose name we withhold for obvious reasons, answered an attractive advertisement for "Men wanted" in a local newspaper. In reply he got the following letter, which he permits The Call to publish in order to warn his fellow workers of the schemes on foot:

"Dear Sir—In answer to your letter of P. O. box No. 793 beg to advise that I would be pleased to have an interview with you at your earliest possible convenience. However, before any unnecessary time has been taken either by yourself or myself, I herewith give you an insight into our requirements. If you use intoxicating liquors as a beverage, I don't want you to connect yourself with us, as we will find this out in a short time. If you are not a man who has the staying qualities, I do not want you, as we cannot afford to employ men who will leave us. If you are inclined to become homesick, or in any way have family ties that would draw you away from your work I could not use you, as our men when once employed by us have a permanent position. Our men work every day in the year, including Sundays and holidays unless granted permission to lay off for a day or so. Would also say that as a rule a man entering our employ does not get a chance to return to his home and friends for a long space of time. It will range from nine months to a year before you get back to the place you started from.

POPE PIUS IX. WAS NO SAINT

ROME, Aug. 28.—The Rev. D. J. McMaackin, of New York, has been appointed Proprotator in the process of the beatification of Pope Pius IX.

Cardinal Crestoni, Prefect of the Congregation on Rights and Indulgences, has received a mysterious intimation to suspend the process of beatification from a man named Falconieri, who claims to be the heir to properties fraudulently subtracted from his family by Pope Pius IX.

IMMIGRATION FIGURES SHOW 500,000 FALLING OFF.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Official reports show that for the year ended August 1 the aliens coming to the United States numbered 782,970. The total immigration for the previous year was 1,285,348; in 1905-06 it was 1,109,000, and in 1904-05 1,026,499. There were 27,570 immigrants landed here last month, as compared with 97,000 in July, 1907, and 84,000 in July, 1906.

When allowance is made for this great outward movement of aliens the fact that only about 230,000 immigrants were added to the population of the United States in 1907-08 is revealed.

UNION MAN NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 28.—William D. Mahon, President of the International Association of Street Railway employees, will be the Democratic candidate for Congress against Representative Edwin Denby. Mr. Denby declared for the open shop at the time of the telegraphers' strike last year. Since then the Detroit Labor Federation has been bitterly opposed to him.

After the Democrats had decided Wednesday night on their candidates, the Federation pledged its support. It is understood that the American Federation of Labor will assist in the campaign, which will be fought on strictly labor union lines.

POLICEMAN "GUILTY"

Patrolman Admits He Took Money From Woman.

When two policemen, Benjamin Cordes and William S. Waltman, walked into General Sessions yesterday to be tried on the charge of having extorted $3 each from two women of the street Waltman expected that Cordes was going to face a trial, just as he was. The clerk called Cordes's name first.

"Guilty," said Cordes. Waltman stared at him. Assistant District Attorney McGuire was as surprised as anybody. Cordes was remanded for sentence and the trial of Waltman was called.

Waltman's lawyer, J. J. Bennett, was not anxious to go on, but Judge Malone would have no delay. The District Attorney said it was a case which should be disposed of and he called his witnesses.

In substance their story was that on the night of July 25 Irene Walton and Bessie Ambrose were walking along Thirteenth street and the two policemen, who were in plain clothes, arrested them. Waltman said to Irene Walton:

"What are you going to do—fix it?" "I've only got $4 and I have had nothing to eat," she replied. "Give me $3," Waltman said to her. The experience Bessie Ambrose had with Cordes was about the same. She gave up $3 and they walked away.

"What's your name?" Lawyer Bennett asked Irene Walton. "I'm Irene Walton for to-day," she said.

"What's your real name?" "I won't tell you."

The lawyer pressed the question and the young woman appealed to the judge. He said that he didn't see what need there was for the testimony.

CARPENTERS' COUNCIL CONVENES IN UTICA

Special to The Call. UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The annual convention of the New York State Council of Carpenters was opened in this city to-day. The main purpose of the convention is to procure more compactness throughout the state and to promote organization of mills. The body also desires to influence some legislation in the state, but in this matter its desire is rather to prevent legislation which is injurious than to actually put through measures of its own.

The organization in this state has 25,000 members and 15,000 affiliated members. About 30 delegates are expected to attend this meeting of the council. These delegates represent about one-third of the total membership of the organization. The meeting held yesterday was called to order at 11 o'clock by James Horton, the president of the state body. It was taken up mainly with routine opening business which has to be gone through, and with the formation of committees. It is expected that addresses will be delivered by the mayor, by T. M. Guerin, who is first vice-president of the carpenters, and by John Williams of Utica, state commissioner of labor.

STRIKEBREAKERS MAKE TROUBLE.

NORTH BAY, Ont., Aug. 28.—Strike situation here has reached an acute stage and acts of violence are of daily occurrence. Strike breakers are beginning to come into town and liquor up with results that bloody encounters are frequent. Yesterday several strikebreakers became noisy and offensive. A pitched battle ensued, resulting disastrously to the strikebreakers.

An unpleasant episode occurred last night when a party of tourists, returning from French River were stoned by mistake. The road from the wharf crosses the property of the C. P. R. R. and as a party, which consisted of fifteen Americans from Pittsburgh, approached the track, a shower of missiles greeted them. Several of the party were severely bruised and many lost their hats in the confusion.

The officers of the Cloakmakers' Union are planning a big protest meeting against this persecution of the police. The Central Federated Union has a committee of five investigating these cases. It is possible that Clarence S. Darrow, the noted Chicago lawyer, will be brought in the case.

REV. DR. MACKAY, HERETIC, DIES ON TRAIN

The Rev. Dr. Ronald Sage Mackay, pastor of the oldest church in New York City, the Collegiate Church of St. Nicholas, at Fifth avenue and Forty-eighth street, died yesterday morning at Portland, Me. Dr. Mackay was in his seat in a Pullman car on his way to join his children at Blue Hills, Me., when he succumbed to double pneumonia.

In 1906 because of statements made in a sermon by Dr. Mackay, the Iowa Classis of the Reformed Church accused him of heresy. Dr. Mackay had said:

"Still another cause which I mention as contributing to this just sense of God comes from the crude and pitiless theology of a previous age. I say previous age, and yet I cannot help remembering that in Scotland to-day 1,100 ministers have been rendered legally churchless and homeless and property of $55,000,000 taken from the church they represent in order to satisfy the legal demands of a church of twenty-four ministers, whose fundamental belief is limited salvation; that God only saves the elect, and that only to the elect can salvation be offered."

After he had been branded as a heretic Dr. Mackay said he had no patience with theology, which demanded that "a godly husband shall say amen to the damnation of his wife; the godly parents shall shut hellmouth at the passing of the newborn of death against their only child; the godly child shall approve the damnation of his wicked parents; the father who beget him and the mother who bore him."

Pickets First Clubbed, Then Arrested and Fined.

Bingham's Men Continue to Interfere with the Struggles of Workers to Better Their Conditions—Big Protest Meeting Planned by Union—Darrow May Be Brought in the Case.

In spite of the protests of organized labor of this city the police are still evidently in collusion with employing cloakmakers to break their employees' strike. This morning two pickets who were around the struck shop of R. Simon & Co., 21-23 East Tenth street, were arrested and charged with assaulting strikebreakers. The evidence against the men came from the strikebreakers, private detectives and employees of the company. Magistrate Barlow fined J. Kantor $10 and discharged Abe Silverman. S. Silverman, who was arrested yesterday under a similar charge, was fined $10.

The pickets insist that they did not molest anybody, but that the police suddenly swooped upon them and took them to the Mercer street station. The strikers claim that private detectives employed by the company assaulted them and that they are in many cases assisted by the city police.

Besides the assaults committed by the police on two or the striking cloakmakers at the Mercer street station on August 12, it was learned to-day that on last Sunday J. Kantor received similar treatment from Bingham's men. Mr. Kantor was clubbed by the police because he approached a strikebreaker and begged him to quit working as he "was taking bread out of the mouths of other workmen."

The officers of the Cloakmakers' Union are planning a big protest meeting against this persecution of the police. The Central Federated Union has a committee of five investigating these cases. It is possible that Clarence S. Darrow, the noted Chicago lawyer, will be brought in the case.

WEALTHY MAN SHOT BY MASKED ASSAILANT

Appears Suddenly in Throng at Atlantic City and Fires.

Charles E. Roberts, President of Baltimore Supply Company, While in Rialto Club at Resort is Confronted by Man Who Merely Wounds Him and Then Escapes.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 28.—Charles E. Roberts, president of the Baltimore Supply Company, and one of the wealthiest men of that city, was shot last night on the boardwalk by a masked man, who escaped. When shot Mr. Roberts was riding in a rolling chair in company with Mrs. W. S. G. Williams, also of Baltimore, who has been staying at the Hotel Brighton since last Saturday.

The wound is of such a nature that it is believed he cannot recover. The assassin escaped. The case, with its extraordinary circumstances, including the high social and financial standing of both the man and the woman involved, and the evident effort on the part of the police to keep it a secret, has caused a great sensation here. The shooting took place at 10:30 o'clock on the boardwalk, near Rhode Island avenue. The place was thronged. Sudden from the shadows on the land side of the walk a man appeared and ordered Mr. Roberts to get out of the chair, fired two shots and darted into Rhode Island avenue. Before Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Williams or the attendant could sufficiently from their surprise he had disappeared. On the way to the hospital Mr. Roberts told a policeman that his assailant had a mask on. It is believed by many here who know the families of those concerned in the affair that there is a domestic embroilment behind it, the details of which are yet to come to light.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 25.—The shooting of Charles E. Roberts, while in company with Mrs. W. S. G. Williams at Atlantic City last night, is the sporting topic in Baltimore clubs and society. All sorts of rumors are afloat and gossip at the clubs. Roberts is president and treasurer of the National Supply Company of Baltimore. Mr. Roberts feared fire-arms. I recall that one of the book-keepers once left a pistol here. When Mr. Roberts saw it he gave orders that it be taken away, as he said that he was afraid someone might get hurt. Mr. Williams is a daughter of the late Thomas De Ford, in his time one of the wealthiest and most prominent merchants in Baltimore. As he has to be here she was a great favorite in society. Her husband, who is known as "Will," Williams among his club friends, expressed his horror and astonishment to learn of the shooting of Roberts, and said he could not understand it. Mr. Williams said he had no knowledge of the case.

ENGINEERS MAY STRIKE AGAINST CUT

The electrical engineers on the New York Central and New Haven Railroads considered the advisability of a strike at their meeting at Leffler's hall, 143rd street and Willis avenue, last evening.

The main charge that it is the desire of the railroad officials to reduce their pay and at the same time increase their hours, and that any attempt on the part of the officials to enforce their demand will mean a strike.

WABLE DECISION VERY PECULIAR

The action of Magistrate Charles F. G. Wable in dismissing the case against three fur dealers, who were charged with receiving stolen goods, after evidence had been submitted showing that the stolen goods had been found in the possession of one of the prisoners, while he and another of the accused men were trying to sell the furs under a provision that they should be disposed of outside the city, was discussed yesterday by every other magistrate in New York. One of the magistrates expressed the opinion that had the case come before him and had the same evidence been produced he would have held the men for the Grand Jury.

One of the interesting phases of the proceedings which resulted in the dismissal of the three accused for dealers, according to those who witnessed the court proceedings, was the treatment accorded Gustavus A. Rogers, counsel for Louis Alpert, of 112 University Place, the fur dealer whose place of business was robbed on August 1 and part of whose stolen furs was recovered by detectives in the possession of Max Friedman, a member of the firm of Kuerll & Co., 25 East Ninth street. Part of what took place in the Essex Market Court on the afternoon of August 15, when the case was disposed of, appears in the stenographic record of the case, but another part does not, for the reason that Magistrate Wable refused to allow the stenographer to record the protest of Mr. Rogers against the proceedings.

SAFES!

SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR THE USE OF BANKS, BUSINESS, AND HOME OFFICES...

THE FAIR PROPAGANDIST.

BY MAX GORE.

Special of Previous Propagandists.

It was a beautiful evening. A light breeze stirred the leaves of the trees... The speaker, a young man of about twenty-five years of age, with a face that was as fresh as a rose...

He spoke with a clear, ringing voice... The speaker, a young man of about twenty-five years of age, with a face that was as fresh as a rose... He spoke with a clear, ringing voice...
