LOST JOB, TRIES SUICIDE

Discharged for Cutting Off Fingers, He Drinks Iodine.

Hulger Peterson, twenty-three years old, of 52 14th street, Hoboken, went into a saloon at 14th street and Bloomfield avenue, that city, yesterday, and drank a portion of a bottle of tincture of iodine. The bartender knocked the bottle out of his hand before he could swallow much of the stuff. At St. Mary's Hospital it was found his condition was not serious and he was arrested. He said he came from the West looking for work, and after a long search found it at a factory in Hoboken. He said he cut the end off one of his fingers soon after going to work and was discharged for doing so.

KILLS 1; WOUNDS 2; ENDS LIFE

CHICAGO, April 23.—Harry L. Summers, a nickel plater, yesterday shot and killed his wife, Henrietta, and seriously wounded his ten-year-old daughter, Gladys, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna McKenzie, and killed himself, at Mrs. McKenzie's home, 522 Albany avenue.

PICK UP FOUR FROM WRECK

SIDNEY, C. B., April 23.—Four seamen from the wrecked British schooner New Quay were picked up off the coast of Ireland April 4 by the British steamer Esnata, which arrived here yesterday after a passage of twenty days from Glasgow.

(Continued from Page 1.) are loyal to the Constitutionalists; and it was learned also that the cruise of the fleet to the Mediterranean has been temporarily abandoned in favor of San Stefano.

More Than 15,000 Slain.

The situation in Asiatic Turkey is distinctly threatening. The wave of fanaticism which originated at Adana ten days ago and found its expression in the killing of Christians, apparently is spreading generally through the eastern provinces. Upward of 15,000 Armenians were massacred in Syrian towns and villages, principally in the vilayet of Adana, during outbreaks of fanatical zeal that took place at the time of the spring festival in honor of Mohammed and upon the receipt of the news of the overturn of the "heretical" government in Constantinople. One Embassy places the estimates of killed as high as 15,000.

The government has sent most urgent commands to the Vali of Adana that the mobs must be put down and the leaders harshly dealt with. The attacks on the Armenians appear to have been instigated solely by the reactionaries. A dispatch received from Mersina dated yesterday says the Armenian town of Hadjin, in the northern part of the Adana vilayet, is beleaguered by Moslem tribesmen, who are only awaiting sufficient numerical strength to rush the improvised defenses erected by the Armenians. The Armenians however, are well armed and will put up a vigorous defense. Up to the present time only two persons have been killed at Hadjin. The entire population of Kirikan, between Aleppo and Alexandretta, even into the last babe, has been massacred. The French Mission at Elbaz is besieged by fanatical Moslems. The Armenian village of Deuryul is surrounded, and a messenger who crawled through the Arab lines at night and made his way to Aleppo for help says the situation there is hopeless. The buildings on the edge of town were in flames when he escaped. The massacres were being carried out with the greatest violence. Neither women nor children were spared. The motto of the Moslems is, "No twig of the accursed race shall be suffered to live." The Armenians, recognizing that the massacres have been organized and carried out by adherents of the Old Turkish regime, are looking to the Young Turks for future protection.

MUCH MONKEY BUSINESS

Animal Breaks Loose in Court and Makes Argument.

Excitement was caused in the Harlem Police Court yesterday when a much enraged monkey leaped from beneath the cloak of Mrs. Mary Osterloh, of 2116 Lexington avenue, while she was testifying before Magistrate Breen.

As the animal sprang up on the Magistrate's desk, Court Officer Michael Nachbar, who tips the beam at 250 pounds when he is in training, collapsed with a thud that sounded like the blasting of the Niagara Falls ice jam. The monkey began telling its troubles to Magistrate Breen, and it was well into the first chapter when Nachbar, regaining his feet, stormed the judicial heights and seized the simian.

"Let little Haggi alone," shrieked Mrs. Osterloh. "How dare you grab my pet?"

The monkey was restored to her and she resumed her testimony.

It seemed that a Mrs. Jennie Williams, who roomed with Mrs. Osterloh and her husband, had caused the arrest of the pair, and Mrs. Osterloh, fearing that a band of blackmailers or a circus manager might kidnap the monkey, took it along to jail with her. She hid the animal from the police until it broke forth, apparently to appear as a witness in her behalf. Magistrate Breen discharged the woman and her husband.

CANDY KILLS BABY.

Eating of Chocolate Results in Death of Infant.

A man and a woman, carrying a fourteen-month-old baby, hurried into St. Vincent's Hospital last night and said to the first physician they met: "Doctor, will you please look at this child? He's sick."

Dr. Hartigan, the night surgeon, glanced at the baby, put his head on its heart and answered: "I'm sorry, but your baby has just died."

The couple described themselves as Mr. and Mrs. Caillaux, of 615 1-2 Hudson street. The baby, which was a lusty, bright youngster only a few hours before, had been taken ill, they said, from eating some chocolate almonds which friends had brought in.

The hospital reported the case to the Coroner's office, which ordered that the remainder of the candy be seized for analysis.

CHARGES WILL FORGERY.

Woman Says Signature to Document Is Not Genuine.

HACKENSACK, N. J., April 23.—There is under way proceeding brought by Miss Julia Forrest for the revocation of the will of her sister on the grounds of alleged forgery. The case is to be heard before Judge Demarest on May 5.

Miss Forrest's sister was Mrs. Carrie O. Sisson, whose will was filed with Surrogate Hester, in Hackensack on October 7, 1905. Charles H. Sisson, husband of the testator, who left about $10,000, was named as sole executor and beneficiary.

It is charged that the signature to the will is not that of Mrs. Sisson, and that the will was written on August 4, 1907, but was dated August 5, 1907. The former date was a Sunday, on which it would not be legal to draw such documents.

Mr. Sisson now lives at 326 West 115th street, Manhattan.

GRANTS EASY WINNERS; GIANTS BEAT DODGERS

Forty-five thousand "fans" witnessed the two openings in Greater New York yesterday and there was a big crowd for the day stayed right on the side of the big bridge.

The Highlanders had a very easy time with Washington, Ganley's men being unable to do anything with the batters tossed up by young Quinn.

With a pitcher who last season was in the B league Stallings' husters came within halting distance of impressing the Senators in the white-wash bucket.

Next to Quinn, Enrie was the shining star, he making three hits and adding his position like a veteran.

The biggest crowd that Washington Park ever held saw the Giants and Dodgers go through a game which up to the seventh inning was a battle royal.

Wilhelm and Ames, heroes of that memorable thirteen-inning opening game, were on the firing line yesterday, and although McGraw's band had their revenge on the Superbas for pilfering the plum at the Manhattan opener.

The New York University crew, accompanied by a delegation of students, left for Annapolis, Md., where it will row against the Navy crew on Saturday.

Augusta, Ga., April 23.—Hal Chase, the greatest first baseman of the New York Americans, who has been in the Detention Hospital here with smallpox, will be released to-morrow.

A NEW A. A. U. COMMISSIONER. President James E. Sullivan yesterday appointed Oscar A. Morgan, of Ocean Grove, N. J., a commissioner to represent the Metropolitan Association.

Manager Hugh Jennings of Tigers and Scene in Detroit-Cleveland Game

To judge from the early showing of the Detroit Tigers in the American League pennant race, Manager Hugh Jennings and his two-time champions are out to make a runaway race of it.

SCHOOLBOYS TO HOLD BIG ATHLETIC MEETS

The fifth annual indoor meet of Public School 77 will be held at the Eighth Regiment Armory to-morrow night. Seventeen events have been arranged for the meeting, including several open events, which will be contested by some of the best athletes.

With Joe Gilbert, Fred Bellars, Muller, and Smith and two more more of the speediest of the metropolitan district's distance runners entered, the three-mile special, the feature of the annual indoor games of the Harlem Evening High School in the Twenty-second Armory to-night cannot help but be one of the greatest races at the distance run this season.

Big things will be doing at the Seventy-first Regiment Armory, 54th street and Park avenue, Manhattan, to-morrow afternoon, April 24, when Public School 32, the crack athletic school of the Bronx, meets Public School 9, of Brooklyn, in the second annual indoor meet.

Marathon on wheels is the latest fad being boosted by the promoters of the inflated tire game. Newark will see the first event of this kind among the "pros" next Sunday afternoon, and the Velodrome will be the scene of the grind.

The event is scheduled as the feature of the weekly race meets and the riders will be sent over the full Marathon distance of 26 miles 385 yards. The affair will be held on the steep-banked board track, which measures six laps to the mile, and all the star professionals, including National Champion Frank L. BROTHERS OF CHRIST, A STORY OF DARK RUSSIA

By ERNEST POOLE.

(TOLD ME IN RUSSIA BY A RUSSIAN ENGINEER.)

"Heigh!" I shouted into the darkness. "What are you doing there?" In the black dense rain I felt my carriage stop with a jolt. Then it sagged down into a hole and was still. I heard close behind me a boost, a splash and a thud. I leaped out. My trunk lay with one corner deep in the mud. The peasant driver was climbing stiffly back to his box. "I'm through," he grunted. "My horse keeps coughing. I'm going home."

Marching—charging! My imagination is strong; I began to have tickings. The foul air thickened my lungs. My head buzzed and I sank on a bench. The cow in the shed scratched her neck against which I leaned. The pig squealed in his nightmare. Now and then from the top of the stove came murmurs in dreams. "Chris, save us!" Or again: "Heigh! It's my turn; pass me the spoon." Time seemed eternity. The snores gained power.

He got up and walked out steadily, stumbling twice over sleepers. He pushed back his heavy yellow hair and began rambling it, staring over my shoulder down at the man's face on the floor. I turned and looked. The face on the floor was lean and brown except where the coarse cheek bones showed under the skin. He showed white lips twitched how and then. The whole face was depressing. We both watched it while the tall man gripped his thoughts and got them started— with his teeth shut.

WHOSE PROSPERITY? Oh! That Pain in My Chest.

By GRACE POTTER. Prosperity? Whose prosperity? The price of bread goes up. The men who grow the wheat, the men who mill it, the men who transport it on the railroads, the men who bake it into bread are poorer than ever. Many of them will go hungry because bread costs more. Their wives, hungry, will sicken and give their last vitality to the unborn babes whose claims plead trouble.
