MEETING AGAINST CODE JUDGE ENJOINS

Protest Will Be Made To-night at

A mass meeting to perfect plans fo united protest against the signing of the new building code by Acting Mayor McGowan will be held at Cooper Union to-night by the cinder concrete firms, real estate interests, builders and others opposed to the new code.

The code has been actively oppose by the unions of the building trades, of Elia Gingles, the Irish many of whose members it would throw out of employment, and they will also be represented by speakers at the meeting.

Posters Suppressed.

Those who are interested in the mass meeting called for to-night announced yesterday that an effort is being made by certain individuals to prevent the posting of bills announc-ing the meeting. It was said this ing the meeting. It was said this afternoon that the A. Van Buren & Co. bill posting concern, that agreed to post the announcements in conspicuous places, had received a mysteriou once." The Van Buren people refused to discuss the matter. The representatives of the cinder concrete interests say that Van Buren & Co. received their orders from Tam-many-Hall, and that one poster which had already been put up near Tam-many headquarters was afterward pasted over with a sheet bearing another advertisement. The poster announcing the meeting bore a cartoon of Murphy, represented as a fat contract, with a hollow tile dangling from his person.

The concrete people say they will sue Van Buren & Co. for violating their contract.

The members of the crew who were uninjured were disarmed and forced by the Moors to run their vessel into Melilla, where the Moors were landed and joined the rebel army.

Though short handed, the Spanish sailors managed to work their ship back into Tangler to-day.

The piracy has been reported to the Spanish and Moroccan authorities, but as the pirates have joined the rebel army there is little chance that they be captured and punished.

STEINBERG WAS GAY

Made a Hit at Mountaindale-Now He Faces the Grand Jury.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., July 19 .-Harry Steinberg, eighteen years old who has been cutting quite a dash among the summer boarders at Moun taindale, Sullivan County, disappeared from the summer hotel of Simor Tems, at that place, on Sunday, Shortly after his disappearance guests of the hotel reported that they missed articles of jewelry.

On taking stock it was said that two ladies' gold watches, one gentle-man's gold watch, a gold chain, gold bracelet several valuable size. bracelet, several valuable rings and $19 in bills had been taken from various rooms while the guests were eating breakfast.

Steinberg, who has been very popu lar with the guests of the hotel, did not make his appearance after break-fast and he was suspected. Search was made for him and it was learned that he had walked ten miles to Monticello and taken an evening train fo New York.

Telegrams were sent to stations all along the line and the fugitive was taken off the train here by Detective Grant Wilson, who found the stolen articles in the young man's pockets.

He confessed his crime to Detective
Wilson and was taken back to Mountaindale, where court was held before Justice Kinne at 2 o'clock this morn-ing, and Steinberg was held in $1,000 for the grand jury. He could not get bondsmen and went to jail. He said Philadelphia, but the detective be-lieves that he is a well-known New York hotel sneak thief.

Congressman Tawney Says Roosevelt's Prosecutor Drew $23,000 for Inaction.

WASHINGTON, July 19. - That Francis J. Heney, the San Francisco prosecutor, drew $23,000 from the Federal treasury in the past fiscal year for which he performed no service was the rather startling admission made in the House to-day by Repe sentative Tawney, chairman of the Committee on Appropriations. Mr. Tawney's admission provoked a debate in which some sharp things were said about Mr. Roosevelt's favorite prosecutor. It was brought out that during his connection with the Govern ment as a special counsel to prosecute land frauds Mr. Heney had been paid in all about $65,000, and for a part in all about $65,000, and for a part of the time while on the pay roll he is charge that most of them are the money he received.

The discussion as to Heney's connection with the Government was caused by a provision in the deficiency bill appropriating $27,000 for the pa General in special cases. Some of the members wanted to know whether any part of this appropriation would be paid to Mr. Heney. Mr. Tawney replied in the negative. He was then asked a question which brought the answer disclosing that Mr. Heney had been retained by the Government for special work in certain cases, but that the department records showed that he had performed no work in such Confers With Westchester County District Attorney on Sanity Hearing.

Harry K. Thaw, who is still in the White Plains jail awaiting the resump. tion of the hearing next Monday to determine his sanity, deplored the recent statement of his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, concerning his conduct after his marriage. He seemed greatly that his home is at 309 Masten street, aroused over her statement, which be- charged him with maltreating an attendant at a London hotel, the Carlton, and then rubbing salt into his wounds. Mrs. Mary Thaw, however, the prisoner's mother, has adhered consistently to her attitude of refusing to discuss matters for publication, and she intimated that the attitude of her son's wife did not seem to her of sufficient importance to warrant breaking he rule. It was learned yesterday that District Attorney Jerome, of New York, and District Attorney Francis S. Wins. ow, of Westchester County, held a conference at Saranac Inn, which may have some bearing upon the Thaw Mr. Jerome has been on a three weeks camping trip in the Adiron-dacks, but that he is following the case closely is indicated by the fact hat this conference is the second since the hearing on Thaw's sanity was entered into. District Attorney Winslow is directly assisting the state's counsel, Deputy Attorney General Clarke, in the case. Dr. Ernest Schmidt, who is in at-

(Special to The Call.)

DENVER, July 19 .- Yanco Terzich. prising the Alaska and Yukon territories of the Western Federation of was shot so that he will die. Miners, gave an account of the hardships that are endured by the mintion of Miners' National Convention,

Terzich received the reappointment of organizer for Alaska from the last annual convention, and was sent immediately to Douglas, Alaska to take charge of the strike at the Treadwell Mines. President Moyer also left in August for Douglas Isiand for the purpose of investigating the strike situation there and to bring about a settlement if possible. Moyer tried on several occasions to get an interview with Superintendent Kenzie, of these mines, which are owned by the Guggenheims, one of whom is United States Senator for Colorado, but Kinzie refused. President Moyer addressed several meet-ings of the public and the striking miners of this territory which were attended by the biggest crowds ever gathered in Alaska.

Asked to Be Organized.

was reported broadcast at that the capitalist press of the territory that the Western Federation of Miners had sent a number of organmen against their will, but the truth is that the workers themselves voluntarily wrote to the officers of the W. F. of M. for a charter because of the unbearable conditions under which they had to work. As soon as this became known in the territory, especially in Southern Alaska, the people living around the mines assisted the unions of the miners. It is hardly necessary to say that the capitalists of Tread-well and their allies were sore, especially at the people of Juneau, who gave great assistance to the strikers. One of the yellow sheets controlled by the company had editorials which were copied by the other capitalist papers, stating day after day that the people should beware of President Moyer, because he was a murderer. President Mover also visited Prince Rupert for the purpose of trying to get employment for some of the striking members. To many of the unem members. To many of the unem-ployed and striking miners in Alaska transportation and financial assistance was given liberally in order that they might secure work at some other It has sent all the single men from Douglas Island who were on strike or unemployed to Seattle and other points, giving them their transportation and $3 each for meals, as every ne of them was "broke."

Organizer Terzich said that the Treadwell Mining Company kept constantly shipping up men on every boat, most of them being foreigners, who were shipped under Most of these unfortunate foreigners were absolutely ignorant regarding the conditions of Alaska. They were told by the agents who shipped them that they were to work on a railroad, and when they found out to their great sorrow that they were to work in the mines, they protested most vehemently, but that was no use to them. The mining company paid their passage up and they were told they

COUPLE DANCED 13 HOURS.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 19 .- Merry dancers who have the Marathon craze broke all records on the dance floor at Bay View Beach, Fifty-two couple took the floor when the dance began.
At the finish, thirteen hours and fifteen minutes later, John Daly, of Lackawanna, and his partner. Miss Edith Torado, were the only dancers on the floor. This broke all known records, as the best previous record of continuous dancing is said to be ten hours and fifteen minutes.

"NO MATTER WHAT THE COST."

President Hoffstot, of the Pressed Steel Car Company, has dewared that there is nothing to arbitrate, nothing to discuss. The plants, he has decided, must be started this morning, NO MATTER WHAT THE COST.

Within four hours after Mr. Hoffstot's statement was published military surveyors were at work on the hills surrounding McKees Rocks. Detachments of State Constabulary were thrown out as picktts to keep the work of the officers from being discovered. Sites for batteries were selected.

It may cost the State of Pennsylvania hundreds of thousands of dollars, but the plants must be started this morning, for so President Hoffstot has decided.

It may cost many human lives, but the plants must be started this morning. President Hoffstot has so decided.

President Hoffstot has decided that the underpaying of his workmen must be resumed immediately. He has decided that the swindling of his workmen must be resumed immediately. He has decided that the daily maiming and killing of his workmen must no longer e delayed, but must be resumed immediately, NO MATTER WHAT THE COST.

And the great State of Pennsylvania, the second in the Union, humbly hastened to carry out its masters' orders. Within four hours it set to work to erect a fortress, to furnish it with artillery, and to garrison it.

The Grand Khan of Tartary has commanded. His obedient vassal, his humble slave kisses his stirrup, gives thanks for his lofty condescension in imparting his mighty commands to so worthless a ave, begs for a few hours'-only four hours-time for preparation and rushes off to execute the command, NO MATTER WHAT THE

The Grand Khan of Tartary will get his mound of human heads.

THE "REWARD OF RISK."

The strike at McKees Rocks has brought to light a curious fact. Alexander Berkman, who seventeen years ago attempted to kill Mr. H. C. Frick and served his full term of imprisonment for his crime, is being kept under surveillance by detectives who are paid by Mr. Prick $10,000 a year for their services.

Now that a new steel strike is on, Mr. Hoffstot and other great captains of industry are trembling with fear. Their detectives have suddenly discovered that they have lost sight of Alexander Berkman at this critical juncture. Their trembling increases. In their guilty laginations they face him with revolver and dagger in his avenging hands. More detectives must therefore be hired to safeguard their preclous lives. President Hoffstot is accessible to few others than his confidential clerks.

We would suggest that it might prove a very profitable business for the detectives to produce a few counterfeit Alexander Berkmans. No harm whatsoever need be done. But their income would thereby be greatly increased.

But compare the cowardice of the masters with the indomitable urage of the workers. The former dread a solitary or imaginary Alexander Berkman, who even in ordinary times would find it difficult enough to reach them in their well-guarded offices. The latter have to face death every day of the year in a thousand forms in mine or mill. Everyone of them knows that his last hour may strike at any oment in consequence of an explosion or the slipping of a mass of molten metal.

The masters, for risking their capital, get their reward in diviends and interests and high social position. The workers, for riskg their lives, get their reward in hard labor, starvation wages, con tabulary and injunctions.

AN ENDLESS GAME.

According to the Pittsburg Leader, an evening newspaper, the following advertisement appeared in newspapers of Pittsburg: MEN WANTED.

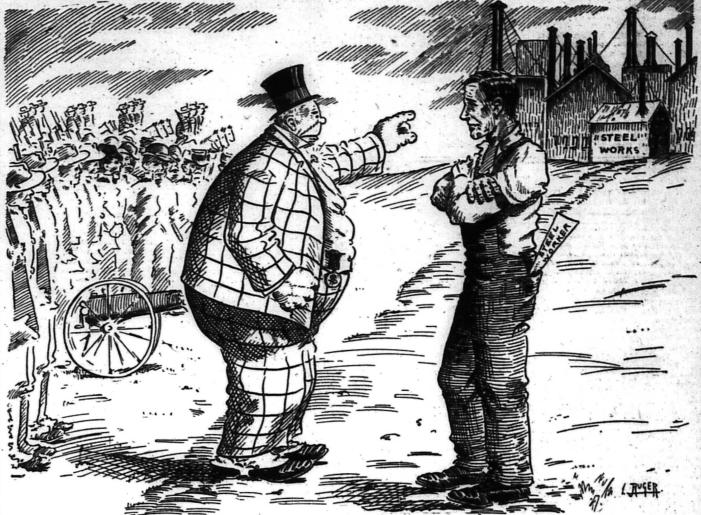

Tinners, Catchers and Helpers—To work in open shops.

SYRIANS, POLES AND ROUMANIANS preferred. Steady employment and good wages to men willing to work. Fare paid and no fees charged.

These men are wanted by the Steel Trust to take the place of the striking Amalgamated men. Americans are not wanted. Englishmen, Irishmen are not wanted. Germans are not wanted. No working men accustomed to modern capitalistic conditions and able in a sure to protect themselves by combining in a labor union are Wanted. Even Italians, Hungarians and Slovaks are no longer in wanted. These too have become unmanageable. The Trust is now compelled to scour the ends of the earth to secure submissive slaves. When these, too, will no longer be able to bear the terrible burden imposed upon them by the plutocracy, fresh sources of slavery will have to be tapped. Thus does the hideous game proceed without aprent end, unless the workmen decide to put an end to it themselves by taking control of the Government, as well as the Trusts, its present masters.

The strikers committed a horrible crime. They burned the effect of President Hoffstot. For this un-American act—it was not of American education. It is the psychology to the psychology of President Hoffstot. Americans that burned the effigy of George the Third-the "foreigners" were properly chastised by the constabulary.

At President Hoffstot's works workmen have been burnt dailynot in effigy, but in person, burnt to death. No constabulary, no militia, no police, no courts, no church of God ever interfered with THEIR burning. They were merely the daily sacrifices demanded by the Moloch of capital. Sacred offerings, which it were a "kind of crilege" to disturb or discontinue,

"Crimes of Corporations"—what a full product of their labor and that to take any of it away from them in to take any of it away from them in the guise of profit is robbery.

Professor W. H. Beveridge, of Oxford, late member of the Central (Unemployed) Body for London, has written a book on "Unemployment," and his conclusion is that the thing "cannot be eliminated without an entire reconstruction of the industrial creder;" in other words, Socialism, eh. Professor? You, at least, see a mile farther than "God Knows" Taft.
