Information from the Wisconsin city tells of possible interference, not from the officials, but from religious organizations.

HOT CONTEST ON IN MINE WORKERS SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Dec. 6.—The election of officers in the United Mine Workers, which takes place on December 13, promises to be a lively contest so far as the presidency is concerned, and from present indications John P. OFFICERS OF BATH TUB TRUST INDICTED WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The president and other officers of sixteen companies, comprising the bathing trust, have been indicted by the federal grand jury in Detroit for violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. If the officers are convicted they will be liable to jail sentences, and the department undoubtedly will bend every effort to have such punishment meted out instead of fines. CAL. GIRLS WOULDN'T DANCE WITH JAPANESE PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 6.—Much unpleasant feeling has been caused through an invitation extended by the Hotel Maryland's manager to a ball which he proposed to give in honor of officers of the Japanese squadron now at Los Angeles. It soon came to the manager's ears that society girls living in the hotel as well as those in Pasadena had declared that they would not dance with the Japanese officers. He made a canvass and found that sentiment against the Oriental officers was practically unanimous, so the only thing he could do was to call off the ball. The Japanese admiral regarded this cancelling of the ball as a direct insult to his nation so he canceled invitations to a return dance on his ship and today refused permission to Long Beach school children to visit the ship.

TURKEY RELIES ON THE CAPITALIST CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 6.—"Old Abdul Hamid dead, France, Belgium, and above all the United States interested in our affairs and their capitalists interested in our industries, solidarity of the present constitution of government of Turkey is assured." E. Aknoun, Armenian lecturer, writer and leader of the Armenian revolutionists, makes this statement here. "There is a reason for my deploring the death of Abdul Hamid," Aknoun said. "As long as he lives, in prison or exile, with $100,000,000 at his disposal in the banks of England, so long will there be strife and bloodshed in our country. I am here to create a feeling of interest in our affairs among Americans. I want their capitalists to interest themselves in our industries and force competition on a nation which threatens the overthrow of its government." "We desire the return of the revolutionists. Their knowledge of sciences will be a blessing for the betterment of the Turkish empire."
