

Over the Water

A meeting was organized by the French Union of Trades at the Bureau de Travail to receive the report of the delegates of the Labor Peace Congress...

The Madras "Hindu" comments on the action of Mr. Markham, a Liberal member of the English parliament...

The anti-clerical movement in Bohemia is said to be rapidly gaining ground.

The reason for the sympathy which Socialists feel with the nationalist movements in Austria, Italy, Spain, Mexico, and elsewhere...

Attention was called by the "Sun" some time ago to an interesting movement initiated by the Vatican for the formation of leagues of Catholic workmen...

It is now announced by the Vatican that the scheme has met with phenomenal success. In Rome there is a branch with 2,000 members.

Anti-christianism is spreading rapidly in Mexico, especially among the educated youth of the country.

Mexican industry is developing rapidly. Many American capitalists have been largely successful in new railroads and manufacturing enterprises.

Socialism and invention. Under Socialism everything would sink to one dead level of mediocrity in consequence of attempting to give practical effect to the theory of "to everyone according to his needs."

The following day Allman spoke again in Peckskill and many who had not been to the preceding meeting attended.

On Tuesday, July 23, Comrades F. Simmonds, T. W. Phillips, and Allman went to Centerville, where a good meeting was held.

The last and best meeting was held in Peckskill on Saturday, July 27. Comrade Allman having spoken first, he was followed by Comrade Phillips.

On Saturday, July 27, Comrade Allman having spoken first, he was followed by Comrade Phillips. The meeting was held in Peckskill.

On Saturday, July 27, Comrade Allman having spoken first, he was followed by Comrade Phillips. The meeting was held in Peckskill.

many who have conferred invaluable blessings on mankind but who have been allowed to die poor and neglected. Now we are told that a young Burley weaver has invented an appliance which should do effect a revolution in the weaving industry.

The following candidates for county officers have been nominated by the Socialist party of Philadelphia: District attorney, William Feinbois; recorder of deeds, Frederick Haacker; clerk of the quarter sessions, George Felder; receiver of taxes, Frederick Scorsetti.

The third annual "Workers' Call" picnic, held Sunday, July 14, was an unqualified success. It is reported as being the "greatest event of the kind ever held in Chicago."

A new branch, composed of German workmen, has been organized in Orange, N. J. largely through the efforts of Comrade Robinson of Newark.

William A. Kennedy is now business manager of the Haverhill "Social Democrat," enabling Comrade Edlin to give his whole time as editor.

Comrade Scott-Anderson, state organizer, reports successful meetings in San Bernardino, Perris, Riverside, Corona, and other points in the South.

Propaganda in San Francisco is booming. Over thirty new subscribers were gained in a short period recently.

Comrade De M. S. Ford of Glen Falls, N. Y. has been a great worker for the cause among the paper makers and other workmen of that town.

Local Gatesburg, Ill. adopted a resolution in favor of the name "Socialist Party." August Klonke is Gatesburg's delegate to the convention.

The Harlem Agitation Committee has arranged to hold regular Sunday afternoon agitation meetings at Fort George. The course was begun last Sunday.

The steadiest excursion held two weeks ago by the comrades of Minneapolis and St. Paul is reported to have been a complete success. This is the fourth annual excursion held by the Twin City Socialists.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

PARTY NOTES.

Branch 1, S. D. P., Cleveland, has elected the following officers: Organizer, Willard E. Derby; recording and corresponding secretary, W. B. Ryan; financial secretary, A. A. Sivan; treasurer, Charles F. Schmidt; delegates to central committee, William Edwards, Robert Handlow, Wm. Baylor.

The following candidates for county officers have been nominated by the Socialist party of Philadelphia: District attorney, William Feinbois; recorder of deeds, Frederick Haacker; clerk of the quarter sessions, George Felder; receiver of taxes, Frederick Scorsetti.

The third annual "Workers' Call" picnic, held Sunday, July 14, was an unqualified success. It is reported as being the "greatest event of the kind ever held in Chicago."

A new branch, composed of German workmen, has been organized in Orange, N. J. largely through the efforts of Comrade Robinson of Newark.

William A. Kennedy is now business manager of the Haverhill "Social Democrat," enabling Comrade Edlin to give his whole time as editor.

Comrade Scott-Anderson, state organizer, reports successful meetings in San Bernardino, Perris, Riverside, Corona, and other points in the South.

Propaganda in San Francisco is booming. Over thirty new subscribers were gained in a short period recently.

Comrade De M. S. Ford of Glen Falls, N. Y. has been a great worker for the cause among the paper makers and other workmen of that town.

Local Gatesburg, Ill. adopted a resolution in favor of the name "Socialist Party." August Klonke is Gatesburg's delegate to the convention.

The Harlem Agitation Committee has arranged to hold regular Sunday afternoon agitation meetings at Fort George. The course was begun last Sunday.

The steadiest excursion held two weeks ago by the comrades of Minneapolis and St. Paul is reported to have been a complete success. This is the fourth annual excursion held by the Twin City Socialists.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

Comrade Heron speaks in the Socialist Temple, 120 South Western avenue, Chicago, on Friday night of last week. Even the capitalist papers admit that two thousand persons were in the hall.

GENERAL COMMITTEE.

Officers Elected and Arrangements Made for Campaign Work.

Jos. W. Hooley and Charles Lane presided in last Saturday's meeting of the General Committee, at which a number of new delegates presented their credentials and election applications were admitted to membership in the party.

T. C. E. G. reported visiting the 28th and 30th Assembly Districts, which were found in good condition and ready to begin an active campaign about the first of September.

It was announced that arrangements were being made for five meetings to be held in the near future and addressed by Comrade Kie, Geizer, who is now on an open-air agitation tour.

Officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows: Organizer, Julius Gerber; recording secretary, Edw. M. Martin; financial secretary, George Finger; treasurer, Wm. J. P. Hamman; City Executive, Job Harrington; Henry Sloboidin, Wm. Mally, Ernest Spranger, Charles Lane, T. A. Hopkin, and J. D. Mayer.

The organizer reported that 1,014 signatures of members in good standing were affixed to the credentials of the three delegates elected to the Indianapolis Convention, and that other comrades representing six votes were also to be present as individuals.

It was decided to hold the ratification meeting for Manhattan at Cooper Union on Saturday, October 12. A committee, consisting of Comrades Hopkins, Clayton, and Arthur, will be selected to select the place for the Brooklyn ratification meeting.

The organizer was instructed to call a general meeting in the large hall of the Labor Lyceum, to hear the report of the delegates to the National Convention. The secretary was instructed to correspond with Local Hudson County, to find out the facts in the Richmond case.

Five hundred girls employed in the conk-making factories of Meyer, Wolfe, and Wild & Co., and several other manufacturers went on strike in sympathy with about 1,300 men who are out for recognition of the union.

The striking garment weavers of Paterson have scored an important success. On Monday the Collinge & Nelson Company, silk manufacturers, declined to grant the demands of the strikers, and to give its weavers a 15 per cent. advance.

The Newark garment workers' strike ended in victory. Practically all the firms conceded the strikers' demands.

HARLEM AGITATION COMMITTEE AT WORK.

The Harlem Agitation Committee held the work of the campaign last Sunday afternoon with an open-air meeting at Fort George, One Hundred and Eighty-fourth street and Amsterdam avenue. Comrade Hobart C. Fash of the 31st A. D. took the stand and made an interesting address.

The comrades are well satisfied with the beginning made at Fort George, and will continue their efforts. A meeting will be held at the same place every Sunday at 4 p. m. Comrades and sympathizers in Harlem are urged to assist in the work.

The campaign committee of the 34th and 25th Assembly Districts was organized at a meeting held in the clubroom, 3309 Third avenue, on July 27. It was decided that if any member of the committee misses three consecutive meetings, his organization shall be called upon to elect another in his place.

The meetings held by Comrade Geizer, Origo, and Sparo at Catskill, Hon. Johnson, Frankfort, Troy, Utica, Corfu, and other places in this state have had a very good effect. Slowly, indeed, but none the less surely, Socialism is making headway wherever a few earnest comrades are willing to work for it.

The government of the country is not at Washington, but in the Stock Exchange on Wall Street. The public schools of America, those institutions which mean up to the eyes of the world, which are spoken of with such pride and reverence on every patriotic school day, are in the hands of the capitalists.

Even war histories are under control, the extent to which the youth of this land that the methods pursued by these scoundrels are good and true, and that the poor laboring man must be kept down because he is ignorant and has no business to interfere in the affairs of his country.

The young man, on entering life, finds the way is heavily emphasized by the state with a view to the ways of trade have grown up to the borders of their own and to the borders of their own and to the borders of their own.

The young man, on entering life, finds the way is heavily emphasized by the state with a view to the ways of trade have grown up to the borders of their own and to the borders of their own.

The Economic Struggle.

The bakers of Moyersford and Spring City, Pa. have unanimously resolved to stop night work altogether.

A strike of teamsters was declared in San Francisco on July 25.

Brewers' Union No. 2, at its last meeting, elected Louis Hasseman, A. Kutscher, and C. Mueller as delegates to the Local Executive Committee.

Rather a new thing in the labor world is a strike of the agents of the North American Life Insurance Company at Toronto, Canada.

Fifteen thousand men went on strike in San Francisco, Tuesday, tying up all traffic along shore and much other industry. The strikers are sailors, longshoremen, marine firemen, teamsters, porters, packers, ship workers, bridge builders, and shipyard workers.

The entertainment and ball held by the Ladies' Shirt Waist Makers' Union last Friday for the benefit of the strikers at the National Shirt Waist Company was a great success.

Chicago officials of the International Association of Machinists announced Tuesday that the strike in Chicago was practically over and that the nine-hour day, so far as this city is concerned, has been firmly established.

Chicago officials of the International Association of Machinists announced Tuesday that the strike in Chicago was practically over and that the nine-hour day, so far as this city is concerned, has been firmly established.

Chicago officials of the International Association of Machinists announced Tuesday that the strike in Chicago was practically over and that the nine-hour day, so far as this city is concerned, has been firmly established.

Chicago officials of the International Association of Machinists announced Tuesday that the strike in Chicago was practically over and that the nine-hour day, so far as this city is concerned, has been firmly established.

FROM THE WORKERS.

Comrade Sweceland of Bristol, Conn., in sending in a bunch of four new subscriptions to The Worker, writes: "Send me another paper, I will faithfully send the money."

The New York Socialist Literary Society has elected Comrades Kestbaum, Ginsberg, and Karlinisky as delegates to the Worker Conference.

Comrade Fred Lennon of Alabama continues to send in subscriptions and in a recent letter says: "I am glad to know that The Worker is being spread and will do all I can to increase its circulation."

The Minnesota comrades are working hard to increase the subscription list of The Worker. They have an election this year and are putting in their efforts to lay a solid foundation for next year's campaign.

Comrade William Mahoney of Illinois is heard from again with nine yearly subscribers to his credit. In addition, he says: "I believe The Worker is as good an instrument to awaken thought and lead to conversion as any that can be found."

Branch 7 of the Social Democratic Women's Society resolved to take five copies a week of The Worker for the next six months.

The young man, on entering life, finds the way is heavily emphasized by the state with a view to the ways of trade have grown up to the borders of their own and to the borders of their own.

The young man, on entering life, finds the way is heavily emphasized by the state with a view to the ways of trade have grown up to the borders of their own and to the borders of their own.

TO COMBINE THE GROCERY STORES.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

There is said to be a proposition afoot to combine at least three thousand of the five thousand five hundred retail grocery stores of Philadelphia into one corporation.

MAY NOT WANT TROLLEY FARES.

The Supreme Court of Errors of the state of Connecticut has decided, in the case of the Fair Haven and Westville Railroad Company against the City of New Haven, that the city has no power in granting a right of way to a trolley car to put a limit upon the fares to be charged.

The municipal authorities of New Haven granted the petition of the company to lay a double track to East Haven, with the proviso that only a five-cent fare should be charged between New Haven and Morris Cove. The company, resenting the condition, appealed to the courts.

The Supreme Court of Errors of the state of Connecticut has decided, in the case of the Fair Haven and Westville Railroad Company against the City of New Haven, that the city has no power in granting a right of way to a trolley car to put a limit upon the fares to be charged.

The municipal authorities of New Haven granted the petition of the company to lay a double track to East Haven, with the proviso that only a five-cent fare should be charged between New Haven and Morris Cove. The company, resenting the condition, appealed to the courts.

The Supreme Court of Errors of the state of Connecticut has decided, in the case of the Fair Haven and Westville Railroad Company against the City of New Haven, that the city has no power in granting a right of way to a trolley car to put a limit upon the fares to be charged.

The municipal authorities of New Haven granted the petition of the company to lay a double track to East Haven, with the proviso that only a five-cent fare should be charged between New Haven and Morris Cove. The company, resenting the condition, appealed to the courts.

The Supreme Court of Errors of the state of Connecticut has decided, in the case of the Fair Haven and Westville Railroad Company against the City of New Haven, that the city has no power in granting a right of way to a trolley car to put a limit upon the fares to be charged.

The municipal authorities of New Haven granted the petition of the company to lay a double track to East Haven, with the proviso that only a five-cent fare should be charged between New Haven and Morris Cove. The company, resenting the condition, appealed to the courts.

Don't write on both sides of paper. CORRESPONDENCE. Don't send anonymous letters.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Woman's Protest. Editor of The Worker. I have just read your issue of July 27, and I am glad to see that you have published the letter of a woman who protests against the treatment of women in the labor market.

A Friendly Criticism.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

Editor of The Worker. In your third article on "Socialist Economics" you make the error common to most writers on this subject, and you are not explaining the difference between value and price, also an almost universal error of the kind.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

The establishment of economic equality, including the economic independence of women, is the only way to the realization of the theory of moral feeling in the modern world.

No Socialist Need Apply.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

Editor of The Worker. "Morning Call" in the original issue of the 10th of the month of organized labor in Pease County, in Ontario, Canada, has published an advertisement for the purpose of recruiting labor, a advertisement forwarded to me by the editor of the "Morning Call" in Pease County, Ontario, Canada.

