"Gain or Freedom," Sacco

Class War Prisoner on Hunger Strike

By KARL PRETSHOLD, Written Specially for "The Worker"
DEDHAM, Mass.—In Dedham jail "Nick" Sacco paces his cell and waits for freedom—or for death. Three times every day since February 15th food has been brought to his cell and three times it has been taken away untouched. Nick is on a hunger strike. A month for complete freedom—freedom obtained if necessary thru death.

Harding to Political Prisoner: "Well, are you ready to believe in Normalcy?"

NEWS NOTE—Following the adjournment of Congress, President and Mrs. Harding left for Palm Beach, Fla., for an extended vacation. Consideration of the cases of political prisoners will be put off for a few months longer. This question must not be allowed to interfere with the President's going.

Communist International Urges Unity Against Persecution of U. S. Radicals

The Workers Party has received a telegram from the Communist International as follows:
Sent today following cable to Industrial Workers of the World, Chicago.
Communist International greets brave members of your organization who are fighting against capitalism and government oppression on Pacific Coast.
The recent Portland and Sacramento convictions and wholesale arrests in San Pedro, Calif. do honor to the courageous I. W. W.
The appeal of the I. W. W. of that region for a united front of all workers is to be commended. The Communist International has called upon all militant workers everywhere to unite in the struggle against capitalism and oppression. There should be a united front of all class-conscious working class organizations in America against all exploitation and oppression, and we note with pleasure the splendid efforts of the Workers Party towards fraternal greetings to all revolutionary workers in American prisons as they sing live the unity and class solidarity of the American working class.

The Workers Party stands with the Communist International in its appeal to the workers of the United States to form a united front against persecution and oppression of the workers and against the whole capitalist system of exploitation. The Workers Party has upon numerous occasions shown its willingness to form a united front with all workers who are ready for the struggle against capitalism. It is now prepared to work with and fight with the members of the I. W. W. who, like the Communists, are oppressed and persecuted by the capitalist government.

Celebration of Paris Commune

The workers of New York will celebrate the Paris Commune with a big concert and mass meeting Friday, March 16th, at 8 p. m., at the New Star Casino, 107th St. and Lexington Ave., New York.
The concert will be given by the famous Russian quartet, who will play compositions from Wagner, Beethoven, Chabrier and Russian folk songs. The magnificent Orchestra of the "Workers' Circle," which is very popular among the workers, with the International Chorus will sing revolutionary songs. Music also by the Queens College 1916 and Drums Corps.
Tickets are on sale at the local office of the Workers Party, 208 East 12th St., The Freshet, 47 Chrystie St., Volksteine, 15 Spruce St., and all party branches.

Unity of All Labor, Aim of International

By ARNE SWABECK
(DELEGATE OF THE TRADE UNION EDUCATIONAL LEAGUE TO THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF THE RED INTERNATIONAL OF LABOR UNIONS)
How the Amsterdam Trade Union International crowd collaborated with the capitalist offensive in launching a violent campaign of expulsions of militant unionists, and the locals supporting them, was illustrated by the report of the Executive Bureau of the Second Congress of the Red International of Labor Unions.

It was substantiated by the delegates; with particular reference to those despatched to their respective countries. "The enemy is on the left," was the battle cry adopted by the speaking group, who said that the labor movement must be re-organized rather than to sacrifice the labor movement. While they had been extremely inactive in resisting the capitalist offensive, they were insolent, aggressive and energetic whenever the issue was to fight the revolutionary workers. Clearly it could be seen that these attacks were essentially nothing but a part of the social battles between capital and labor.

The Amsterdam International being on the other side of the barricade is training its heavy guns at the labor movement. However, this policy is a logical deduction of their position; for any other policy would make it difficult for them to save the capitalist system.
The Amsterdam attack upon the trade unions is not limited to national boundaries. At its last congress in Rome, held jointly with the secretariats of the international industrial federations, it adopted a resolution to the effect that revolutionary unions must have no place in these industrial federations. This resolution has since been rigidly carried out. During the last year the Russian Unions were either expelled or refused admittance to the international federations of their respective industries. The formal motive for the expulsions was that these unions are connected with the Red International of Labor Unions. The real reason, however, is that they have been actively participating in the upbuilding of a Workers' Republic, that they are connected with the Soviet Government, that they are permeated with the spirit of Communism and constitute the basis of —The coal miners' federation is demanding that steps be taken to avert the evil of irregular employment in the industry in Australia. A minimum 30-hour week is suggested.

The miners' manifesto says: "The fact cannot be disputed that the coal miners of Australia can produce in 30 hours a week all the coal the country would possibly use, provided that they are allowed reasonably steady work."

Some Junk!

KANSAS CITY.—When Harrison George, political prisoner, served his full term at Leavenworth federal penitentiary, he was given the regulation about suit and overcoat as his "coming out clothes."
The material was next to worthless and he did not want to bunko a shivering Russian by donating the government surplus prison overcoat for Russian relief so he put it up for auction at a radical bazaar.
The overcoat was knocked down for $12 as a souvenir and the sum sent to the Friends of Soviet Russia for relief work in Russia.

Cite Hostility, Ask New Court in Michigan

By WILLIAM E. FOSTER and 21 other labor men accused at criminal prosecution in Toledo, Ohio, who claim that opinion in Berrien county has been influenced against the men and that Judge Charles E. White has been induced for re-election by some of the hostile groups.
The Michigan criminal syndicate law was violated. The usefulness of the bill to the defense is impaired by the assertion of the prosecution that it is incomplete.
D. L. Smith, assistant attorney general of Michigan, in charge of the prosecution, is repeating the familiar tales of "startling revelations" about attempts at wholesale slaughter and reign of terror to be instituted by the communists as a result of the convention of Aug. 21, 1922. He has promised to reveal the revelations when Foster, the first defendant, goes on trial March 7.

The air is still full of charges and evasive details that secret money from outside the state is to pay the expense of the trials for Berrien county.

Hit at Coal Profiteers in Herring Trial

By McALISTER COLEMAN
(Staff Correspondent, Federated Press and "The Worker")
MARION, Ill.—The defense will show in this case, said A. W. Kerr, chief counsel for the Illinois Mine Workers, in his opening address to the jury in the second of the Herring trials here, "that the real murderers, the men with wicked, malicious hearts who came into Williamson county last June were those armed guards of Leaser's who brought with them instruments of death and destruction."
"The miners' union was the pride of the county. It had raised men from the status of slaves working 14 to 15 hours a day at the rate of 23 cents a ton. W. J. Lester, the strip mine operator, said: 'We will mine coal with blood if necessary, mine coal with blood if necessary, mine coal with blood if necessary.'"

"I refuse to permit my imprisonment to continue without voicing a protest. I refuse to eat till I am released. I think that is the only way. I will obtain my freedom if necessary thru death. I am innocent and I will be free."
"Workers in America cannot obtain justice as American courts look upon Moorey! He will spend the rest of his life in prison for all the assets of America care to do or can do. No one in America believes him guilty, yet he is in prison. For my part I would rather die protesting than continue in prison any longer."

Urge 15,000 Hear Borah at "Garden"

(By F.B.R. Press Service)
If New York matches the record of Chicago and Boston in its reception of "Fighting Bill" Borah, U. S. senator of Idaho, Madison Square Garden, the it is the largest gathering place in the city and holds 15,000 people, will not be large enough for the occasion. On March 16th he will speak in the Garden on the question of immediate reorganization of Soviet Russia.
The meeting will be under the auspices of the National Labor Alliance for Trade Relations with and Recognition of Russia. William H. Johnston, President of the International Association of Machinists, who is on the national advisory committee of the Labor Alliance, will preside.

Cannon Rouses Great Enthusiasm

(BY TELEGRAPH TO "THE WORKER")
BOSTON, MASS.—The first meeting of James P. Cannon's tour, at Lynn, was a big success. A good crowd heard with enthusiasm the inspiring story of the First Workers' Republic, which still stands firm as another hour.
The speech was packed with facts and unvarnished with humorous and dramatic statements of the struggle and the whole working class population of Peabody and the Red Army on the fields. Cannon spoke for two hours and answered questions for another hour. The crowd was so large that Cannon had to step into a deep feeling of solidarity with those daring ones who have fought so long and so bravely and who still have faith and courage to fight on. After the meeting a Workers Party branch was organized.
A list of the meetings at which Cannon is scheduled to speak will be found on Page Five. Arrangements for his speaking in Ohio, Michigan and Indiana are now being made.

Russian Educational Conference

By ELA REEVE BLOOR

Delegates of Minnesota, Michigan, Trades and Labor Union, to the Second World Congress of the International of Labor Unions

Among the many conferences held in Moscow, while we were there none were more important than the Educational Conference of the Communist Party of the United States for the Americas.

It was very interesting to hear the idea that the appointment to Karelia was in the nature of an exile for Norovets, they thought it was a joke.

He did not seek this position, a his work of building schools and establishing a modern system of education for the people of Karelia seemed to him the most vital thing he could do.

There's chaos in Wisconsin. Political families are splitting over the question of abolishing the state militia. Mrs. Belle Case LaFollette is for it.

The National Civic Federation has organized a committee to furnish American industry with technical information.

Efforts are being made to increase the salary of congressmen from $7,500 to $10,000.

Alderman candidates of the Workers Party, the Farmer Labor Party and the Socialist Party failed to win the recent Chicago primaries.

The congressional "lame ducks" are waddling wending their way homeward from Washington.

Old Parties Applaud Mayor London? says headline in New York Call. The loss Socialist congressman certainly earned the applause from the masses.

Hunger holds from 20 to 33 per cent of America's school children in its grip, says the advisory committee on foods and nutrition of the National Research Council.

George Harvey, U. S. ambassador to London, at a banquet, asked God to bless the Prince of Wales, God, yes, the American ambassador ever promises to let God use his knee breeches while he is doing the job.

King Alfonso, of Spain, denies he will abdicate. He says he is not a deserting king, a fugitive if the workers get after him, and chase him out of the country.

Imperialist France is showing itself more and more willing to open trade relations with Soviet Russia. Must be another confession that the Ruhr fiasco is working on France, internally.

Mussolini and Serrati

Mussolini Serrati was jailed by the Mussolini Fascist dictatorship in Italy on March 1st and released on March 3rd. Italo Serrati, a leading Italian socialist, said the organ of the American Party, "The Worker," spent but two days in prison, that all those arrested with him, with one exception, have also been freed.

The New York Times correspondent hailed the arrest of Serrati as "striking proof of the decline of the Communist power in Italy." "Five months ago Serrati attempted to hold the country in Italy after attending the Fourth Congress and securing affiliation of the majority Italian Socialist Party with the Comintern. The anti-Fascist proclamation of the Communist International was written by him, signed by the Italian delegation to Moscow, and published in the Avanti, now the Communist daily at Milan, of which Serrati is the editor.

The Fascists were not spared in this proclamation. The Italian workers were urged to forget their internal differences and unite against the Mussolini dictatorship. The workers were being reduced to the condition of Chinese coolies under Fascist rule.

Italy's bourgeois order now turns in its tracks, like a bear at bay, and fights back under the high-sounding charge that the delegates to the Communist International had gone to Moscow "to solicit the financial help of a foreign State against the Italian nation."

It is very evident that Italian labor and capitalism are locking horns in a new and greater struggle. The Mussolini government is, no doubt, face to face with a live or the crisis. May we hope that the fate of Italian Fascist rule will also seal the doom of Italian capitalism.

Workers Price Workers Pay

By WILLIAM Z. POETTER

The railroad shopmen's strike, begun on July 1st of last year, still draws its weary course. Approximately 100,000 men are out of work, and the country is being affected by the strike.

It is a bitter price indeed that the shopmen are paying for their faulty form of organization. Had they been properly organized, so that all the railroad crafts could have stood together, this great strike would never have happened.

But as it was, with the unions divided against each other, solidarity depended upon the whims of railroad labor officials like Grubb, Fitzgerald, and others. Consequently, united action was impossible in the strike, and the men were forced to accept the terms of the railroad companies in peace or in their own-flesh.

The Great Northern Settlement. In the past month or so, several roads have "signed up," including the Great Northern. Efforts have been made to bring the railroad men together, but the result is a paper labor, to make it apparent that these settlements are important to the workers.

It is in the past month or so, several roads have "signed up," including the Great Northern. Efforts have been made to bring the railroad men together, but the result is a paper labor, to make it apparent that these settlements are important to the workers.

A Light in the Darkness. The hope for the railroad men in the present writer of reaction, is the amalgamation movement being carried around the International Committee for Amalgamation in the Railroad Industry.

At the famous amalgamation conference in Chicago, Dec. 9th and 10th, the International Committee was instructed to write to the presidents of all the sixteen unions, urging them to participate in a general amalgamation conference.

Only three have replied. Ryan, of the American Railway Union, Blacksmiths, and Fitzgerald, of the Maintenance of Way. The latter alone endorsed the proposition.

This lack of response has moved the International Committee to propose a national referendum on the amalgamation question. It is now taking a national referendum on the amalgamation question.

Every militant in the railroad industry will do his utmost to make effective the work of the International Committee. The Comstock unions must be remodelled, their reactionary leadership swept away, the workers given new hope and new ideals, and a general renovation in the labor movement brought about.

But as it was, with the unions divided against each other, solidarity depended upon the whims of railroad labor officials like Grubb, Fitzgerald, and others. Consequently, united action was impossible in the strike, and the men were forced to accept the terms of the railroad companies in peace or in their own-flesh.

The Great Northern Settlement. In the past month or so, several roads have "signed up," including the Great Northern. Efforts have been made to bring the railroad men together, but the result is a paper labor, to make it apparent that these settlements are important to the workers.

Workers Price Workers Pay

The railroad shopmen's strike, begun on July 1st of last year, still draws its weary course. Approximately 100,000 men are out of work, and the country is being affected by the strike.

It is a bitter price indeed that the shopmen are paying for their faulty form of organization. Had they been properly organized, so that all the railroad crafts could have stood together, this great strike would never have happened.

Establish Workers Control and a Workers Government

Face Billions of Capitalism

(SPECIAL TO "THE WORKER")

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Alexander Howat, released finally from the Kansas jail for violation of the Kansas Industrial Control Law, spoke Sunday afternoon, March 4, at the Labor Lyceum here, before a large and enthusiastic mass convention of the Progressive Miners of District No. 5, United Mine Workers of America.

By this address Howat demonstrated that he stands in the forefront among the men who are destined to lead the American labor movement to the right track at the close of this year, of the labor movements of the world's industrial countries.

Many a man for less grievances than Howat has against the International Union of the United Mine Workers, but the entire labor movement as well. Many under less provocation have declared war upon the mine owners, but Howat is working for the building up of a dual movement. Many have been unable to give any grievances other than his own, and have attempted to begin individual redress, regardless of the grievances of others. But not to Howat.

Truth About Michigan Raids Told Workers

(Special to "The Worker")

DETROIT, Mich.—Organized labor has taken a definite and decisive stand in support of the trade unionists shortly to go on trial in Michigan upon charges of criminal syndicalism. Upon the introduction of a resolution bearing on the case, a stirring debate was held at which it was pointed out that the Michigan criminal syndicalism law could easily be used against the trade union movement and that it was significant that the law is placed under the heading "strikes."

The resolution which was unanimously adopted follows:

WHEREAS, There are twenty odd members of the Trade Union movement under indictment and awaiting trial at Bridgman, Mich., for the alleged violation of the "Criminal Syndicalism Law";

WHEREAS, The Criminal Syndicalism Law is a remnant of the wartime legislation that is intended to prohibit the constitutional right of Americans to Free Speech and Assembly;

WHEREAS, The present arrests are an outgrowth of the farcical efforts of the Bureau of Investigation and other agencies to organize and shake down the employees of the country and frame those who would dare to champion the cause of Labor;

Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That all delegates to the Detroit Federation of Labor appoint a committee, to fully acquaint the Detroit union with the facts in this case and to advise the Detroit State Bar Association from the local labor movement in the name of the Detroit Federation of Labor and the Labor Defense Council, and be it further

RESOLVED, That all delegates to the Detroit Federation of Labor be requested to aid this committee in all ways possible, to the extent of their ability, and particularly when members of the committee appear before the Michigan local union.

Militants in labor organizations throughout the land might well secure the same information, at least, the system cannot persist long enough to develop the necessary for astronomical figures in dealing with finance.

In face of figures already existing the sum must increase, no longer gratify the effect that labor with its few millions can conquer the billions of the great money power.

It is not a mere matter of a delirious mind. It does not require a profound knowledge of history and economics to know that such an eventuality is not within the realm of possibilities in ten years or ten thousand years. (Continued next week.)

Coal Miners' Relief Worker is Arrested; Held 24 Hours, Freed

(Special to "The Worker")

PITTSBURGH, Pa. Within a week to a day in the time that Fred H. Merrick was assaulted by the Mine Workers' official's slugs, J. A. Hamilton, Secretary of the Pittsburgh Miners' Relief Conference who was exposing the tragic situation of the stranded miners in Fayette County was arrested on charges of vagrancy and taken to Liberty Avenue and locked up for 24 hours.

Merrick had been active in arranging the Howat meeting at the Labor Lyceum during the afternoon and had gone down street on his way home when, after having been followed for some time in a taxi cab, he was placed under arrest.

As soon as an attorney began an investigation he was released and it was charged that he was not ridiculous that he was not arrested for a formal hearing.

As workers in other parts of the country may expect such reports from Pittsburgh for some time but the relief and publicity work will go on without fear or favor.

Anna Leisman Dies Victim of New York Prison Conditions

The state of New York killed Anna Leisman, one of the political prisoners, recently released by the Smith. Last Sunday, about two weeks after her release, her funeral was held in New York City. She died of pneumonia, a result of weakness from exposure suffered while in prison. She had served nine months of a savage sentence imposed upon her by the court when she was pardoned.

She was convicted on framed-up testimony supplied by the notorious bombing squad of New York City, arrested for her defense at her trial last summer. She was distributing anti-Communist literature at a May Day Meeting when arrested. As the detectives, though they could not produce the evidence they obtained from her person, they secured a number of propaganda leaflets issued by a Communist group called "May Day of the Revolution," and accused her of distributing them. Her sentence began last August.

Comrade Leisman was 45 years of age, had been in this country 11 years and was a member of the United Workers Party and the United Hat Makers, besides being active in various other organizations. The arrangement to hold a memorial for her was made by the funeral committee.

Among the speakers at the funeral were Marion Emerson, member Central Executive Committee, Workers Party, and Rose Baran, for the National Executive Committee, Kate Gitterman, and Rose Baran, for the National Executive Committee. Kate Gitterman, as well as Minnie Kalinin, were also at the funeral.

Try Slaying Slayers In Penn Court

(Special to "The Worker")

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Three and a half years in the history of Mrs. Fanny Sellins, organizer of the United Mine Workers of America, by deputy sheriffs, three of the thugs are now on trial.

The murder of Mrs. Sellins on August 26, 1919, was one of the most shocking crimes ever perpetrated against labor by corporation hirelings. A strike was in progress in the small town of West Natrona, when a squad of deputies, owned by the Allegheny Steel, Coke and Coal Company, fired upon a group of strikers and sympathizers standing on top of a hill. Mrs. Sellins and Joseph Stroski, an aged man who was a spectator, were killed. After shooting Mrs. Sellins the deputies dragged their beat her head into a pulp with their guns and clubs.

Now, at last, a farcical trial is being held for these assassins, as the result of the constant agitation of the miners to force the state authorities to take action.

Since the Steel corporation owns this section of the country it is plain that the trial is being held to silence the demands for justice on the part of the miners' union. Since the union is determined to "forget" the case it is not to be "properly discussed" it means that the defendants will be whitewashed by a capitalist court.

Ida Rothstein Goes on Tour for Amalgamation in the Needle Trades

As a part of the campaign for amalgamation being conducted by the International Committee of the Needle Trades Section of the Trade Union Educational League, arrangements have been made to send Ida Rothstein, one of the best known members of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, throughout the United States and Canada where statement workers are organized.

Comrade Rothstein will deliver lectures and do organization work. The purpose of the meetings will be to familiarize needle trades workers of the seven needle trade international unions with the program of amalgamation that is now being spread broadcast by the Needle Trades Section of the T. U. E. L. All militants in the towns indicated below are urged to attend the meetings and render every assistance possible. Also the militants interested should connect with the local committee at 208 E. 12th St.

This campaign is a prelude to calling a national conference of all needle trades militants that will take place in New York City on May 3rd and 4th. The following are the places and dates to be covered by Comrade Rothstein:
