Opening of Ruthenberg Trial Shows Foster Victory Verdict Has Taken Pep Out of Michigan Prosecution

Ask Workers Party to Join Unity Effort

An official invitation has been received by the Workers Party, urging it to send delegates to the National Convention of the Farmer-Labor Party to be held in Chicago, beginning July 3. "To take such steps as may be necessary to bring about complete unity of the political forces of the entire working class."

The invitation states that "the earnest effort is being made by the Farmer-Labor Party to bring together the various political organizations—industrial, agricultural and political, with a view to trying to work out a method for uniting the workers of hand and brain, of farm and factory, on the political field—a method that will be acceptable and secure the allegiance of the great body of workers in the country."

It is declared that "in sending delegates your organization commits itself to the following: If possible, to have your organization, time and space, approved and join of fully in such further steps as may be proper and feasible."

The invitation was signed by Jay G. Brown, national secretary of the Farmer-Labor Party, which John H. Walker is the national chairman. The national executive committee consists of William H. Johnson, Mr. Toscan Bennett, William Kohn, John Fitzpatrick, H. Rose Hoek, Max S. Hayes and John C. Kennedy. Johnson was the chairman of the Cleveland Conference for Progressive Political Action that preceded admission to the Workers Party delegates.

The invitation is now being considered by the Central Executive Committee of the Workers Party.

Militancy Is Growing in Strength at Convention of the Steel Workers

By WALLACE T. METCALFE
(Special to "The Worker")

WARREN, Ohio—Resolutions on the Dolls case, the Labor Party's Amalgamation and Political Prisoners are all to come before the convention here of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers.

A bitter fight has been raging within the convention between the rising hosts of militants and the reactionaries led by the Tighe machine.

The rank and file in the "A. A." are bitterly assailing the Czar-like censorship maintained by Editor Diva of the Amalgamated Journal. The editor of this alleged labor paper confines his columns to society notes and has but little space for discussions of direct interest to the members in his union. Knocking the lid off this censorship is now being done by the militants.

The "A. A." officials in their daily news story to the capitalist press, announce that they are about played dead. The plot here affirms this by announcing the care worn looks preying the exalted and almost spiritual facts of the officialdom.

Prepare Big Plans for May Celebration

Elaborate preparations for an immense May Day Celebration in New York City by the United May Day Front Conference are now reaching completion. Plans will be announced in detail in a few days.

In spite of the interference of elements in the labor movement hostile to a real United May Day Front, the executive committee of the May Day Conference, in conjunction with affiliated unions, is making arrangements for a parade and numerous mass meetings.

A permit is granted that the celebration will begin with a parade starting at 10th St. and 2nd Ave. and another group at 10th St. and Lexington Ave., to terminate at Lexington Theatre and the Central Opera House, where mass meetings and concerts will be held. In the evening there will be another large meeting and concert at the New Star Casino, 107th St. and Park Ave.

Still Blandering the "Lefts."

After a few weeks of very hard work, the leaders of the United Hered Trades have finally succeeded in getting together a number of "left" delegates and have used the Conference called by them to celebrate May Day as a means of attacking the left elements in the American Labor Movement.

They went as far as ignoring the decision made by their previous conference, held March 24th, where a Committee of the May Day United Front Conference appeared and invited them to form a joint May Day Committee representing both conferences as a means of avoiding a split in the ranks of Labor on May Day.

The Workers Party and May Day

By C. E. RUTHENBERG,
Executive Secretary, Workers Party

May Day—the day which inspires fear in the hearts of the capitalists and hope in the workers—the workers world over will find the Communist movement this year stronger in the United States than at any time in its history.

Three years ago the Communists of the United States were driven underground, their organization destroyed. They had no relation to the broad working masses and there was no sympathy for their party. They were ostracized, despised and ignored.

May Day of 1922 will find all this changed. The Communist movement, which Palmer and the various state governments which participated in the 1920 persecution, thought they had destroyed, is again carrying on its work in the open. Through the Workers Party it is publicly advocating the principles of communism and winning the support of the workers for these principles.

The Communists organized in the Workers Party are no longer the outcasts of the labor movement. They are on the road to becoming the powerful influence in the labor movement of this country which will influence the millions of workers and give them leadership and direction in the struggle against capitalism.

The inner changes which have taken place in the Party have been a vital factor in achieving this result. The Communist movement in this country is no longer satisfied with dogmatic reiteration of fundamental Communist principles. It holds fast to this principle—it will never compromise on the question of publicly advocating these principles. But it has also learned to apply them. It has learned to make its beginning with the present mental attitude of the workers of the United States. It has learned to realistically study the workers of this country and the facts of their life and to base its policy and tactics, its methods of teaching the American workers that their road to freedom from exploitation and oppression lies through Communism, on the conditions as they exist in the United States.

Every worker who is a Communist can celebrate May Day this year secure in the confidence that the movement he supports has made a great step forward, that the road is clear for greater achievements, that in the United States as elsewhere in the world the future belongs to Communism.

Cahan Dictator of "The Call" as Karsner, Editor, Resigns; More Light on Anti-Soviet Plot

The last issue of "The Worker" carried the story of the secret meeting of the yellow socialist officialdom of New York, on March 29, which decided upon an openly counter-revolutionary policy against Soviet Russia, and the Communists.

The resolution adopted at this meeting called for reprints from capitalist papers of all news unfavorable to Soviet Russia, but restricted so as to conceal its source.

The resolution furthermore declared for a systematic attack against the Communists, seizing every opportunity to carry it on. As a result of

They Try It Again!

(Special Wire to "The Worker")

By THOMAS J. O'FLAHERTY

Editor of "The Voice of Labor"

COURT ROOM, ST. JOSEPH, MICH.—The trial of C. E. Ruthenberg opened here with a sudden burst out of prosecuting by the failure to convict William Z. Foster. In place of the tense situation of the Foster trial, the proceedings in the court room ran along in a sleepy fashion, the prosecution's questioning of jurors shows the effect of the reverse in the Foster case, lacking any aggressiveness and almost apologetic at times.

The first juror helped to deepen the impression of a lost cause, which seems to be in the mind of the attorneys for the state.

Prosecutor Charles W. Gore got the name of this juror as Ray Toney, a farmer of Berrien Township, who owns his own farm of 108 acres, and then proceeded to inquire, "Do you believe the Criminal Syndicalist Law is a good law?"

"I do not," flashed back Mr. Toney.

"Do you believe the Criminal Syndicalist Law should be enforced?" continued Gore.

"I do not," was the answer.

"Have you a fixed opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant?" was Gore's next question.

This incident at the very beginning of the trial of Ruthenberg seemed to have completely demoralized the juror who answered less aggressively.

Mr. Gore showed a peculiar conception of the right of free speech when, after asking a prospective juror whether he believed in free speech, and being answered in the affirmative, he went on to inquire, "By free speech you mean, I suppose, within the limits?" He did not add who was to fix the limits.

A new question asked of the juror by Prosecutor Gore was whether the juror believed that this prosecution was a violation of the right of free speech, freedom of assembly, or freedom of press guaranteed by the Constitution. Evidently some glimmering that has entered into the mind of the prosecutor, and he wants to make sure that the juror does not agree with him.

Out of the first six prospective jurors shown by the prosecution four were farmers, one a machinist, one an ex-politician and one a student.

JACOB SPOLANSKY
One of Bureau Labor Spies

Tikhon, Aid of Denikin, to Trial, Apr. 23

We shall be told that the trial of Dr. Tikhon, the Russian Patriarch, on April 23, is another attack upon religion. There will be no comment made upon the fact that these men have put on the garments of peace in order more effectively conduct the campaign of war, rapine and destruction.

When Tikhon was elected Patriarch, in 1918, he denounced the Soviet Government, sought to bring the Church under the control of the civil law Tikhon urged armed resistance. Many of his spies died, as did the members of the Red Army, who found it necessary to combat the insurrections started by Tikhon.

Suppose Archbishop Hayes, New York diocese, leagues himself with anti-Wall Street force, openly urge support for it and helps to keep it going. How long would he remain Archbishop of New York diocese? What would the United States Government do? Suppose that he urges his congregation to fight and disobey the law, even going so far as to advocate armed resistance to it and that many lives are lost in suppressing such resistance? What would happen? Need we tell you? Substantiated by the aid of Tikhon to Archbishop Hayes.

It is easy for so-called American liberals to denounce Soviet Russia, where workers and peasants charged with the responsibility of safeguarding the lives of millions of people. They know that on the outside the imperialists of the world are waiting for an opportunity to overthrow their government. They also know that if their government is overthrown what the consequences will be.

The Russians will conduct their trials in their own way. And more power to them.

We are glad they have the courage to face the situation as they see it and refuse to allow outsiders to frighten them into doing something else.

Militants in Maryland Put Up Big Fight

(Special to "The Worker")

CUMBERLAND, Md.—The machine gang of the Maryland State Federation of Labor, assisted by the United Capitalist press of Washington, D. C., Baltimore and Chesapeake Bay, is making a desperate attempt for amalgamation and the Labor Party.

The resolution calling for amalgamation was signed by eleven delegates. The sponsors of the resolution were allowed five minutes to state their side, the opposition one hour. Every foul tactic known to that experienced school—the machine—was brought to bear. Visions of Lenin and Trotsky dictating to America pilots, schers, etc., etc.

Due to the lack of organization, on the part of the militants, the resolution was defeated. It was felt that the break had been made and that the resolution was intended, with the machine compelled to fight for its existence, rather than sit back and merely laugh at those who question its record.

A resolution calling for the endorsement of a labor party suffered a worse fate than that of amalgamation. Those delegates who sponsored the resolution were intimidated, with the result that only five voted for the resolution.

During the five days that the federation was in session not one constructive proposal was initiated. Instead, the time of the convention was wasted by listening to speeches from the local mayor, clergymen and senators—the president of the chamber of commerce.

The report of the officials told of defeat after defeat, with the usual hopes. They told of how legislation, sponsored by them, had been left to die in committee. The president urged the convention delegates to continually look for "our friends" and thus success would be assured.

An international organizer of the railroad shopmen made an appeal to the convention. He asked that the federation pledge its sympathy to the railroad strikers, and that the Western Maryland R. R. be boycotted.

After a stiff fight the matter was referred to the Executive Council.

At the close of the convention a successful meeting of the Trade Union Educational League was held in Baltimore, attended by many delegates. It was felt around that next year would find the militants better organized and prepared to battle with the machine.

Hatters in National Convention Hear Holland Urge Labor Party

By H. M. WICKS

The pressing demand from the rank and file of organized labor for the creation of an independent Labor Party has found James P. Holland, president of the New York State Federation of Labor, out of his membership and of the National Convention of the United States of America, his headquarters in Baltimore, Md., on the creation of such a Party.

The independent Holland came as a mild surprise to those who are familiar with the position of the State Federation of Labor on the merely expressing their disapproval of it.

Mr. Smith's part of intellectual warfare resumed its calm.

Wah and Gray took turns in questioning the witnesses during this process. White tried to kill time by writing something on a piece of paper, but he was observed to cause him considerable amusement. Perhaps he was drawn to a sketch of the British agent who had a hard time trying to keep his eyes open and would not succeed but for an occasional peek in the ribs from the radical expert, Max Burger, stool pigeon number one.

There were those who mean to do him the honor of associating with him.

Mr. Louis Rahn, Boston Harbor shoe merchant and treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, member of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, was decidedly of the opinion that he could hear Allan B. Myers and several other anti-Communist lecturers speak; but in spite of that could hold the scales of Justice even. He admitted under Walsh's examination that at the time of the Brigeman raid he had an opinion as to the guilt of those arrested, but appears to have developed a better judicial pose since then.

Barons Gain Attack Miners' Union

"When the commission can find no remedy whereby force can be obtained and reasons for the strike, there is no salvation for the miners' industry."

Once again it was not the Federal Government of Christ that made a statement. It was the coal barons. They must have had a change of heart, say you. They must have been to West Virginia and are gazed upon their bloody harvest, or perhaps suddenly awakened to the fact that last Sunday was a sixth anniversary of the bloody massacre of men, women and children of Colorado, conscience-stricken by the press and the government urging that force be employed rather than that a child should suffer the tortures that followed the burning-up of those tents (Ludlow, Col., April 20, 1914).

You are all wrong. The force to be destroyed is not the party of guns. It is the United Mine Workers' Union. And we pay to see Charlie Chaplin!

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—The annual conference of the International Conference of all American coal miners, June 2-3, has come to a close. It was held at the Hotel Hamilton in this city. BUTTE, Mont.—The Silver Bow Trades and Labor Council (Butte) at its last meeting endorsed the resolution of the Trade Union Educational League which calls on the workers of America to form an independent Labor Party.

The Silver Bow Trades and Labor Council has been known as one of the most militant bodies of its kind, and with the adoption of the T. U. E. The reactionists opposed the move with all their strength, but their efforts were futile before the enthusiasm of our people.

"It is to be known now that for one union of all the workers sometime will be realized."

"That is exactly what is going to happen," Grant told his hearers.

"I'd like to know where all of you men started from. Aren't you going to give someone else a chance? Don't you want every poor man and woman to be just as much a man or woman as they can be, with decent places to live in and decent schools for their children to go to?"

"If William Z. Foster could speak to you to come out against it, he is not trying for the country's ruin but for efficiency, real efficiency."

"That is what a big union of all labor will mean."

May Day is the day on which all workers of the world count their gains and measure their losses. In every country of the world they are gathered together. They are gathered together in the struggle for a better life, for the enjoyment of more of what they produce thru their labor power.

Everywhere in the world these workers respond to ideal of a new social order, of a better world in which the hardships, the misery and the exploitation and oppression, which is lot of the workers under the capitalist system, will be ended.

In Russia, in Germany, in Italy, in Mexico, in the United States, the workers are engaged in the struggle against the capitalists. In the far away countries of Asia, Africa and South America, there are groups of workers who are fighting the same battles.

In Russia, the workers will not demonstrate against capitalism. They will demonstrate their strength and courage in the rebuilding of their country which the imperialist war and counter-revolution destroyed. They will renew their enthusiasm in the struggle to establish the new Communist system.

THE AMERICAN WORKERS

During the year which has passed since last May Day the workers of the United States have learned to what lengths their enemies, the capitalists, are ready to go in order to make them accept low wages and to destroy their organization.

They have learned that greater profits for themselves, drove a half million miners, a hundred thousand textile workers and a half million farm workers into slavery. They have learned that they must fight for a decent standard of living all the while of their government. They have learned that the only way to win is to organize themselves into unions and to fight for their rights.

WORKERS OF THE UNITED STATES! THE BITTER EXPERIENCES OF THE LAST YEAR SHOULD BE A LESSON TO YOU. YOU MUST TAKE THE EXTREMEST MEASURES IN ORDER TO PROTECT THE INTERESTS OF THE CAPITALIST CLASS. YOU MUST TAKE THE EXTREMEST MEASURES TO EXCEPT ALL THE FORCES OF CAPITALISM, COURTS, INJUNCTIONS, ARMY AND NAVY, AND ALL THE OTHER FORCES WHICH THEY DEMAND BETTER WAGES AND WORKING CONDITIONS.

THE CAPITALISTS ORGANIZE

The capitalists are organizing for new struggles against the workers. They are organizing for new struggles against the workers. They are organizing for new struggles against the workers.

The capitalists are organizing for new struggles against the workers. They are organizing for new struggles against the workers. They are organizing for new struggles against the workers.

ALREADY IT IS PROPOSED THAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY MAKE THE ISSUE OF THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN THE DESTRUCTION OF THE UNION. IT MEANS THAT THE WORKERS MUST DEFEND THEMSELVES FROM THE ATTACKS OF THE BOSS.

THE WORKERS MUST ORGANIZE

Workers of the United States! You must answer these preparations for a new attack upon you. You must organize your strength as the capitalists are organizing their strength. You must knit your organizations closer together. You must fight the capitalists upon the political field. You must go forward until the governmental power is taken out of the hands of the capitalists.

In the struggles of the textile workers, the miners and the railway shoppers, the workers learned that they can hope to protect themselves against the attacks of the strongly organized employers and win better conditions only if their organizations are solidly united.

The railway shoppers, who mine other railway unions served the bosses, showed the railway men the need of amalgamating their unions into one industrial union of railway employees. The weakness and disorganization of many textile unions on strike showed the need of the textile workers forming one great industrial union of the textile industry. The miners in other fight against the bosses showed the need and the fact that coal was hauled by union railwaymen while the miners and the railway shoppers were not.

POLITICAL PARTY OF LABOR—A LABOR PARTY—UNITING BOTH INDUSTRIAL WORKERS AND WORKING WOMEN UNDER ONE POLITICAL PARTY TO CRUSH LABOR.

With the power of labor thus organized the way is open to establish, in place of the present capitalist government, which openly uses its power to dictate to the workers in the interests of the bosses, a Workers' Government which will use the governmental power to dictate to the capitalists in the interests of the workers.

WORKERS OF THE UNITED STATES! THE WAY TO FIGHT THE CAPITALISTS EFFECTIVELY IS THRU AMALGAMATION AND A LABOR PARTY. THE GOAL OF THE POLITICAL PARTY OF LABOR IS TO FORWARD IN THE STRUGGLE. MAKE THIS MAY DAY THE STRONGEST OF THE WORKERS OF THE UNITED STATES.

CANNON GIVE Big Ovation at Jamestown

(Special to "The Worker")

JAMESTOWN, N. Y.—Another big meeting was held here today. James P. Cannon, chairman of the Workers Party, when he faced his audience here, his subject "Russia Today" found a ready response among his listeners.

Among the comment in the local press we find the following from the Jamestown Morning Post:

"Soviet Russia was described last night in Jamestown as a country where labor controls industry, where strikes are unknown and where workers in both and overall attend trades union conferences in gilded halls that formerly were used as meeting places of noblemen."

"Then the traveler told of the big trade union conference he attended in Moscow. Two high officials of the government reported to the workers and one army official told of his organization was done."

"Mr. Cannon asked his hearers if they could imagine high officials of the United States Government making reports of governmental activity as an American labor union conference or if they ever expected to see the day when a leading figure of the United States Army should report to labor what the armed forces were doing."

"Workers and soldiers are the only persons who vote in Russia," said Mr.

Butchkevitch Shows Polish Terror Agent

"If Mr. Butchkevitch had been a Hawaiian prince, or an Irish, or an American Catholic, he would be known to the world as a 'terror agent'." Capt. Paxton Hibben informed a large and eagerly awaiting audience at the International Workers' Club in New York City.

"Father Butchkevitch was tried for a charge of being a 'terror agent' as a Russian citizen of Polish extraction, during hostilities between Russia and Germany. He was the land of his origin over his own country. The capitalist press, which has no historical or logical basis, declared that his fate was, during the late war, just as hysterical in its denunciation of American citizens of German origin as was the public prosecution of the Butchkevitch trial."

"There is no war on religion in Russia, and the very newspapers that print columns of propaganda claiming that there is, have in their offices Rosta news dispatches from Moscow reporting that when Alexander Zepik was asked on the witness stand why he did not obey the law of the land, he replied that he did not have to obey the laws in church matters, except those of Rome. Asked why, since the Catholic church in other countries subordinated its canonical regulations to the laws of those countries, he did not do so in Russia, he replied that he did see no necessity for obeying Russian laws. If ministers of any church were to make such a statement in America, they would be immediately and publicly expelled from the country."

"Brookinson, head of the Russian National Society, who took the opposite side of the debate to Capt. Hibben, declared in answer to a question from the floor, that his organization was working for the reestablishment of the imperial government in Russia. Russia, he said, is today in the hands of men with long hair like Broderick and Finkelshtein."

"What's the matter with Finkelshtein, he asked, who is shouting from the audience."

"Questions were asked whether Russia is in the hands of the Jews today, Capt. Hibben said:

"The Jews in the United States—'not as much, in fact. But suppose it was? I had rather live under the rule of a 'Kaiser' than under the rule of the Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux

May Day Sees Prosperity Boom Heralding New Crisis

By Ben Gitlow
The present wave of prosperity in the United States is not a new phenomenon. It is a "prosperity" that will be followed by a depression. It is a boom that heralds a new crisis. It is a boom that is based on the exploitation of the masses. It is a boom that is based on the exploitation of the masses.

Additional signs of this boom are: a decrease in the unemployment rate; a decrease in the rate of interest; a decrease in the rate of inflation; a decrease in the rate of taxation; a decrease in the rate of war.

The present wave of prosperity is based on the exploitation of the masses. It is a boom that is based on the exploitation of the masses. It is a boom that is based on the exploitation of the masses.

Community Symposium Stirs Forum

Three different views of the women question were presented last Monday at the Community Symposium on the National Women's Party, the Socialist Party and the Workers Party.

Representing the Women's Party, Adelaide Steinhilber, insisted that women should be brought about by opposing all laws designed to favor women as a sex and the advocated the repeal of all protective laws for women in industry on the ground that many of them prevented women competing as equals with men.

Representing the Workers Party, Well-Klein held that only equality of opportunity for both men and women, to be achieved, their evolution and the democratic parliamentary government could solve the women problem today. Mr. Klein seemed more concerned about deferring a soap box speech against Communism and the Communist International than dealing with her subject.

Jennette Pearl, for the Workers Party, devoted most of her time to replying to the position of the National Women's Party. She gave a short historical sketch of the history of women as the result of the rise of private property and then proved that the Women's Party stands a purely middle class position regarding equality of sexes, a position based on legislation in the interest of private property as opposed to the stand of the Workers Party. Comrade Pearl spoke in favor of protective legislation as an imperative immediate demand of the class struggle.

In analyzing the so-called blanket equality bill of rights of the Women's Party, Comrade Pearl ridiculed the purely party bourgeois demands for rights of middle class women to increase political participation in the demands for entrance to the faculties of higher institutions of learning. She also scored the National Women's Party that men as well as women be held under the protective law, pointing to the fact that legislation was based upon protection and that its elimination would mean the end of the protection, but that emancipation from wage slavery, which is the basis of protection.

Equality cannot spring out of the air, but can come only with emancipation from class rule. This emancipation can be achieved only by the mass power of the workers developing independent political action as formulated by the Communist International. For the special problems affecting women, the Communist International has created a special apparatus, the Women's International League for Peace and Democracy, for the purpose of studying the problems confronting women in industry and in the home, and bringing them into the common struggle against capitalism as a class and not as a sex. Sex equality based upon equality of opportunity, is achieved through the Soviet form of government, and the Dictatorship of the Proletariat and not through parliamentary bourgeois democracy.

From Cover to Cover

By MAX SHACHTMAN
Some years ago, when I was still in high school, I was suddenly announced that the United States had entered the war against Germany, and joined the Allied forces. And from that day, I was plunged into the world of official documents, teachers' admonitions and auditorium speeches to the effect that the German Kaiser had wickedly and wantonly begun the war, had prepared to invade England, and was seeking to spread the hegemony of Deutsche Kultur over the world. This impression received its final confirmation after every picture show, which invariably began with a rousing, well-armed band, directing a goose-stepping army into France and Belgium; and a rousing, well-armed band in charming black velvet costumes, spent their time in arguing against the republic which had so-called Hun lynchings, while their soldiers aimed themselves, while their officers, with their bayonets, using babies for serving. I was indignant, outraged that I have learned a thing or two. I have been convinced that the whole thing was a farce, that the whole thing was a farce, that the whole thing was a farce.
