

Steel Workers' Promises Empty

U. S. Senator Given Facts About Terror

By JAY LOVSTONE (Special to "The Worker")

PHILADELPHIA—All the facts in the outrageous persecution of the Workers Party and its membership in Pennsylvania, especially in the Pittsburgh district, have been placed before United States Senator George Wharton Pepper. The immediate results of the conference held here are:

FIRST: Senator Pepper agreed to take up the Pittsburgh situation with Acting Attorney General Bennett at Washington.

SECOND: He will also confer with Governor Gifford Pinchot, at Harrisburg on the steel and coal situation.

THIRD: He agreed that a first class case should be made by the Workers Party.

Senator Pepper was in Philadelphia to see the case of the workers of Western Pennsylvania presented to Senator Pepper by Robert W. Dunn, Acting Head of the Civil Liberties Union, and the writer, as an official representative of the Workers Party.

Mr. Dunn told the Senator that he was to lay before him the whole Pittsburgh situation and that he would give him the facts of the case.

Senator Pepper told us that he hoped we were fully aware of the fact that he could not effectively represent himself in too many proposals. He reminded us that last year he had turned down a request to sign a blanket amnesty resolution. Since then, he has made a detailed legal examination of all the evidence in the Chicago, Wichita, and Sacramento I. W. W. cases. The Senator expressed a tremendous genuine interest in the case.

Pittsburgh Outrages Described

Then the writer told, in brief, the monstrous outrages committed against the Workers Party by agents of the Federal Department of Justice and the Assistant District Attorney Meyers. The arrest of George Rowinski, a worker who had been honorably discharged from the 32nd Infantry and had seen service on three fronts in the World War; the arrest of Mrs. Budick, not a member of the Workers Party, and her subsequent separation from her four-year old daughter for ten days; and the case of the worker, Jakubauska, whose six-year old child was struck and killed by an automobile while his wife was out looking for a job, were cited as typical of the present condition in Pittsburgh.

The Senator asked why all this persecution was organized against the Workers Party and who was behind these attacks. I told him that the Department of Justice was engineering all these arrests. The big

NOTE—Reports have been received of the opening sessions of the Enlarged Executive Committee of the Communist International held at Moscow, Soviet Russia, during the latter part of June. Great interest centered in the opening address of Gregory Zinoviev, chairman of the International, who spoke in part as follows:

By GREGORY ZINOVIEV.

Six months have passed since our last Congress. We see things much clearer today.

New political questions have sprung up. We must now examine to what extent the decisions of the Fourth Congress were carried out and in what manner they were carried out. In many countries the political situation has altered in favor of the capitalist class. America is experiencing a boom; the situation in England and France has improved. In Central Europe the former disorganization prevails; Japan is on the eve of a crisis.

By WILLIAM SIMONS (Special to "The Worker")

BROCKTON, Mass.—The strike of the Brockton shoe workers, which had gone along more or less peacefully for eight weeks, assumed a different aspect beginning Monday, July 23. Hitherto, the strikers on the picket line in the main had been unharmed by the police. They had been allowed to hold large mass meetings on Sunday with a permit from the city authorities. Recently a permit was denied.

The leaders and vanguard were still out practically en masse; the shoe turned out by the scabs were not fit for the market, cases being returned to the manufacturers from their customers. The number of cases shipped in June was only 40 per cent of the production last June, according to the figures of a Shoe and Leather trade journal; and a large part of this was (Continued on Page Three)

Election of Johnson in Minnesota Shows Sentiment for Real Farmer-Labor Unity

By JOSEPH MANLEY National Secretary Federated Farmer-Labor Party

CHICAGO—The overwhelming victory of Magnus Johnson on the Farmer-Labor ticket in Minnesota clearly indicates a tremendous sentiment among rank and file of farmers and workers for a real labor party. The Farmer-Labor Party of Minnesota is not an isolated affiliated local party; it is a national organization, due to the fact that until the formation of the Federated Farmer-Labor Party there was no national coordinating center in Minneapolis.

The victory in Minnesota will add strength to the great campaign which the Federated Farmer-Labor Party is launching, and will help to win national party for the farmers and workers.

Steel Workers Raise Slogan of "The Eight-Hour Day" as Bosses Weaken Before Attack

"THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY"

That is the slogan that must be heard, coming like thunder chips, wherever workers go down into the steel mills in these United States.

To arouse all steel workers in support of this slogan is the next step in the fight of "THE WORKER" against the barbarous 12-Hour Day of "Crar" Gary and his United States Steel Corporation.

Ever since Judge Elbert Henry Gary made his infamous plea for the 12-Hour Day, at the Hotel Commodore, New York, May 23rd, "THE WORKER" has kept up its anti-Gary campaign. It published the facts. It shows how the 12-Hour Day was working the men, women and children of the steel mills, mentally, physically, morally. It showed how the long day was destroying all social and family life in the steel cardroom.

"THE WORKER" beat down all of "Crar" Gary's arguments, that the Steel Empire needed the 12-Hour Day because of the labor shortage, because it couldn't afford the 8-Hour Day, because the steel workers want the 12-Hour Day.

"THE WORKER" exposed the tyrannical intents of the Steel Trust with the capitalist government at Washington. This week we shatter the hypocritical postures of Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, that he is really in favor of organizing the steel workers.

It was not until this important moment that the steel workers were able to do so. The steel workers will do away, the experts will demolish their reports, and the promises of Gary and Farrell will remain promises.

Worse than that! Gary will be able to turn his promises into good sales propaganda. In fact this is the interpretation that Wall Street has already given to "Crar" Gary's promises. Wall Street argues this way. Steel orders are falling off. Steel shipped during June was double the amount ordered during the same period. The result was that unfulfilled orders on the books of the steel trust total 1,000,000 tons during the month. Export trade was cut into half by the low European prices. Railways have had to be closed down because of the demand for structural steel was but a little over half of the shop capacity.

Fearful of the rising storm, the steel interests, thru the New York Evening Post, Saturday, July 14, let it be made known that the 12-Hour Day would be abandoned in six weeks.

But this was immediately qualified in the New York Times, Sunday, July 15, by a prominent director of the American Iron and Steel Institute, who stated that steel workers abolish the 12-Hour Day might be made in six weeks, but "how long it will take to finish it no one can tell at this time."

Against this duplicity of the bosses the steel workers everywhere must thunder their demand for "THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY!"

It is said that there will soon be a conference of all the mill foremen of the United States Steel Corporation from plants in which 12-Hour shifts are in force. This conference will be held in New York City, 71 Broadway, in the office of James A. Farrell, president of the Steel Trust. Concerning this proposed conference of the longer workday will be discussed. Ways and means of installing labor saving machinery also will be discussed, in line with E. H. Gary's statement a short time ago that machinery would be used to displace men wherever possible.

If you, the workers in the steel mills, raise your voice high enough for "THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY," the machinery will have no time to get into the mill. It is something to report to Gary and Farrell. That report will be that a great crisis has been averted in the steel industry, a crisis that these slave drivers of the master class will sum up in the

Lewis Again with Bosses, Fights Labor

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, has again thrown his influence on the side of the mine owners and the Duponts' interest.

This is the only interpretation that can be put on his imperial edict, issued from his luxurious retreat at Atlantic City, N. J., revoking the charter of District 26, Nova Scotia, Canada, bituminous coal field.

The Nova Scotia coal miners are out on strike to protect their own wages, and to fight the striking steel workers of the same district. They have waged a brilliant struggle against the support of the striking steel workers of the same district. Lewis sent the wretched Van H. Bitter, into the district to wage bloody war against the men, women and children of labor. The district is also under the guns of a British battleship.

Under these circumstances, President Lewis capitulates the district without trial, just as he expelled the Kansas miners, when Alex. Howat and the Kansas miners were fighting the Allen Anti-Strike Law. The Lewis threat of expulsion is being laid for his present action, Lewis sent the wretched Van H. Bitter, into the district, followed by a special committee of investigation. The Lewis is bending all his energies to rid himself of the progressives in District 26. He appointed the defeated International Board member as an organizer in a district which is 100 per cent organized. He sent a commission to investigate the situation in the district and not having any charge to make against the leaders of the district he urged the convention to get rid of them. The miners of Nova Scotia will refuse to let Lewis to order them what to think, they will elect whoever they please to the District office, and will fight to the bitter end to prevent Lewis smashing the ranks of the district. Lewis has done as he did in other districts.

The Lewis declaration of war on the progressives who support the struggle in the United Mine Workers. To defeat the militants of District 26, Lewis will have to ally with the British Empire Steel Corporation and the Federal and Provincial governments against the miners getting an increase in wages. Any man who opposes the miners getting with such an opposition as will stagger him. The Federal government kept Alexander Howat out of this Province in the interests of Lewis and the corporatists.

The District Convention just finished struck a pitch towards which all workers must strive to reach. The miners of Nova Scotia are leading the way with greater battles on their hands against their exploiters, against the governments of exploiters, and to the shame and disgrace of the Lewis administration. P. against the reactionary leadership of the United Mine Workers itself. And they shall win!

The Farrington-Lewis Mix-Up

By J. W. JOHNSTONE

The success of the Progressive International Committee of the United Mine Workers of America, in holding a convention within this organization, has been so great that the two leading figures in the United Mine Workers, John L. Lewis and John H. Farrington, who for years have been bitter enemies, will meet and discuss their views on the future of the industry. This report will be that a great crisis has been averted in the steel industry, a crisis that these slave drivers of the master class will sum up in the

Stronger Workers Fight

...the moment characterized by the Anglo-Russian complication. The new tendency has been strengthened because Russia has grown weaker in the contrary, if it because it has been growing stronger.

The capitalists are deceived by the new economic policy. They thought it was the beginning of our capitulation. They thought that the communists would bring about their own ruin. But our situation improved; Russian grain appeared on the world market; we have never before enjoyed such individual support of the workers as we have today. Therefore perhaps, a new chapter in the attitude of the capitalist States towards us is beginning.

Factor in Marching Forward

We are witnessing events in Bulgaria. The King is giving the people the form of a revolution which does not see the King aside. We must rest factious on its economic basis. We cannot place all phenomena under one hat. In Italy Fascism is undergoing a change.

The danger of war has increased; the situation may become critical at any moment.

In Hamburg the fusion of the second and the 2nd took place. It is necessary to speak in length of these gentlemen here from the relative standpoint. The new international has no objective; it contains only two parties of any significance at all—the Communist Party and the British-Labor Party. Kautsky, at one time, was against the second international better since that party had become weaker. Therefore the second international is able to play first fiddle.

The Russian Mensheviks, who were formerly the backbone of the 2 1/2 international, are now the right wing of the new international. Its statutes say: Ministers cannot be members of the Executive Committee.

In other words, it says to the minister: when you become a chief, you cannot be a member of our able society, but when you come out of prison, you may join our interior. What they want is an international parade. Will it make any impression? A temporary one perhaps, such as was made by the fusion of the German Social-Democratic with the Independent Socialist Party.

The German Social-Democratic Party was weakened by its union with the Independent Socialist Party. It became a thing without a soul. The union of the Second International with the 2 1/2 international will accelerate the process of its decay.

Only One Real International

That has now become obvious. We have not yet got the majority of the proletariat behind us, but such forces as we have are concentrating for the purpose of international action.

Two great parties of our international, the German and the French, carried on a joint campaign independent of Soviet Russia. They have practically demonstrated that they know how to work together, but their two bourgeoisies are at loggerheads. This was a step towards a genuine international, a step towards a genuine world party.

The bourgeoisie as a class is united. The German gutterback, appeals for armed aid to the French General Degott.

The United Front

On the question of the united front we have overcome many difficulties during this period, especially in France where even the Syndicalists have learned to apply this weapon. The question may perhaps be put: Is the United Front a strategic manoeuvre or do we really desire to work side by side with the social democratic proletariat? This method of putting the question is incorrect. Of course, we are in favor of approaching the social democratic and the non-party workers as friends.

But, formerly we wished to achieve this end over the heads of the leaders. We have convinced ourselves that it would not work. We must again appeal to the leaders until the masses understand that our outlook is the correct one.

I do not have a spark of belief that Schtedemann and myself will perpetrate repeat this. In order not to bring confusion into our own ranks. We must show the masses the whole road. If we had neglected to do this in France, the syndicalists would never have marched with us.

The tactic which we have adopted contains a danger for our party, as Trotsky has rightly pointed out, namely, the danger of the proletariat being deteriorated. Nevertheless, our tactic is a correct one. Many have called me an idiot for the support of the tactic of the United Front.

This is not true. Formerly I had doubts, but at the Chicago Conference I was not only for independent political action, but for "United Action."

Workers Fight to Break Up

The strike of the Plumber-Union, which makes it possible to benefit from the steelworkers' struggle, is now in its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week.

The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week.

The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week. The steelworkers' strike has now entered its second week.

This is the case with the Iron Workers, the Telephone Workers, the Telephone Employees, who have not called a union. It matters little that they are now working for wages ranging between $2.50 and $4.00. Now they are to be organized.

The attitude of help yourself and the devil go with the rest is practically taught by the reactionary leadership of the American Federation of Labor. It is this spirit which allows the officials of the Iron and Steel Workers' Union to attack the District Council of Housewives, Bridge-men, Ornamental Iron Workers, and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

The made Iron Workers went on strike, while the Outside Iron Workers still working for the same rates.

The combined strength and power of the miners, steel workers and railroad workers is the key factor in the present situation.

The Provisional Government, E. H. Annenberg, is the only person who is not a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

The kind of agreement that unions accepted from the employers, as in the case of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, is the only kind of agreement that unions accepted from the employers.

He Sings His "Hymn of Hate"

By J. LOUIS ENGDALL

James Oneal, official commander of the Socialist Party, sings his "Hymn of Hate" against the Workers Party, in the New York Call.

The "word 'official'" is used not inadvertently. For the heavy burden of editorially warning on the American Communist movement seems to rest on the shoulders of James Oneal.

The Federated Farmer-Labor Party Conference in Chicago has found that James Oneal has had the "New York Call" papers and he claims to know all that happens in the American Communist Party.

Having obliterated the American Communist Movement on occasion of the Chicago Conference, he has now been appointed representative in attendance at the Chicago Conference. They had no right to be there, he argues. They "packed" the conference, he claims.

Thus Oneal, no doubt unwittingly, gives testimony to the truth of the statement by Gregory Zinoviev, chairman of the Communist International, that the new organized front on Soviet Russia was begun, in England, not because Russia had grown weaker. On the contrary, it is because it has grown stronger.

So Oneal's attack on the Workers Party. It is not because the steelworkers are tolling for the American Communist movement. It is because the workers are drifting toward Communism in this country.

Oneal forgets that the Chicago Conference was called by the Fitzpatrick-Brown Farmer-Labor Party. Every credence was passed on by Jay G. Brown, secretary of the American Communist Party.

But I have not a spark of belief that Schtedemann and myself will perpetrate repeat this. In order not to bring confusion into our own ranks. We must show the masses the whole road. If we had neglected to do this in France, the syndicalists would never have marched with us.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa.—In the days past, when juggling acts were still healthful on seaside stumps, I once saw a hoop artist, who as the ringers twisted around one who stood in the middle and another who stood on the other side, one standing his left side and one who his right.

There he stood, on one foot, juggling some hoops going round and round in 20 seconds, was done for. No one would expect him to keep up the trick for any length of time.

And this recalls the antics of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers. He is in the midst of the biggest juggling act he has ever staged. And what aspects him to keep up for any length of time.

What misadventure and collisions of thoughts may have already occurred under that head of his, only he knows, but we guess.

On April 27, 1933 workers active in the labor movement were arrested, their property confiscated, their families threatened and themselves thrown into jail and held under criminaly spirit bonds and their civil rights denied. Their only crime was the advocacy of more effective forms of labor organization. In June nine of these workers were indicted. Their trials will be in September. Later Thomas Myerscough, the secretary for the International Committee of the Progressive Miners' Union, was arrested. The arrest cannot be justified because this worker committed no crime. The proceeds of this picnic will be for the defense of these workers. Come to this picnic and help save these workers from prison. You also are assured a good time.

This is the case with the Iron Workers, the Telephone Workers, the Telephone Employees, who have not called a union. It matters little that they are now working for wages ranging between $2.50 and $4.00. Now they are to be organized.

The attitude of help yourself and the devil go with the rest is practically taught by the reactionary leadership of the American Federation of Labor. It is this spirit which allows the officials of the Iron and Steel Workers' Union to attack the District Council of Housewives, Bridge-men, Ornamental Iron Workers, and the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

The made Iron Workers went on strike, while the Outside Iron Workers still working for the same rates.

The combined strength and power of the miners, steel workers and railroad workers is the key factor in the present situation.

The Provisional Government, E. H. Annenberg, is the only person who is not a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

The kind of agreement that unions accepted from the employers, as in the case of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, is the only kind of agreement that unions accepted from the employers.

He Sings His "Hymn of Hate"

By J. LOUIS ENGDALL

James Oneal, official commander of the Socialist Party, sings his "Hymn of Hate" against the Workers Party, in the New York Call.

The "word 'official'" is used not inadvertently. For the heavy burden of editorially warning on the American Communist movement seems to rest on the shoulders of James Oneal.

The Federated Farmer-Labor Party Conference in Chicago has found that James Oneal has had the "New York Call" papers and he claims to know all that happens in the American Communist Party.

Having obliterated the American Communist Movement on occasion of the Chicago Conference, he has now been appointed representative in attendance at the Chicago Conference. They had no right to be there, he argues. They "packed" the conference, he claims.

Thus Oneal, no doubt unwittingly, gives testimony to the truth of the statement by Gregory Zinoviev, chairman of the Communist International, that the new organized front on Soviet Russia was begun, in England, not because Russia had grown weaker. On the contrary, it is because it has grown stronger.

So Oneal's attack on the Workers Party. It is not because the steelworkers are tolling for the American Communist movement. It is because the workers are drifting toward Communism in this country.

Oneal forgets that the Chicago Conference was called by the Fitzpatrick-Brown Farmer-Labor Party. Every credence was passed on by Jay G. Brown, secretary of the American Communist Party.

But I have not a spark of belief that Schtedemann and myself will perpetrate repeat this. In order not to bring confusion into our own ranks. We must show the masses the whole road. If we had neglected to do this in France, the syndicalists would never have marched with us.

The tactic which we have adopted contains a danger for our party, as Trotsky has rightly pointed out, namely, the danger of the proletariat being deteriorated. Nevertheless, our tactic is a correct one. Many have called me an idiot for the support of the tactic of the United Front.

This is not true. Formerly I had doubts, but at the Chicago Conference I was not only for independent political action, but for "United Action."

Where Were You Born?

However, it does not matter. You LIVE HERE. You work here. You are exploited by American capitalists.

"THE AMERICAN FOREIGN-BORN WORKER"

The foreign-born workers are the most exploited and discriminated against of all workers. This pamphlet states the case of these workers in this country. It shows the geographical and industrial distribution of them and gives many other vital statistics, including their colored cards.

Snowden's Plan for the Gradual Appropriation of Capitalism and the Foundation of a Social Democracy

The British parliament has just discussed Snowden's plan for the gradual appropriation of capitalism and the foundation of a social democracy. Snowden's plan is a masterpiece of political strategy.

It was to be expected that the bourgeois politicians would be opposed to any plan which would give the British Labor Party a 100 per cent vote of its own parliamentarians in support of a simple declaration for public ownership and democratic control of the instruments of production. Snowden's plan is a masterpiece of political strategy. It is a plan to do this, and the lessons to be drawn therefrom constitute the big value, if any can be attached to the offering of Snowden's plan. That is, a Labor Party in power in the exercise of its powers. Taking for granted that there were no abuses, we find 23 Labor Party members voting with the King's politicians. It is claimed that they did this "in deference to the less progressive elements who had detected them," which is not a new excuse for reactionary decisions.

The aim that has captured the 23 Labor Party members is the disease that is eating at the heart of the whole British Labor Party. As it grows in strength, it seeks to become respectable, and acceptable to all voters. These labor careerists never realize that in holding to labor support they must throw overboard all expectation of aid from the small bourgeoisie and the big capitalists. They cannot realize their hopes of being acceptable in the eyes of their whole constituency.

Yet that is what is going on. The result will inevitably be an awakening of the workers in these parliamentary districts to a demand for real labor representation. It will also cause a drift to the left of the whole mass of British workers in the exercise of their political power. The smacking out of these 23 reactionaries in labor's midst will be a great urge toward increasing British labor support of Communist policies in the parliamentary struggle. Thus the workers profit again, even from their defeats.

Why Attack the Workers Party?

The Workers Party as the organizing expression of working class Communist movement, sees no day down without being confronted by some new attack. This is not so because the party is weak, as all our enemies so carefully state and restate. The party is strong because it is strong in the hearts of the workers.

It is significant that even the reactionary Gompers' element among this country's labor publications, this year, took an interest in the application of the Workers Party for admission to the British Labor Party. They are using the "British" example as an excuse for championing the Lewis-Gompers campaign of attempted ostracism of Communists in the American labor movement.

We have but to repeat Gompers' own statement recently that European labor is drifting toward Communism. The demand for the admission of Communists to the British Labor Party is growing rapidly. It will be met.

American labor reaction will not be glad to learn that the New South Wales, Australia, Labor Conference has voted for affiliation of the Communist Party. This is a great industrial section of the Australian continent will retain full liberty of separate organization and propaganda. The New South Wales Labor Party has thus followed the example of the Queensland Labor Party.

We do not begrudge Gompers, or Lewis, or others of their kind, any comfort they may get out of attacking the Workers Party. To the great masses of working men and women who believe in the things the Workers Party is fighting for, we say, "Join the Workers Party!"

Let "The Amalgamated" Come in

Every member of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America should join in the effort to bring their union affiliate itself with the Federated Farmer-Labor Party, called into being as the united political expression of the workers and farmers of the nation.

This affiliation would be the most fitting reply to the kept press that spread the falsehood, during the Chicago Conference, that the delegates of "The Amalgamated" left the gathering on the first day of its leading editorial, "The Advance," official organ of "The Amalgamated," issue of July 13, states that:

"At its session at New York last month the General Executive Board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America... resolved to attend a national convention for July 30 at Chicago. The purpose of the convention was to form a Labor Party."

The O. E. B. accepted the invitation and chose the Chicago Board members as delegates to the convention. Samuel Lewis, Frank Rosenberg, D. Martinson, and Sidney Skoloff. Lewis and Skoloff were prevented from attending the convention by urgent business. When the O. E. B. meets it should have before it, in addition to the delegates report, the resolutions of large numbers of the Union locals demanding affiliation with the Federated Farmer-Labor Party.

This should be the preliminary placing of "The Amalgamated" definitely on record for united independent political action at its next international convention. Workers in other industries are looking for guidance and inspiration to the members of this most forward-looking union in the needle trade. They must not look in vain. "The Amalgamated" must take its place in the Federated Farmer-Labor Party.

Again, the Daugherty Injunction... In any country, Daugherty's attitude to know who has the whole hand of the Government's hand.

Some are still on strike. With the unscrupulous military, judicial and financial aid of the Government the bosses were enabled to force to cover the heroic strikers fighting for their rights and homes.

There is no far as the strike itself is concerned at this moment, the most is concerned of Daugherty and his hand-picked, robed, pad, franchise, Wilson of Chicago-fame, won't reach very far. The decree of permanent injunction of last year only tells the kind of the most desperate open effort ever made by any capitalist government.

Worried About the Farmers

Worry hangs heavy upon the bankers, food gamblers and old party politicians as a result of the growing discontent among the farmers, displayed in big part thru their linking up with the Federated Farmer-Labor Party, at Chicago.

This worry permeated all of Harding's speeches on his flight to Alaska. It forced the Department of Agriculture to call economists and statisticians to the rescue. It is being like a black cloud over the session of the Chicago conference of regions from seven mid-western states.

Harding's scolding words, which meant little to the farmers to the post-war deflation visited upon them. The experts at Washington tell the farmers, as we have often pointed out in these columns, that Soviet Russia is taking what there is of the paupered European market, while poor peasant workers force low consumption at home.

The wheat belt is sick, says the board of governors of the Kansas City Farm Conference, which says that the farmers and tillers are worn out by the hopeless effort to make more acres of wheat sell more dollars.

Despair spreads over the farm lands, even as it does thru the great industrial centers of the nation, because capitalism rules in Washington and Wall Street. It is because the workers and farmers in the Federated Farmer-Labor Party, at Chicago, took a step in the right direction, in support of the Communist Party, that John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National Committee, considers them "the common foe of republicans and democrats alike."

The Federated Party has taken its stand for united independent political action and has raised the slogan of a Workers' and Farmers' Government. The Federated Party fights cheap labor in Garyed industry, which means cheap food and bank and landless farmers. The industries and the land to the workers and the farmers is the goal of the Federated Party. It is this growing struggle, drawing to its new masses, that has the capitalist blunderbuss worried, as it sweeps forward to victory over all forms of exploitation.

The Line-up in Italy

Mussolini has won his "electoral reform" in Italy. His Fascist "terror" frightened the parliamentary deputies, with the exception of the Communists, Socialists and a few republicans, into supporting him. Even the Populists and the Catholic Party, who haled his cabinet, voted with him.

This Fascist vote means that if Mussolini can muster a majority of Italian votes, he can take three-fifths of the places in next parliament. And the Fascist assassins know that they can win the majority with gun and club, bomb and castor oil, dagger and torch.

In the present parliament there are 147 Communists and Socialists. This vote was cast solidly against the Mussolini "reform" of the Chamber of Deputies. "In Russia is there liberty of assembly, of Parliament?" answering himself with a "blat" "No!"

There is liberty of assembly in Soviet Russia for the supporters of the workers' and peasants' regime. Czarists, bankers and landlords are not welcome.

World reaction hails Fascist Italy as an example of capitalist "liberty" to be followed everywhere. There thinking workers and peasants are outlaid and murdered.

When Elbert H. Gary, of the U. S. Steel Trust, and Julius Barnes, of the Chamber of Commerce, traveled thru Italy recently, they gave Mussolini rite the approval of America's industrial overlords. We now have the picture of U. S. Ambassador Richard Washburn Child, at Rome, speaking for Washington, voicing our approval of the Fascist government.

This American capitalism, in Washington and in Wall Street, definitely lines itself on the side of one of the world's most brutal and bloody anti-labor tyrants. It is clear that America's workers and farmers declared their solidarity just as fully for the emancipating rule of the Russian Soviet Republic. Let them learn the difference between the line-up of the open shop bosses in Fascist Rome and the United Front of labor in Soviet Moscow.

Here Are the Facts thru which Lewis and Farrington Exposed Each Other as Enemies of Labor

This charge is specific, and it is supported by the evidence in the hands of Lewis. His duty was very clearly defined in the U. M. W. of A. constitution, which lays down a right of procedure in cases of this kind. Lewis, as International President, should have preferred charges against Farrington and Fishwick, removed them from office, and placed them in charge of District 12 who would look after the interests of the miners, instead of doing anything of the kind which Farrington supplies the answer.

However, Lewis did not state how he managed to be taken into the confidence of the man who so bitterly prosecuted the miners against Farrington. Lewis, dated Nov. 12, 1922, Farrington threatens to prefer charges against Lewis for defaming his good name, unless Lewis immediately declares the statements that he made regarding the stripping of the Lester mine. The Lewis answer of Nov. 9th, 1922, did not contain that retraction, so Farrington proceeded to call Farrington Pruders Charges Against the Miners.

Last but not least, he accuses Lewis of receiving $550,000 from the Harriam Bank of New York, for allowing three members of the directorate of the bank to operate their mines in Pennsylvania upon a non-union basis. He further accuses Lewis of receiving $50,000 and expens charges were not made by an irresponsible person, nor were they made in the heat of verbal quarrels between Lewis and Farrington. President of the most powerful labor organization in America, accuses Farrington and Fishwick of being paid by W. J. Lester for allowing him to operate his strip mine during the strike. This charge was made to the International Executive Board of the U. M. W. of A.

Expose Each Other as Enemies of Labor

have spilled enough beans, and for mutual protection instead of preferring charges against each other, they have come to the conclusion that it is best for them to join forces. Lewis and Farrington Make Peace

Farrington in a letter to Lewis dated May 21st, 1921, holds out olive branch. He does not retract any of the charges made in his previous letters but shows very clearly that the sole reason for him wanting to come to terms with Lewis is the growing strength of the Progressive International Committee of the U. S. W. of A. Farrington and Lewis are divided at this time would be disastrous to both of them. So he bids for a reconciliation and he decides under what conditions he can enter the Lewis machine.

Farrington meets this accusation, by an innocent man would do, by the withdrawal of his resignation rights as laid down by the constitution of the U. M. W. of A. He constructs a trap for Lewis to fall into by doing so.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE

It's difficult work describing people, as any polemicist will tell you. I just love these two American labor leaders. One is the American labor leader, the other is the American labor leader.

General Amos Friess, who is head of the mines and one of the most ardent militarists in the war department, recently declared pacifism commensurate and radical "dangerous to the country." "Can it be that the fight was and his staff are seeking the right way to save themselves from industrial slavery."

The Wilkerson Decision is merely another of the many vital reminders to workers to take their own fate into their own hands. The Wilkerson Decision is merely another of the many vital reminders to workers to take their own fate into their own hands.

The progressive committee has got off to a flying start. District 12 has chosen its own representatives by a majority of over 10,000. Districts 5 and 9 are making good headway. District 26 has been elected. The Progressive International Committee has gained so much strength that they forced Farrington to resign. Victory has been gained and the real operators, who are so afraid of it, are so afraid of it.
