Lapham Said...

VOU KNOW, last Saturday, I watched that parade of I yours, and I never thought I would ever be called "Honorable"—at least so soon.

Your membership authorized a strike by an overwhelming majority, and it wasn't a lockout, and the strike took effect on the morning of Oct. 30. (Applause.)

What is the strike about? In my judgment, there are three fundamental issues—the first being your wages, hours and working conditions. We recognize the importance of this issue, because it spells comfort, happiness and protection for you and your families.

The straight time is six hours between the hours of 6 a. m. and 5 p. m. Work performed at any other time is overtime. Now let's see exactly what the San Francisco longshoremen earn. I will take an actual example. For the four-week period ending Sept. 13-that was a high period I will admit that—the average total wage received by San Francisco longshoremen was $242.05 for 2013/4 hours or an average of $1.20 per hour, or an average of $60.50

The shipowners have no desire to eliminate or control the hiring hall. All that they seek is the right to control hiring. (Laughter.)

The shipowners insist upon the right to select their licensed personnel as they wish. In other words, their masters, their mates, and their engineers. These men are their representatives at sea. They entrust, not only their physical property to these men, but the lives and safety of passengers and cargo.

And now, I reach the third fundamental. If a labor agreement is to be anything more than a scrap of paper, there must be some means of enforcing it on both parties. The shipowners have proposed mutual penalties to be imposed on whoever violates an agreement whether employer, union, or worker. Mutual penalty provisions are common in labor agreements.

Now, summing it up-I am almost through-the subsidy is nothing more or less than the equivalent of a protective tariff for the American merchant marine, just as we provide a protective tariff for American industry as a whole.

Bridges Replied

ONE OF THE THINGS that causes difficult situations and that prolongs difficult situations, such as we find ourselves in at present is another type of message that we definitely believe that the employers use, and I have samples of that with me also-insidious, vilifying bulletins, that denounce the waterfront workers, that confuse the real issues in controversy such as we are engaged in at present; and here we have the opportunity to ask the representative of the employers if they will kindly desist.

This strike is a lockout. This strike was forced on the workers, and the workers desire, least of anybody, to prolong it, and we believe and hope and accept the employers at their word, that they don't wish to prolong it, and those statements were made in front of the people, and the unions will stand by their case as they present it here before the people. We hope the employers do the same thing.

The unlicensed seafaring personnel—they want to continue something that they have now and have had for almost two years-the present system of hiring. In one category, they want something that they have not got now, but comething that they should have had years ago.

The marine cooks and stewards want an eight-hour day. Not a straight eight-hour day. Eight hours a day within twelve hours. A man can be on call any time within twelve hours between the hours of 6 in the morning and 6 in the evening. They don't want it for four days a week, or five days a week. Seven days a week, 56 hours a week; that's all.

The firemen and the sailors want cash payment for overtime. This is not a question of how much they get paid for overtime. It's a question, will they be paid for overtime. Will they be paid for working? That's all that those men want. They want to be paid when they workonly reasonable and just.

The longshoremen want to continue the hiring hall that Mr. Lapham, at one of our official meetings-that Mr. Lapham praised us on, and Mr. Lapham, when he spoke to you a while ago, that the longshoremen had taken full control of the hiring halls-when Mr. Lapham made that statement he made it in April, 1936, after the unions had taken control of the halls.

The Longshoremen also want to continue the six-hour day, the six-hour day that the American Federation of Labor has just again indorsed, the six-hour day that is supposed to be part of the present Administration's reemployment program. We want it continued.

The next point-why do we not arbitrate these demands? These things are union fundamentals. The employers ask us to arbitrate the hiring halls. The employers have no objection-they say-"to the hiring halls." All they want is control of hiring. The employers had control of hiring, much to our detriment and our misery. We hope they will never get it back; and to ask a union to arbitrate the question of union preference to ask the unions to arbitrate the question of hiring halls, is asking the union if they will arbitrate the question of their existence.

Would the employers arbitrate the question of their existence? We know they wouldn't, and we wouldn't be silly enough to ask them.

Arbitrate the question of the eight-hour day-if the employers are reasonable, if they mean what they say, to settle this strike, they will agree to an established custom, established the world over, the custom of the eight-hour day. And if they will agree to it for the marine cooks and stewards without asking us to arbitrate it-we are not going to arbitrate things which have been established for

Edward Vandeleur, secretary of the State Labor Federation, Charles Real and other reactionaries who came for the trial, were given the status of witnesses for Von Telrop when the Council went into executive council, and these men were alowed to enter one at a time, when called in as witnesses.

SAN FRANCISCO-Reactionary Ed Vandeluer, president of the State Federation and secretary of the San Francisco Central Labor Council, was dealt a severe blow when his own local, Street Carmen's Union No. 518, defeated him for re-election as

H. S. "Mike" Foley defeated landeleur by three votes. Vandeleur's defeat is due to his sabotage of the fight against the one-man street car, as well as his other reactionary policies.

SAN FRANCISCO - Developments in the 42nd day of the West Coast maritime strike of 39000 workers included:

Membership of Masters, Mates and Pilots voted down the steam schooner operators' proposals. The vote was 289 against, 9 for.

Especially objectionable to the licensed deck officers was the provision that masters must remain on ships in future strikes. The wage scale offered was not considered satisfactory nor were they willing . > allow continuation of mates doing seamen's work at certain times.

Cooks Stewards Excepted

The report from Washington that the Copeland Act would make the 8-hour day mandatory after Dec. 25 stated that marine cooks and stewards would not be included.

Secretary of Labor Perkins again assured the Sailors' Union of the Pacific that the continuous discharge book under the act would not go into effect Dec. 25, and that reports that the government would take over control of hiring halls were not correct.

Acting Pres. Charles J. Delaney of the Bargemen's Union (I.L.A. affiliate), announced the signing of an agreement with Freighters, Inc., second largest waterways company, granting 85 cents an hour, and $1.25 overtime, with a 6-hour day within 8 hours.

He might have a wife and family here, but not on the money they're making now-but his wife and family are in San Francisco. The employer wants to work his ship; he wants to get her out in as big a hurry as possible. He unloads for one day in San Francisco, one day in Oakland, one day in Stockton, or maybe one day in Richmond. The seaman works till 5 o'clock. in 1934. All the other unions got their agreements through arbitration, but for the longshoremen, we arbitrated in 1934, and were awarded the six-hour day, and were awarded the hiring hall, after three months' arbitration, and the only reason the employers want us to arbitrate at this time is to take something away from us. If they didn't, they would say: "Keep them-we don't want to arbitrate those things, and we are not going to arbitrate those things."

THE VOICE OF THE MARITIME UNINS-BROADCAST NUMBER 2 ON THE STRIKE'S ISSUES

Listen In Tues. and Fri., 9.15 to 9.30 p.m. Over Sta. KGGC: By the San Francisco Strike Committee's Broadcasts

Q. I, was thinking about our conversation the other evening in which we discussed the problems involved in the present maritime strike and there are still some things that I would like to have cleared up in my mind.

A. What are they?

Q. Do I understand that you are a member of the Maritime Cooks and Stewards' Association?

Q. I am interested at the moment in finding out more about the problems of the hours of labor for your group on board

A. What would you like to know about it?

Q. By the way, what is the exact title of your union? A. The Marine Cooks and Stewards' Association of the Pa-

Q. When was your organization founded?

Q. Are you affiliated with the American Federation of Labor? A. Yes, we are, and also with the International Seamen's Union of America, and the Maritime Federation of the Pacific.

Q. What is this Maritime Federation of the Pacific?

A. The Maritime Federation of the Pacific was organized as the result of the 1934 strike, and has as its members all of the unions connected with the maritime industry. These unions maintain their own autonomy, belonging to their own international unions in such cases as they do, and practically all of them are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Q. What is the purpose, and why was the organization founded? A. It was a logical step taken by the unions to set up a common front against the united attacks by the shipowners.

Q. What unions belong to this Maritime Federation? A. As I have already told you, all unions whose members are employed in the shipping industry, both on land and on board To Discipline Any

Q. We have strayed a little bit from the original thought I had in mind. Suppose we go back to it.

A. O. K.

Q. You were on board ship prior to this strike, were you not? A. Yes, I worked on one of the round-the-world boats.

Q. In what capacity did you work?

A. I worked as a waiter. Q. How many hours did you work on board ship?

A. I worked ten hours a day within a spread of fifteen

Q. What do you mean "within a spread of fifteen hours?" A. Well, you see, you must be on call any time during a fifteen-hour period, and we have to work at least ten hours within that spread. Q. I understand. What is your objection to working ten hours within a spread of fifteen hours? A. Well in the first place—you must realize that all of the other men on board ship work an eight-hour day. Second, the conditions of employment, wage hour day is a pretty tough work day. Q. What do you mean?

A. Well, the cooks and stewards are on their feet all the time, no provisions for recognition of they must work at times in the galley, where particularly when or collective bargaining with we are in the tropics, the heat is excessive. In addition, we are the unions which maritime expected if we are waiters, to be fresh at all times, to have a neat appearance, and to maintain service with a smile, so to ak.

A. And in addition, you must understand that it isn't only the matter of working the ten hours that is difficult, but the fact that fifteen hours out of twenty-four hours we are subject to call at any time. In other words, that time is not our own.

Q. What are you fellows after now?

A. An eight-hour day. Q. Do you mean that you want to work only eight consecutive hours?

A. No, not at all. Q. Then what do you mean?

A. We have proposed to the shipowners that we work an eight-hour day within a spread of twelve hours.

A. In other words, we realize that on board ship meals are served over a certain spread, and that it is necessary for us to be subject to call for hours in excess of eight. Therefore, we cates" and "Discharge Books" propose that our eight hours be worked within a spread of twelve can be used as an instrument to strike strategy committee. The citizens, whether on strike or

Q. Say, do waiters on shore work ten hours within fifteen? A. No, I used to work in one of the large restaurants in San ancisco, and we worked an eight-hour day. Q. Is that the usual practice?

A. Yes. On shore cooks, stewards and waiters work an eighthour day, and of course, they get more pay too, in addition to having the advantage of being on shore and having a normal particularly discriminatory and man is dictating, an appeal to family life. Q. It is my understanding that the eight-hour day is universally established in American industry. A. That is correct, and in fact, the present trend is toward a six-hour day. Q. I agree with you completely that the trend is towards the six-hour day and that American industry has recognized the eight-hour day.

A. Certainly. That is the general belief and conviction of all trade unions and liberal employers.

Q. It looks to me from what you say that the position of the cooks and stewards in maintaining for an eight-hour day within a spread of 12 is a very reasonable one. By the way, are you on the picket line now?

A. I was, but I am now working at the Maritime Palace ich is being run by the cooks and stewards.

Q. The Maritime Palace. What is that?

A. It is the name of our relief kitchen and that is where many of the marine cooks and stewards are now working.

Q. That's very interesting. How many men have you work-

A. We have a six-hour shift for our men in the relief kitchen and we have approximately 32 waiters, 17 cooks, 16 dish washers, and five pantry men on each of the four shifts per day.

Industrial Assn. And Its 2 Cents

SAN FRANCISCO. - Employalready famous, the industrial Association of San Francisco has just issued a pamphlet blaming every industrial dispute now in effect throughout the west on the International Longshoremen's Association.

Longshoremen have aroused the ire of certain business inter- ests, because of their aggressiveness in aiding organization work among unorganized workers.

"Your business may be stopped in its tracks without warning any day, any hour," the attack warned. For the strike of warehouse, shipyard, bag manufacturing and fruit preserving workers, totaling 18,000, who have no direct connections with the maritime industry, longshoremen are blamed. In every instance the strike was called only after employers refused to negotiate or denied right of employes to organize.

For this undeserved credit, ongshore leaders hesitated to take credit. "They DO take credit for setting an example for the men to follow, however," one eader commented. Because the maritime unions refused to arbitrate issues already settled by arbitration and held in effect during the past two years, longshoremen were attacked in the same literature.

On Political Education

THE RECENT election campaign marked the emergence of the Communist Party as an important factor on the American political scene. Its slogans, its analysis of the situation, were eagerly accepted and picked up by millions. Its influence over the political re-alignment now taking place, and on the progressive trend in the labor movement is acknowledged by friend and Organized Labor Must Help Defeat WPA Cuts!

THE WRITERS on the W.P.A. projects in San Francisco are giving a splendid example of organized and determined action to stop the projected cuts scheduled to take place December 15th. Daily delegations are camped on the doorstep of State Relief Adinistrator McLaughlin; under pressure from these organized professional workers local reof officials have been forced to send proest wires humming to Washington; the writers are hard at work getting other categories of professional W.P.A. workers to cooperate in actions to protect their jobs.

Already joint action had been started between the professional workers, members of wthe American Federation of Government Employees, and the Workers' Alliance, representing those on the laboring projects and on direct relief. This joint action must be intensified. It is especially important to involve many hundreds of workers on the projects who as yet are not organized into the Workers' Alliance.

Determined and quick action by these workers can force the rescinding of the order to cut workers off the job. But they need the assistance of organized labor. The Alameda Central Labor Council has already taken action to protest the contemplated cuts. The San Francisco Board of Supervisors has similarly gone on record. What will the San Francisco Labor Council do? And the Los Angeles Central Trades and Labor Council?

Delegates to both bodies should make it their business to see that they fall in step behind the Alameda Central Labor Council. It is as much to the interest of members of the organized labor movement, employed in private industry, to see that the jobs of the W.P.A. workers are protected as it is to those workers directly involved.

Resolutions protesting the cuts, demanding the rescinding of the order, should be passed by trade unions, and copies sent to Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins and to President Roosevelt.

Build the People's Peace Movement

A SIGNIFICANT event is taking place in San Francisco, Dec. 12th and 13th the CALIFORNIA STATE CONFERENCE AGAINST WAR AND FASCISM.

With the landing of an Italian regiment of 2.500 in Spain, fully armed and ready to attack the Spanish government forces, the Fascist powers are straining every nerve to turn the battlefields of Spain into a world-wide conflagration. Open intervention by their armed forces is the logical outcome of Mussolini's and Hitler's recognition of Franco.

Progressive and democratic forces the world over are uniting in support of the Spanish people in their fight against Fascism. Maritime workers in England, Norway, France, Belgium, Holland, Greece and Finland have shown their solidarity with the Spanish workers by refusing to load or sail ships with arms for Franco. Funds, medical supplies and clothing are being collected all over the world. Huge mass meetings are being held to aid Spanish and world democ-

Among the latest of his barrage of mimeographed slime is one containing notice of the opening up of "new headquarters," planned to contain a hotel and restaurant, and which, Mr. Holman declares, he plans to use later as a "hiring hall."

And what is the chief advertisement for this proposed plague-spot? The fact that professional boxers, wrestlers and weightlifters are to be on hand to train an "Enforcement Committee of 500!"-a vigilante

For some time now Holman and his mythical "Marine and Transportation Servicemen's Union of the Pacific Coast have been a laughing stock on the waterfront. During the election campaign President Roosevelt openly declared the administration would support the right of the workers to so organize. The National Labor Board, as a creature of the administration, has taken the first step to carry out the President's declarations in filing this charge against the open-shop U. S. Steel Corporation. But only the first step. What next?

There is no doubt that the hearing, if thoroughly conducted, will reveal that the steel barons used subterfuge and coercion to seep workers out of the "A.A.," and to get hem into their company-union. There is no doubt that the National Labor Board can find only one way; that the steel corporation heads have been guilty of violating the National Labor Relations Act. What then?

Certainly the mere rendering of the verdict alone will not turn the employers into friends of organized labor; surely the steel barons will resort to other methods of flouting this ism of the worst kind. The Com-

Will the National Labor Board then cite the U.S. Steel Corporation for contempt of the National Labor Relations Act? Will they impose sentence of fine, or imprisonment, or both? Or will the same course be followed as was taken in the famous case of An effective anti-war conference in Cali-the Weirton Steel Corporation, which was continuing its anti-labor practices?

This is a chance for the Roosevelt Administration to take a step toward convincing the We call upon all trade unions and other workers that its election promises are someworking class and progressive organizations thing more than promises.

Socialists, Where Are The Trotzkyites Leading You?

As a result of the election campaign the movement for a Farmer-Labor Party has been sharply stimulated throughout country; organized labor and other progressive groups become more keenly aware of the need for the building of an American People's Front, more conscious of the necessity for independent working-class political action antiascist in aim, based on the immediate demands of the people. This development - one in which we are proud to note the Communist Party played a significant role-has not been denied by the Trotzkyist "theoreticians" dominating the California Socialist Party; although it has been vehemently attacked

The question remains: is it correct for a revolutionary party to take such a stand as would help materially to defeat the greatest menace to the liberty and well-being of the people generally?

We did not make an alliance with the Democratic party of capitalism. We sharply criticized Roosevelt's record of surrender to the reactionaries; we emphasized the need for independent political action, for a Farmer-Labor Party and called upon workers to vote Communist as the best protection to their interests. But we did declare it does make a difference to the working class what form of capitalist oppression it is subjected to. Trotzkyite "theoreticians,"

But more important still, they cannot solve their daily problems and tasks because of lack of understanding, because they do not see the link between the daily struggles of the masses of their immediate needs, and the struggle for Socialism. Such people become "practical tradeunionists," under the erroneous impression that there is some contradiction between the Party line and a correct solution of daily practical problems in trade unions or other mass work. It is necessary "to take advantage of every possibility, however small, of gaining an ally among the masses, even though this ally be temporary, vacillating, unstable, unreliable and conditional. Those who do not understand this do not understand even a grain of Marxism and of scientific modern socialism in general.

"Those who think that they will be able to deduce the tactics of the revolutionary proletariat from principles like 'A Communist Party must keep its doctrine pure and its independence of reformism inviolate; its mission is to lead the way, without stopping or turning, by the direct road to the Communist revolution' will fall into error." Sheet-Lead Workers In Danger of Poisoning But May Be Protected

DEAR DOCTOR: Can the following type of work cause lead poisoning, and what protection can be taken against it? 1. Hand-forming of utensils from sheet lead. 2. Hand polishing of lead utensils with steel wool. 3. Lacquering these articles in a room with lacquer fumes from a drying-bin.

Answer—1. The handling of lead in the form of sheets and ingots very seldom leads to lead poisoning.

2. Polishing lead sheets with steel wool naturally creates much lead dust. This is breathed in through the lungs and usually causes lead poisoning. The worker may be fully protected by wearing the proper sort of mask which filters the dust out of the air that he breathes. Have your union demand that the company furnish the workers with the mask called, "Willson No. 3 Felt Bag".

3. Any danger from lacquer fumes depends upon what the lacquer consists of. Most lacquers used today do not contain substances which cause serious damage, but they may irritate the bronchial tubes, or cause a rash or other minor ailments. Such trouble may be stopped by having a good ventilation system in the drying room.

The Young People Need a Lot More

CAMP BEING cleared by CCC workers near Peekskill, N. Y., where young vacationists and hikers will get a night's lodging for 25 cents. This is the first of the so-called youth hotels sponsored by the government. That's fine, but the young people of our country face more serious problems than nights' lodgings when they go hiking. They want jobs, which the Benson-Amlie Youth Bill would provide.

SEEING RED

BY MICHAEL QUIN

A RE THE SHIPOWNERS really as bad as they think they are? I made a very careful investigation of the matter and discovered they are worse.

However, you do not have to depend upon my personal investigations. During 1933 and 1934, there were two separate Government investigations of the shipowners. Both investigating committees reported that the private shipowners of America are so incorrigibly dishonest that it is useless to try to deal with them at all.

During the present waterfront strike, there is a great deal of talk about setting up so-called "impartial agencies" to intervene and settle all disputes. Perhaps the general public would like to know why the strikers themselves are so mistrustful of all these alleged "impartial" bodies.

You will understand this better if I explain to you that both of the above mentioned Government investigation committees voiced a very similar distrust of "impartial agencies." In plain words, these committees reported that after examining all evidence it was their belief that it would be "difficult if not impossible" to establish any agency which the shipowners could not manage to corrupt or get around,

Perhaps it will be more effective to quote directly from the Preliminary Report of the Senate Committee to Investigate Air and Ocean Mail Contracts , which was presented to Congress last year:

"Your committee believes from the experience of the Government, particularly during the last decade, that it would be difficult and almost impractical to devise safeguards sufficient to save the taxpayer from the unfair and unjust extortions of persistent profiteers under the subsidy system."

This report then proceeded to prove beyond any question that the private shipowners:

(1) Maintained an apparatus for the express purpose of preventing magazines and newspapers from publishing articles or stories which were unfavorable to the shipowners;

(2) Maintained a publicity machine which supplied magazines and newspapers with "tailor made" editorials and reports which were printed verbatum by these publications as their own expressions.

(3) Maintained a highly paid lobby in Washington which invented, introduced, and railroaded through Congress, certain legislation which enabled them to loot the public treasury of hundreds of millions of dollars of taxpayers' money.

Allow me to call your attention to the fact that the Congress of the United States of America is supposed to be the supreme "impartial agency." Maybe you can understand now why the maritime unions do at the Musart, starting Dec. 10. axe in the hands of an "impartial agency." LITTLE common sense ought to be applied to the word

A "arbitration." Arbitration means that you sign your name to a blank piece of paper and hand it to an "impartial agency," with the proposition that you will abide by whatever this agency writes on the paper.

Arbitration is quite practical and possible on all minor issues. On major issues, it is ridiculous. No man is willing to sign a blank piece of paper and empower someone to write his death warrant on it. Provided they are guaranteed certain fundamental rights, on which the very life and strength of their unions depend, the maritime strikers are willing to submit all other issues to arbitration. They are willing to empower any arbitration board to settle normal disputes and controversies. But they certainly will not empower any arbitration committee to kick the very foundation out from under their union.

This is plain, ordinary common sense. Anyone who says the unions won't arbitrate is a liar. And anyone who thinks "arbitration" can be sensibly and fairly applied to any and every difference of opinion that arises, has gone wandering outside the

Sold Seamen To Shipowners For Two Years

NEW YORK.-In a statement o the Press, William L. Standard, council to the Striking Seamen of the Port of New York, presented the legal status f the agreement, which he says "virtually sold the seamen to the shipowners for two years without them knowing anything about it." He said:

"I am authorized to state, in behalf of the Striking Seamen that they are ready to offer proof to establish the fact that no binding agrement exists between the steamship owners and the seamen.

The first agreement drawn with the shipowners became effective on January 1st, 1936. Thereafter the question of extending the 1935 agreement was submitted to the membership of the union for decision by a referendum vote. The result of this the proposal to extend this agreement by a vote of more than 6 to 1.

Thereafter an agreement upon which the shipowners rely today, was supposed to have been executed on the 9th day of March, 1936. This agreement was never submitted for the membership for adoption or rejectionit was secretly signed without the seamen knowing anything about it.

Rat In King Case Fails to Appear For Trial

SAN FRANCISCO.-Matthew D. Guidera, stool pigeon whose story was used by police in the framed murder charges against Earl King, E. J. Ramsay and Frank Connors, has been expelled from the Marine Cooks' and Stewards Association.

A trial committee, unanimousy found him guilty on three harges; first, that he posed as officer of the union; second, that without ascertaining the facts he gave information to the police which resulted in the ar-rest of an official of an affiliated union, and third, that he caused Abstains from Voting dissension on the waterfront by conspiring to cause the arrest of three members of an affiliated Guidera, although notified by registered mail, in effect admitted the truth of the charges by failing to appear before the trial committee.

We Have More Friends Than We Know

By a Worker Correspondent.

A lot of times the efforts of individual Communists seem to be thrown upon barren ground. At a recent committee meeting, one comrade was peeved be-tause very little of a concrete nature was accomplished. I remember when I was Sonoma ection organizer, it was nothing to travel from 18 to 30 miles, with the possibility of a fruitless trip. Such is the life of a revolutionist.

Meets a Sympathizer

But all is not so disheartening. There is a sunny side to our work. One of these sun spots showed last Saturday. My son went on a hitch-hike to San Rafael. The first ride he got was from a young fellow driving a small truck. The young man started to talk of the present maritime strike, and during the conversation expressed his sympathy for the Communist Party. It seemed although he stated he himself was not a party member, that his desire was to instill a class consciousness into what he considered a young boy.

Student Days

The effect upon my son was ideed agreeable. And when he rrived home, he told this story. The young truck driver told of the time when he was a stu-dent in college. He had a friend who was the son of a doctor. They were both taking economics, and invariably the doctor's son received "A". The young fellow was puzzled because no matter how hard he tried he could never get an "A." So one day he asked the doctor's son how he managed to get an "A", hinting that there must be some other way he was attaining his knowledge beside the text books.

Our Literature Turns the Trick 'Don't you know?" asked the doctor's son. "Of course not," answered the other.

"Well," went on the doctor's on, "all you have to do is spend five or 10 cents for some Communist literature and you will get an 'A.'

So the young truck driver told my son that he found that all he had to do was buy a copy of "Why Communism" for five cents, and after he read and studied it a while, he began to receive an "A" in economics.

Minn. Governor-Elect Thinks Party Will Be Set In '40

ST. PAUL, Minn. - Prospects for a national Farmer-Labor Party in 1940 are quite cheerful, declared Senator Elmer A. Benson, Farmer-Labor governorelect of Minnesota, Benson predicted that the Minnesota Farmer-Labor Party, the Wisconsin Progressive Party, North Dakota Non-Partisan League, American Labor Party of New York State, the Washington Commonwealth Federation, form the basis for a new political party as the organ for political expression of workers, farmers and progressives.

"John L. Lewis has expressed his interest in the new party," tire American Federation of Labor will support it, even though as conservative as our indus-

We can always expect the employers and the newspapers to raise a red scare in an agricultural strike in order to split the workers. This was done in Salinas on a large scale. But what harmed the strike was the fact that Doss and Shevlin raised the red scare within the union.

Beef squads were organized by them for the purpose of hunting "reds." Many rank and file members were threatened, that the union should go back were warned to leave town.
